HUGHES MAKES FIRST CAMPAIGN SPEECH AT

DENIES BEING MILITARY

Would Have Efficiency in Government and Definite Policies Towards All Poreign Mations.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 7 .- There is not a particle of militarism in my composition, but there is a sturdy determination, if I am put in a place of executive responsibility representing all the sAmerican people, to see to America's name, in addition, in policy and in execution is honored throughout the world.' In these words Charles Evans Hughes tonight concluded a speech in which he practically promised intervention in Bounds Into Campaign Form.

In what was probably the most spectacular day of his career, Mr for the presidency with a bang. Perhaps, indeed, it was the warmth of the lives, to try

"He kept us out of war," the speaker said, in referring to President Wilson, "but we seized Vera Cruz. That was called war over the bodies of those dead soldiers; it was called a war of Attacks President's Mexican Policy. "Talk about policy. What is the president's policy—does anyone know? Has the executive ever had a policy for more than six months on the Mexican question? I reiterate, who knows today what the policy of the administration will be three months hence' My friends, the trouble is that this administration has written such a record that, normatter what it says, you do not know whether it will stick to it. | been "We have had an exhibition during the past three years which, I confess, fills me with a deep sense of shame. I have not a particle of militaristic spirit in my system, but if I am elected president I will see to it that American rights in Mexico are respected. Mr. Hughes' evening speech is in part as follows:

You have here the problem of the sudden introduction of a large alien population. You did not remain indifferent. You set an example in Americanism to all America; and we point to Detroit as the one place in this land where there has been shown a quickening of interest in the development and training and Americanizing of alien men and women who have come to this land.

Americanizing of Aliens.

sentiment of American unity among those who come among us as stran-When we admit to this country men country will never be worthily repre-

to those obligations and to realize that every community there must be a try that is devoted to the betterment country, not simply giving an oppor- of application, who thoroughly knew ment could not discharge these is right and he knows that it is right, tunity to work for dollars, but a coun- his job, and put him out and put in an functions. We had no business to you are going to establish the justice tunity to work for dollars, but a coun- his job, and put him out and put in an inexperienced man, simply as a matter of personal favor. of human life; to the enlightenment Understood to Favor Inter- of the standards of human thought, to "We have had a serious disregard of the spirit and requirements of our civil the liberalization of all those things vention in Mexico Unless connected with human understanding service law. In a Democratic community, the hardest thing in the world, Order Is Restored Quickly, and purpose; we want America first inty, the hardest thing in the mind and heart of everyone in in a sense, is to get a general appre- war upon any individual and try to and purpose; we want America first this land.

ice in our diplomatic intercourse.

Says Civil Service Disregarded.

Experts Taken From Office.

persons to be appointed under this law shall not be appointed under the re-establishing the classified civil service

"It has been a raid upon the civil

Removal of Census Director.

"Take, for example, the bureau of

"We had in the coast and geodetic

"In the coast and geodetic survey ending about April, 1916, there were Protection for Americans.

"Now, then, we want, in the first

Protection to American

n substance as follows:

ble partisan expediency.

"Past administrations, I grant you,

It men attend to the business of the Safeguarding of Workmen. "But America is not simply a land private business, but, between you and "Now the

for the man of special talent or of dis- me, in public business anything goes. tinguished aptitude. This is the home of the average man, the ordinary man who is doing his best, whether by talent or aptitude; and in our large industrial occupations, where thousands are gathered together in one service, we want a recognition of human brotherhood in providing for the welfare of great country.

'We want workingmen to be safeguarded from every injury that can be prevented. We want the health of the it-and that is my purpose-that Amer- workingmen looked after; every means strictions of an act passed so and so, ica's rights are safeguarded, and that provided which conduces to the proper at such a time, which means the act standpoint of living; every means provided for proper recreation; appropriate period.' means for education, for vocational training. In short, the workingman service of the United States, and the who is on his job and expects to con- American people ought to understand tended to that incomparable, that ideal tinue on the job ought to feel that he it. And we have had positions, expert Mexico if elected to the presidency if is doing something worth while for a positions, rquiring expert knowledge, the situation does not mend across the community that appreciates it and which have been subordinated to the did a wrong thing in abandoning its gives him a fair chance to lead a happy demands of what I regard as an ignoand a decent life.

