

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

COUNTRY HOME OF HENRY L. CORBETT

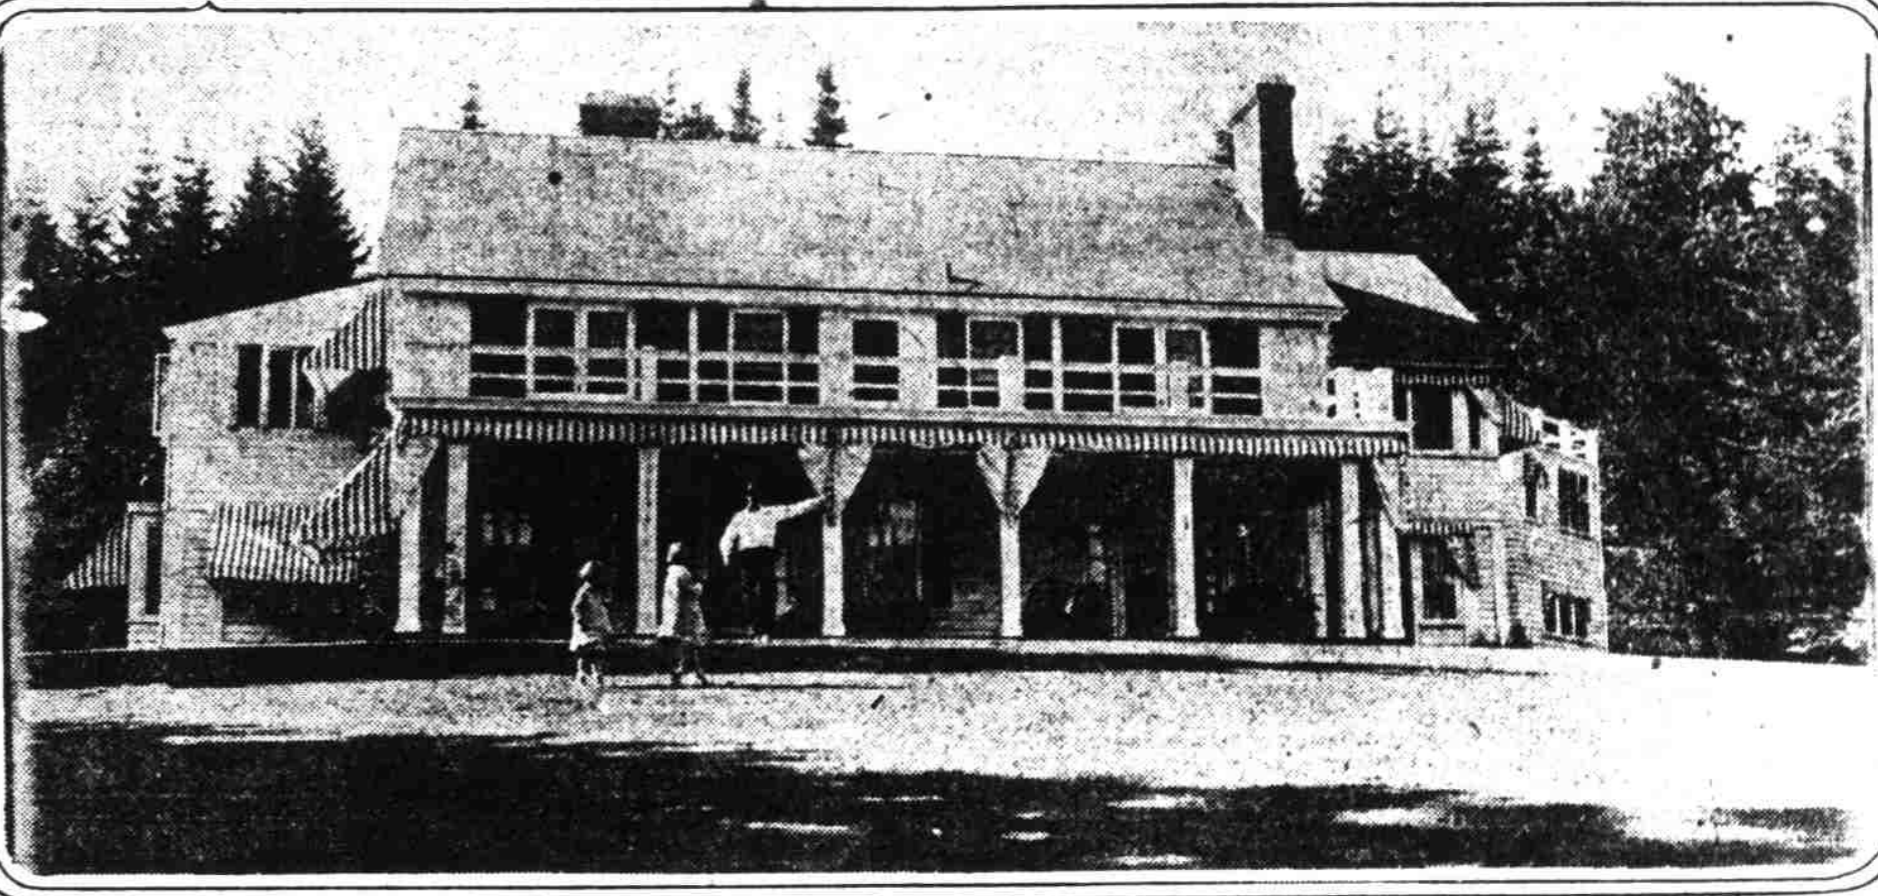

MRS. W. JAC MASTER

MRS. J. D. FARRELL, MRS. N. O. VAN SCHUYVER

At the Waverley Club

MRS. D. P. THOMPSON, MRS. SAM'L D. SMITH, MRS. JAMES McCRAKEN, MISS LAURA SMITH

COUNTRY HOME OF ELLIOTT R. CORBETT

and her sister, Mrs. A. T. Fisher, of Chicago, who is passing the summer with her and Mrs. P. J. Mottram (nee Liebs) will leave Tuesday for Koske's camp on the Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Willard Bond of Pendleton have returned to Portland after two weeks' visit at Rainier and Lake Louise in the Canadian Rockies. Mrs. Bond and her daughter, Betty, will remain for several weeks' visit in Portland with her sisters, Mrs. Robert Townsend and Mrs. Charles Lewis.

The home of Mrs. James McMenamin in Beaverton was the scene of a pretty luncheon Thursday when Mrs. McMenamin entertained for the pleasure of the members of Pi Beta Phi who will leave shortly to continue their work at the universities. Yellow poppies graciously adorned the tables. Baskets of gold flowers were arranged artistically in the drawing room. Mrs. McMenamin's guests were Mrs. B. Beck, Mrs. Frank Knight, Mrs. John Turner, Gertrude Cowdell, Rita Fraley, Jenn Geisler, Marguerite Jackson, Frances Dewar, Elizabeth Dewar, Marie M'Henry, Florence Knapp, Janet McLaren, Natalie Miller, Vera Weaver, and Miss Virginia Thompson. Assisting were Pauline Tatis, Elmore Cowgill and Ruth Doyle.

