HOLLOCHER RECALLED; YOUNGSTER EXPECTED TO SHOW UP STRONG

Judge McCredie Is Fortifying the Beavers Against Hard Pennant Race Next Year.

USES OPTION ON PLAYER

Youth of 16 Fielded Sensationally When With Portland, But Fell Down In His Batting.

Judge W. W. McCredle of the Portland baseball club yesterday exercised his option on Infleider Charley Hollocher of Rock Island club of Three-I league, which means that the youthful but promising player who tried out at the Sacramento training camp will be back in a Portland uniform next season with added age and experi-

Hollocher looked like a comer in the Portland training camp, but his age. 18 years, was somewhat against him. He fielded sensationally at times during the first month of the season, be was a little weak at the bat and Manager Walter McCredie thought a season out would do him a lot of good.