Economy Is Business

"We have got along in this country Hughes rounded into campaign form altogether too easily, with our wealth overnight, and started off his battle of natural resources. Men have been expert statistician, a very competent content, living apart in their separate man, well understood to be such. We to make something for have him retired and in his place we Detroit welcome which inspired the their individual selves; but now we have a Democratic politician from a efforts of the candidate to rise to the have reached a point where it is neces- southern state. And he is hardly warm sary, as it has been necessary abroad, in his place before he is transferred to to try to reduce all waste, to try to the trade commission. The trade comprevent all unnecessary outlay and to mission itself was fairly emasculated try to make business successful accord- by the men, for the most part, wh war-very ignoble war-and it was ing to the merit of a well-organized, were appointed to place upon it onomically conducted business. "I want efficiency in the government got to stop in this country if we are the United States. If a manager going ahead to meet the demands that were to be appointed in an automobile are to come upon us. factory, would you appoint a man that never had seen an automobile? If you survey an eminent scientist, a man want to run successfuly a large busi- who had won distinction in connection ness enterprise in production would with his scientific work, a man of you appoint a man that never had eminent rank. He was displaced to seen the works and didn't know any- make room for an excellent stockthing about it, simply because ne voted breeder and veterinary surgeon. the ticket that you vote? My friends. "In the coast and geodetic a the world that we are about to live in we have had an extraordinary condiin the next 25 years is going to be a tion with regard to expert places. I very different world from what it has mean places that were taken out of ordinary power, how will you judge his ber, I believe, of about 104. I believe town. efficiency in the conduct of the enor- that some of those were made without mous business interests with which he seeking the advice of the civil service s entrusted?' Judge him by his words? commission. I believe that about 2

Judges by Appointments.

judge him by his appointments, were made after seeking the advice "I want to state a few thing, that and with the approval of the civil serare not very pleasant things to state vice commission, and I believe that 62 to an American audience, but this is a were made in opposition to the advice time when we are facing facts. We of the civil service commission. have said frequently that we desired o cultivate the most friendly relations with Latin America. What have we done? In country after country we place, to have our record perfectly It is perfectly idle to expect a sound | an admirable and important experience "We have taken them out and put in men utterly inexperienced. I say gers come, merely to be exploited, it is inexcusable. Let me tell you this clear that we are going to insist that have taken out men who have given long periods successfully to the study of diplomacy and have represented the erly, and we are going to insist in country with credit, and had acquired a way that will make us reare going to see that this is done which we are enitled to have done. We are going to have that platform and women, we assume obligations sented or take its place properly among understood. citizens, to the property of American citizens, and to our border from incursions, the rights that we have as one nation relatively to another nation at

"We are going to insist that those obligations be performed which we, as the United States, are going to have performed; that we do not propose any meddlesome policy; that we do not propose, while we wish well for every one in Mexico, to do anything that is contrary to their wishes, if they do what we are entitled to have done, Put that clearly before them, insist upon that and we will make some progress toward having it done at the earliest opportunity, and our policy should be to see that it is done and promptly

To Guard American Bights. "There is not a particle of militarism in my composition, but there is a sturdy determination, if I am put in a place of executive responsibility representing all the American people, to see to it—and that is my purpose—that America's rights are safeguarded, and that America's name in administration. n policy and in execution is honored throughout the world.

"I used to think that if there was one thing which the American public was less interested in than anything else, it was the actual administration of their government. But I am begin-ning to believe that, with the object lessons we have had abroad and with the definite appreciation of the crisis we are in, there is a different notion this country about those things. I old it is the most unworthy thing an administration can do to take public business and pay political debts with it. Prize of American Citizenry. "When I say that I am an American thing that any man can say in this But you can't have that prize American citizenry is a cheap thing, it is not worthy of protection this wide world over. "There is no man who could sucessfully present to an American

"There is no one who could success fully present to an American community a platform that American citizens' rights stopped with the coast ine, and the moment he left his Property Also Included.