"Holly-Week" the summer home of Dr. F. W. Hollister at Rhododendron, was the scene of much merriment on Thursday last, when Mrs. Hollister entertained in honor of Mrs. F. C. Gortler, it being the anniversary of Mrs. Gortler's birth. A pleasant afternoon being spent and delectable refreshments served. Those present were: Mrs. Helen Calf, Mrs. Clyde Burnett, Mrs. Charles Neehen, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. Lavinia Howell, Mrs. John Archibald, Mrs. S. K. Hollister, Mrs. William Russell, Mrs. Charles Gortler and Mrs. F. W. Hollister.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra W. Decoto of Oakland, Cal., left Saturday after passing several days in the city with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fish. Mrs. Decoto is a sister of Mrs. Fish. They were returning home from a six weeks' trip to the eastern states. Mrs. Fish has been visiting with her mother,

Most people find that once they meet Vogans', they quit asking for merely chocolates, Vogans' are that good!

of Mrs. Jarvin, in California while Mr. Fish has been at the Monterey training camp. Mrs. Fish returned home last Sunday, her mother accompanying her. Mr. Fish arrived home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cannon, with their two little girls, Peggy and Sandy, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mautz and their little children, Dorothy and Mary, left Friday to motor to the McKenzie river, where they will camp above the bridge for about two weeks.

Mrs. Herbert Garr Reed has as her house guests her niece, Miss Helen Drain and Miss Elsie Kietling of Tacoma. Miss Drain will probably pass the winter with Mrs. Reed.

The Grand Cap Inn is very gay with guests from all parts of the United States at this time. Parties are enjoying daily outings with the guide to the various places of interest. F. W. Leubetter and daughter Dorothy, F. R. Coit and F. Berger, went to the summit of Mt. Hood recently, and spent the night.

