PORTLAND AND OREGON CITY RAILWAY MUST OBEY ITS INSTRUCTIONS

State Public Service Commission Declares Company Has Violated Regulations.

MORE STOPS ARE ORDERED

Standard Warning Signs, Cattle Guards and Wing and Whistling Posts Must Be Installed on Road.

Salem, Or., Aug. 16.—Denouncing the Portland & Oregon City Railway company as a law breaker, the State Public Service commission Wednesday has made rules and regulations for safeguarding its grade crossings.

The company constructed its line before asking the commission's permission to make numerous crossings of streets, highways and other lines of railway at grade.

Company Disregarded Warnings.

"Nowhere in the act is authority granted to the commission to ratify and make legal acts committed in direct violation of the statutes of the state," says the commission in its order.

"In view of the fact that applicant has, in direct violation of the act referred to, constructed many crossings over and across highways at grade, no relief can be had from the commission as to said crossings. In addition to the applicant being charged with notice of the laws of the state, the commission repeatedly during the construction of the line, called applicant's attention to the necessity of first obtaining from this commission permission to cross highways at grade, but applicant has not seen fit to do so."

Stops Are Ordered.

It is ordered that the road install at crossings outside of the corporate limits of Portland and Milwaukie, standard highway warning signs, cattle guards and wing posts, and whistling posts at a suitable distance. It is also ordered that all trains and engines come to a stop at all railroad crossings and at Holgate street, Foster road and Clackamas road.

The Holgate street stop may be eliminated by installing a warning bell.

G. O. P. LEADERS ON RECORD IN SUPPORT OF MEXICAN POLICY

future consideration, when stable government and peace are fully established in that country. It is no warrant for shedding the blood of Americans. To sacrifice the life of one soldier for all the dollars investors or speculators have ventured in Mexico would be the supremest criminal folly.

"President Wilson is dealing with it as best he can. We may not entirely agree that his course is better than that of his distinguished predecessor, nevertheless we should endeavor to uphold his hand. There should be no difference of opinion as to that. By so doing we shall make his path a comparatively easy one. It is not an hour for either little politics or sensational journalism."

Utah Senator Added Praise.

While Fairbanks appeared to draw some distinction between the course Wilson was taking and the course taken by Taft, Senator Sutherland of Utah, who recently served as the medium for communicating the Republican candidate's views on woman suffrage, speaking at about the same date, said that so far as he could see Taft "was doing precisely what this administration is doing." He added:

"I have personally every confidence in the patriotism and good judgment of the president of the United States. I have had an opportunity in connection with others, of talking with him face to face; and no man can talk with him without being convinced that President Wilson is patriotically engaged in doing everything he possibly can to bring order out of the chaos which now exists in Mexico."

Senator Fall Approved.

Even Senator Fall of New Mexico, who now violently assails the administration whenever Mexico is mentioned in his presence, and who is reputed to be one of the chief advisers of Hughes as to what should be said about Mexico, said in a speech in the senate as late as August, 1914:

"I want to say now in passing that I have approved of the action of the president in refusing to recognize as the president of Mexico Victoriano Huerta."

This same Senator Fall, who admits that he has not yet sold all his interests in Mexico, was clamoring for intervention back in the administration of Taft. In a speech in the senate in July, 1912, he cited a long list of Mexican outrages, and a report was made to the senate by Philander C. Knox, then secretary of state, now Republican candidate for senator in Pennsylvania. Mr. Knox then said:

"So far no one with any adequate understanding of the situation believes that we should have intervened in Mexico or that we should intervene now. There will probably never come a time to intervene if we exercise the forbearance with them that we should desire for ourselves. But however that may be, it is clear that the time to intervene will be when we can save more American lives by going into Mexico than by staying out of Mexico. At present we seem to be a long distance from that contingency."

The testimony of Lodge, Fairbanks, Sutherland, Fall and Knox, uttered when there was no campaign to color what they said, is expected to add to the troubles of some of the campaigners who have started out to denounce the administration.