he goes with his rights and the right to the proper protection of his country under international law, wherever he journeys throughout the world. Now that is what the Democratic platform told us in so many words in 1912. They did not stop with American citizens. They said, 'American citizens and their property,'

"We have had an exhibition in the last three years, which I confess fills me with a deep sense of shame.
"I would not counsel any action that was contrary to the dictates of those usages and customs and recognized rights and obligations with which we national law. "It was our business to stand for all the rights of American citizens under international law to vindicate inmanding them. "We should have said that we insisted upon the protection of the lives supreme in the thought of everyone had sinned in that particular, but and property of American citizens, of dislike us because we did not have a state what would be done in the fu-> functions. "But it was another thing to take an attitude quite apart from the protection of American rights and wage ciation of the importance of having take control of Mexican affairs in the interest of what we think they

"Now that was precisely what was done. Huerta Told to Get Out.

"We did not content ourselves with and happiness. "The Republican platform says that 'That the agents, clerks and other ligations."

> can't put yourself up to be voted for. much progress along that line. "And immediately after recognition character, Villa.' In my judgment, the administration proper international attitude and taking the attitude that no international lawyer could understand-that no Mexcan could understand.

Mexicans Did Not Understand "Well, the Mexicans did not understand our attitude. There was a fight, Nineteen Americans and a large number of Mexicans were killed. And they —the administration—they kept us 'out of war.' That was war, and very nickel loaf.' ignoble war.

"Having gotten rid of Huerta, what next did we do? We said, 'Let these Mexicans spill as much blood as they want to—that is their blessed privi-lege. So we coquetted with Villa, with S. F. McDonald of Memphis spoke on lege. So we coquetted with Villa, with S. F. McDonald of Memphis spoke on lege. Welfare of Employes." "My friends, that sort of thing has tion to favor any bandit in the land.

Oriticises Punitive Expedition. "I never heard of a more extraordinary expedition than that punitive expedition we sent down there. Was military expedition or was it not? If it were not a military expedition, why send it? If a military expedition, why ignore all the essential requisites of a properly managed military expedition? It went down between two lines of rail the civil service laws. I shall not go American troops went mile after mile rator appointed to a position of extra- civil service laws places to the num- not touch. They could not go to a more blood was shed. "My friends, we have made people who comes into the community; to standards were being made and there have the language understood and spoken; to have American sentiment perience and fine training. It was just performs the function of governreplace foreign sentiment: to have as though you had taken the manager ment.

American ideals replace foreign ideals; of an automobile factory that had got to have a realization that this is a country, not simply giving an oppor- of application, who thereughly knew ment country. recognize him unless the executive of your cause, And America, with her was satisfied he could discharge those power, never need be afraid of espousing a just cause.

Let the Mexicans Understand.

"Let the Mexicans understand once for all that we do not intend to meddle they shall perform their obligations to try, due to the better bakerles here, us, to protect our citizens, protect them in their just enjoyment of their lives and their property; that they will perform the guarantees that they have given us, and then we shall have peace under the Democratic administration not recognizing Huerta. That was a "If they can establish a stable gov- smaller package. The average conthere have been created, since March matter to be determined according to ernment we will do all that we can to sumer knows that he can secure better 4, 1913, over 30,000 places which have proper principles according to the un- support it. Talk about policy: What is quality in a large roast of beef than been taken outside of the original op- derstanding of the executive as to the the president's policy? Does any one eration of the civil service laws. Read capacity of that government, if it was know? Has the executive ever had a those who make the wealth of this enactment after enactment, providing a government, to furnish adequate pro- policy for more than six months in the tection and discharge international ob- Mexican question? I repeat, who knows , today what the policy of the adminis-"But our administration said to tration will be three months from now? Huerta 'You get out. You can't even The trouble is that this administration be a candidate. We won't even allow has written a record that no matter you to run for office. We are so de- what it says you don't know whether termined to get rid of you that you it will respect it. You cannot make

> was withdrawn from Huerta it was ex-KEY TO THE SITUATION IN A TEN-CENT LOAF

> > (Continued From Page One.)

president of the convention, "Ten cent want any. After 300 years of trial, loaves are the only salvation of the England appointed a committee of very baker's trade. The increased price of raw materials makes it necessary for vestigation forced them to a lish all use to cut our overhead expense, which laws regarding the size of bread. is the same for the dime as for the size will be regulated by competition.