Mrs. G. E. Moeller of Decatur, Ill., who has been passing the last month at the Mallory hotel at dinner, host last Sunday evening. Her guests included: Miss Gertrude Smith, Mrs. T. Nelson, of Decatur, Judge and Mrs. W. K. Whitfield, of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas West and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bartholomew.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lalonde, of Chicago, with their son and daughter, made their departure for their eastern home Friday, after visiting in Portland, guests at the Mallory. They will go through Yellowstone National Park en route home.

a brief visit to Juarez, Mexico. Dr. Drake especially enjoyed renewing old friendships in his native town, Marion, Ohio, an "also a visit at Delaware, Ohio, where his father and mother attended the university almost 60 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Kietzing, recent bride and bridegroom of Juneau, Alaska, are visiting Mr. Kietzing's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kietzing, of 248 Monroe street. Mr. Kietzing is circulation manager of the Juneau Daily Dispatch. His bride, who was Miss Helen Blackwell, is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Blackwell, pastor of the Juneau Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Blackwell formerly was stationed at Oregon City and Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Kietzing will visit in Portland and Willamette valley points, returning the latter part of the month to Juneau. Mrs. Kietzing formerly attended Oregon Agricultural college and Mr. Kietzing was circulation manager of the Eugene Guard several years ago.

Honoring Miss Genevieve Landeen, bride-elect, the Misses Hazel Bowman and Georgia Irvine entertained with a linen shower last week at the home of the former in Livingston. The rooms were fragrant and attractive in baskets of sweet peas and ferns. At the supper table pink sweet peas formed the center piece from which pink ribbons extended to each of the 12 covers. The guests were Miss Landeen, Mrs. Paul Eeely, the Misses Anna Rich, Marion Richey, Dorothy Bowman, Helen Cowles, Maie Irvine, Florence Johnson, Gene Gumm, Etta Vanderveen.

One of the jolliest of the summer dances in the Laurelhurst club Sunday evening, when the club entertained in honor of the players in the Laurelhurst tournament. A feature of the evening was the award of the trophies. The past week's tournament proved itself to be one of the most popular of club affairs.

Every afternoon the courts were thronged with tennis enthusiasts, while in the evening the ballroom was equally as gay with numerous stepping parties.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Faust entertained with bridge and 500 Friday evening, when the club members met for the weekly card party.

son, duet, Miss Mary Corcoran and Richard Robertson, song, Mrs. Herbert Williams, piano solo, Nonnal Bolton, song, Ruby Goulet, imitation of violin, Goldie Goulet, dance, Harriet Holland, classic dance, Miss Julie Murphy.

Patronesses for the affair were: Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. William P. Sinnott and Mrs. James Mackney.

Announcement was made last week that Miss Esther Hamilton and Oliver Bacon will be united in marriage on Tuesday evening, August 22, which date is the birthday of the prospective bride. Rev. Will C. Trotter will officiate and the ceremony is to be performed on the camp ground at Fifty-second and Powell streets.

A very enjoyable afternoon was passed by the friends of Mr. W. S. Settle at her apartments in the Wagoner at 715 Wayne street. Bridge was the pastime indulged in.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Urfer of New Philadelphia, Ohio, were given a reception Tuesday evening last by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Finzer and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleck. The reception was preceded by a lawn picnic dinner, served to the guests with the assistance of Mrs. Irving S. Teibette, and Mrs. C. J. Dentler and Mrs. Walker. The musical program was enjoyed by some 150 guests and the Grand Army quarters, consisting of Veterans, Varner, Hamilton, Chambers and Poulson, was the sensation of the evening.

Other numbers were given by Mrs. W. N. Messer, a song, violin solo by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simonson, reading by Mrs. Marie Stewart, a piano solo by Miss Beatrice Finzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Urfer, and son Donald, the guests of honor departed for the east Wednesday morning after visiting in Portland for a week. Mr. Urfer is a prominent merchant and banker, and is also interested in a number of manufacturing enterprises.

Miss Ruby Shiner, formerly principal supervisor of the Portland public schools, and J. Sloan Brennan, a business man of this city, formerly of County Monaghan, Ireland, will be married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Shearer next Wednesday.

Koepfen, mother of the bride, made known the engagement. The wedding is planned for the latter part of September.

The Misses Mary and Ethel Cooper, who have been spending their summer vacation with their mother, Mrs. Bertie Cooper, were hostesses at a delightful dancing party at the hotel Mallory on Saturday evening.

Mrs. M. M. Wyatt of Santa Cruz, Cal., who has been the guest of her son, J. R. Wyatt, left Tuesday evening for her home after a delightful visit in Portland. Friday of last week Mrs. Wyatt honored his mother with a picnic party at Multnomah Falls, the guests motoring out over the Columbia highway. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hale also entertained for Mrs. Wyatt.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Ferrill of Myrtle street, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McDonald of Portland Heights, have just returned from a three weeks' motor trip through California. The trip south was made through the Willamette valley and after leaving San Francisco, the coast route was followed to San Diego. While at Santa Barbara they were the guests of Harry M. Isaacs, well known in Portland because of his work in connection with the Lewis and Clark fair.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Goldsmith and their son, Louie, left Saturday morning for a motor trip to the second city. They will be met in Tacoma by Archie Goldsmith, their oldest son, who will travel with them through the Rainier National park. They expect to be gone about two weeks. During that time they will visit all the principal points of interest in western Washington.

A number of motoring parties are registered at the Mallory. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Toulson from Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Browne, who motored from Vancouver, B. C., stopping off on their way home to Medford, Or.; Carl Washburne of Eugene, motored from Seaside with a party of

BABY'S FIRST CLOTHES

ARE EASY TO MAKE WITH OUR READY CUT SYSTEM. Each garment complete with trimming, buttons, etc. in package with full instructions for making. A letter or phone will bring full particulars and our introductory 4c long slip. No money required unless satisfactory. Sent in plain package. Phone Marshall 618.

Baby's Boudoir ROOM 203 BROADWAY BLDG.

friends; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Billing, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. France motored from Seattle.

Flowers and all the expressions of congratulations are finding their way to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burke Allen (Ruby Pawley), whose home was gladdened with the arrival of a baby boy Friday, Aug. 4. The little fellow has been named for his uncle, Harry Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Jenkins, with a party of friends, have motored to the upper fork of the Willamette above Eugene, leaving last Thursday, and are now encamped for several weeks' fishing. They expect to remain until September 1.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Mendenhall and Mrs. Emily Salein, of Oxburg, Or., have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stifford. Dr. Mendenhall is a nephew of Mrs. Clarence Hale of Portland, and has many friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett have as their house guest Miss Ruth Hetzel of Winnetka, Ill. Miss Hetzel is the principal of the county school which is to be opened at Riverwood next month.

Mrs. B. L. Markee in company with a sister of Seattle is motoring at Rainier National park.

Mrs. J. B. Palmer and Mrs. Sylvia Masura Thompson have returned to their homes in The Dalles after a pleasant visit of several days with Miss Emily Otis at the Jaeger apartments.

Dr. Colin V. Dismont, professor of journalism at the University of Oregon, has returned from Berkeley, where he has been teaching a summer class for the last six weeks at the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Archer and their two children, Worthington and Nancy Helen, will leave Tuesday for Gearhart Park where they will spend the Gage cottage for the remainder of the month.

Miss Berenice Lehammer of Multnomah station on the Salem Electric, returned Wednesday from a two weeks' vacation at the Phillips cottage with the Misses O'Neill at Seaside, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Stein and family, Carl, Catherine and Agnes, are in their summer cottage on Twelfth avenue, in Seaside, for the season. As a guest of Catherine and Agnes is Miss Olga Proska of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cain of St. Louis and Miss Oppenheimer, of San pleasant visit of several days with Miss Emily Otis at the Jaeger apartments.

Dr. Colin V. Dismont, professor of journalism at the University of Oregon, has returned from Berkeley, where he has been teaching a summer class for the last six weeks at the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Archer and their two children, Worthington and Nancy Helen, will leave Tuesday for Gearhart Park where they will spend the Gage cottage for the remainder of the month.

Miss Berenice Lehammer of Multnomah station on the Salem Electric, returned Wednesday from a two weeks' vacation at the Phillips cottage with the Misses O'Neill at Seaside, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Stein and family, Carl, Catherine and Agnes, are in their summer cottage on Twelfth avenue, in Seaside, for the season. As a guest of Catherine and Agnes is Miss Olga Proska of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cain of St. Louis and Miss Oppenheimer, of San

Continued on Following Page

Benjamin Franklyn Sterling Toilet Ware

ANOTHER clever design creation of the House of Feldenheimer is "Benjamin Franklyn," the newest and latest productions of the Silversmith's art. Particularly beautiful hand-etched, conventional decorations. Especially noteworthy are the square mirrors, cut glass powder box, square toilet tray and the handsome eight-day colcks with appointment tab and pencil. Unusual individuality is expressed in every piece.

Just unpacked, an unusual assortment of beautiful Wedgewood Gameos, in the most beautiful Brooches, Necklaces, Cuff Links, Bracelets, Ear Pins and Stick Pins. Priced from $3.50 upwards.

A. & C. Feldenheimer
Jewelers Since 1868
Washington Street at Park

Clarke's fresh every day.
Morrison St. bet. 4th and 5th. Tel. Dyke; reading, Miss Hildreth Huma.

NECKWEAR

The well-dressed man's cravat commands the attention of others because it is the most conspicuous feature in the scheme of his attire. The fabric, design, coloring and style are equally important.

Another large assortment of Men's English Neckwear just received.

K. S. ERVIN & CO., LTD.
Custom Clothing
IMPORTED ACCESSORIES FOR MEN - CUSTOM SHIRTS
ENGLISH RAIN COATS FOR MEN AND WOMEN
Second Floor Selling Bldg., Sixth and Alder Sts.