In his annual address on the topic preparedness for the baking indusry," President Burns urged cooperation against unreasonable demands of E. D. Strain of Battle Creek, Mich. led the discussion on the report of the legislative committee made by H. W. Stude of Houston, Texas.

PORTLAND BREAD PRICES WILL PROBABLY REMAIN UNCHANGED, IT IS SAID

a punitive expedition right between Portland for the next few months, or pany "Now, if you have a great adminis- removed from the operation of the two lines of railway which they could even a decrease in the size of the loaf, even a decrease in the size of the loaf. "There is a city ordinance fixing the Announcement to that effect was minimum weight of a 5-cent loaf of It was an absurdly arranged made during the day by H. H. Haynes, bread at 12 ounces," said he. "At pres

Your Summers Go Better

thanks to the soda fountain-soda fountains are better, thanks to -the drink that made the soda fountain

a national institution. That's because have got in this country to be awake there is no ideal of continuity of serv- and there was a proper way of de- expedition. Of course, it could not suc- president of the Haynes-Foster Baking ent the loaves sold for that price weigh consumer. There is only one answer ceed. Of course, we got into trouble | company and president of the Oregon from 14 ounces to a pound.

Master Bakers' association. While Mr. Haynes was unable cutting of the size of the loaf was the price. If flour and lard go highunlikely until then, at least. That the 5-cent loaf of bread is in reality notes good thing eithe for the oaker or the consumer was the asserion of Mr. Haynes. He says that it is impossible to bake a first-class bread in so small a package, and that the 5-cent loaf, while better at Portwith their affairs, that we desire that land than in most parts of the counthe 10-cent loaf is far superior.

"A consumer will get much more for the money by buying a 10-cent loaf than one for 5 cents," says Mr. Haynes, "because it is impossible to get either the quality or the quantity in the in a small one, and this holds equa"y true as regards bread.

"That is the reason why bakers all over the country are agitating the 10cent loaf. There would be more profit in the larger package for the baker: the consumer would secure not only greater bulk, but far better quality. "The future of the brend price natu rally depends upon what the wheat

Bakers here blend the markets do. ocal. Dakota and Montana flours and use only about 25 per cent of the former. If the price of wheat goes much higher, and flour follows, it is natural that bread must go up, too. may be that this will cut down the size of the 5-cent loaf of bread to the size of an ordinary bun, but there is no immediate prospect of it.

There is no state law regarding the 60 days," said J. Burns of Omaha, size of a loaf of bread, and we don't prominent people, and three years' in > New York Sees Need of Change New York, Aug. 8 - (U. P.) creased cost of flour, lard and labor s given by New York bakers as ample reason for either the reduction in weight or the raising in price of the ordinary 5-cent loaf of bread "Everything that is used in making bread and the cost of labor as well has gone up," said C. E. Abbott of the Abbott Bakerles. "The size of the loaf nust be reduced or the price in San Francisco Has Ordinance. San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 8 .- (U. P. The price of wheat will have to soan igher before there will be any reduction in the size of a loaf of bread here the civil service laws. I shall not go American troops went mile after mile Unless all signs fall, there will be according to Superintendent K. G into the exact figures. In the year for hundreds of miles into Mexico on no advance in the price of bread in Krause of the California Baking com-

Cleveland Stands Pat.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 8 .- (U. P.)-There is no likelihood of 5-cent bread being raised to 10 cents here. The er, we might reduce the weight.

Only One Answer in Chicago. Chicago, Aug. 8. - (U. P.) - "Inreasing the price of bread appeals to pakers no more than it does to the bread.

and that is 10-cent bread," said Paul Schulze of the Schulze Baking com-"We can make a profit on the big loaf at 10 cents, but not on the small ones at 5 cents.

Not Felt in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. S .- (U. P.)canvass of wholesale bread manufacturers and flour-mill owners indicated that southern California thus far has felt the advance in the price of wheat less than other sections of the country. There are no present indica-

$2.25 Middy Suits $1.45

—as illustrated

-A practical suit for Summer outingsand for wear around the house! Twopiece style, with belted jacket and separate skirt. Trimmed in blue stripes. -One rack of these Middy Suits-marked special at $2.25. For tomorrow's Rummage Sale $1.45.

$3.95 Striped Middy Suits $2.45

-Three smartest sports styles-blazer stripe coat with white skirt; blazer stripe coat and skirt, all white with striped trimming. $3.25, $3.75 and $3.95 Middy Sports Suits $2.45.

$1.50 White Tub Skirts, $1

-Two jaunty models, patch pockets, one with separate belt. Excellent material. Skirts you see elsewhere at $1.50. To-

$2 White Tub Skirts, $1.35 -Honeycomb and cord stripes-new slant and draped pockets. Swagger models. Tomorrow, $1.35.

$3 Handsome Tub Skirts, $1.95 -Finest quality cotton gaberdines, piques, poplins. Famous Striped Sports Skirts, Half Price -Stunning blazer and awning stripes, in all colors.

-Formerly $3.45, $3.95, $4.45, $4.95, $5.45, $5.95
-Now at..$1.75, $1.95, $2.25, $2.45, $2.75, $2.95

$9.50 Summer Dresses for $4.65 -New long tunic styles, trimmed with velvet bands. New blazer stripes. Russian styles. Dresses selling to $9.50, at $4.65 $1.75 Middies, All Styles, $1.00

-Every wanted effect in a Middy-plain white, colored trim'd, new blazer stripes. One big lot selling to $1.75, tomorrow, $1.

New White Felt Hats—SPECIAL! -Those big, stunning floppy brim felts-all the craze

Two wonderful values tomorrow-nothing like them in town

$1.98 and $2.50

124 10 128 South St., Just off Washington

THE young man and young woman will ever find a readiness upon our part to aid in legitimate commercial expansion. An account established now, and maintained reasonably, will permit a building up of "credit standing." Every banking facility is afforded.

Free J. Stamps The Yamhill Public Market is helping thousands of families to cut down the high cost of living. Wednesday, in addition to the low prices those who present this ad when making purchases of 50c or over at any one stall will get 10 extra S. & H. Green Trading Stamps FREE besides regular of Mexico. We had certain things that we had a right to demand of Mexico.

CORNER SECOND AND YAMHILL STREETS We Give the Regular Stamps

with respect to their training, as well the nations if men are appointed mere-as grant to them privileges; and we ly to satisfy partisan obligations, and Bayer Tablets Aspirin Do You Use Aspirin? If so, buy the one genuine. Every package and every tablet of genuine Aspirin bears "The Bayer Cross" - your protection against counterfeits and harmful substitutes. "The Bayer Cross—Your Guarantee of Purity" The trade-mark "Aspirin" (Reg. U. S. Pat. Office) is a guarantee that the monoaceticacidester of salicylicacid in these tablets is of the reliable Bottles of Bayer manufacture. 24 and 100

a friend to poor complexions

Resinol Soap is not only unusually cleansing and softening, but its regular use helps nature give to the skin and hair that beauty of perfect health which it is impossible to imitate. Tendency to pimples is lessened. redness and roughness disappear, and in a very short time the complexion usually becomes clear, fresh

The soothing, restoring influence that makes this possible is the Resinol which this soap contains and which physicians have prescribed for over twenty years, in Resinol Ointment. in the care of skin and scalp troubles.

If the skin is in bad condition through neglect or an unwise use of cosmetics, use a little Resinol Ointment at first. Resinel Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists. For samples free, write to Dept. 30-R, Resinel, Baltimore, Md.

citizen I ought to say the proudest the platform that American citizen's rights stop at the coast line and that beyond that American life is to be a prey of any marauder that chooses to take it.

shores he was a prey to any person that saw fit to murder or destroy

"If a man is an American citizen compromise under the name of 'interternational law. What Should Have Been Done. "Now you take for example the case it gave them a useful, wholesome, delicious and refreshing beverage to serve. Demand the genuine by full name-nicknames encourage substitution. THE COCA-COLA CO., ATLANTA, GA. Send for free booklet "The Romance of Coca-Cola." 3 6 6 6 8