CALIFORNIA BEAUTY WHO MARRIES NOBLEMAN

MISS PATRICIA BURKE ©INTL. FILM SERVICE

MISS PATRICIA BURKE MARRIED TO BRITISH EARL OF COTTENHAM

California Beauty Had Been Previously Engaged to a Number of Noblemen.

London, Aug. 16.—(I. N. S.)—The Earl of Cottenham and Miss Patricia Burke of California were married here today in St. George's church. The bride was given away by Walter Winans, formerly of Baltimore.

Many noblemen, some with more titles than money, have wooed the pretty and vivacious California girl. At least two were accepted as eligible suitors, among them Juan de Ropez de Ayala, Marquis de Fuensanta, of Seville, the Spanish grandee of Spain, for whom she threw over Prince Ferdinand de Bourbon, a cousin of the king of Spain. Also, report had it, she was at one time engaged to Prince Ludovico Pignatelli D'Aragon, who later attempted suicide, due to his despair at being unable to wed Miss Katherine Duke, the West Virginia beauty.

Sir Charles Edward Pepys, whom she wed, is a member of one of the oldest families in England. He succeeded his father as the fourth Earl of Cottenham in 1881. His wife, Lady Cottenham, one of the beautiful twin daughters of the Earl of Aberguvenny, was found dead on her husband's estate, Elvenden Priory, Gering-on-Thames, Oxfordshire, in 1913.

WILSON WILL SUBMIT PLAN TO CHAIRMEN

erhood of Firemen, who came to New York from Washington last night to submit the president's proposals to the employes made this announcement today following a short conference with some of the leaders.

The proposal submitted by Carter was that the railroads would adopt an eight hour rule for a trial period, but continue the present schedule of overtime. The 600 representatives of the 400,000 employes are district chairmen of the various brotherhoods and it is in their hands that final decision on acceptance or rejection of the proposals, looking to averting a strike rests.

Immediately after announcing that the chairmen would go to Washington, Carter went into conference with them at Webster Hall.

The representatives of the trainmen formally voted in favor of going to Washington to confer with the president. No other action was taken.

The railroad managers authorized Commissioner W. L. Chambers to tell President Wilson that they had absolute authority to act and that there was no necessity of summoning the presidents of the various railroads to Washington as President Wilson yesterday intimated he might do.

HOPE OF ARBITRATION IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN DEFINITELY ABANDONED

By Robert J. Bender.

Washington, Aug. 16.—(U. P.)—Success or failure in reaching a common ground for settling the threatened general railroad strike hinged today on the disposal of other issues growing out of the eight hour day principle.

Hope of arbitration has gone. The president is understood to have definitely discarded this as a means of accomplishing peace. But there was strong hope that with the railroads conceding the basic principle of the shorter working day, some way would be found to satisfactorily dispose of the question of the collateral issues, including overtime pay.

An indication that the general situation is such as to give cause for some uneasiness is found in the fact that the president deems it advisable to appeal directly to the 600 members of the employes' general committee now in New York, awaiting developments. These men have been asked to come to Washington, and President Wilson will speak to them in the big gold room of the White House, probably tomorrow afternoon or Friday. The appeal to the general committee is made at the suggestion of the employes' subcommittee, who believe that if the men they represent can hear from the president the same arguments presented in conference here, the 600 may yield on certain points which the subcommittee is now compelled to stand by.

As the day began in Washington, there appeared to be no change in the general situation. Each side claims the other has yielded nothing. Both sides have presented counter propositions and both seem anxious to arrive at a satisfactory settlement.

In conceding the basic principle of the eight hour day, though they claim it highly impractical as applied to railroad operation, the managers have brought the issue squarely down to negotiating on how to dispose of the collateral issues.

Line Increases Pay.

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 16.—(I. N. S.)—Anticipating failure of mediation in the threatened trainmen's strike, the El Paso & Southwestern railway has announced an increase in pay of shopmen, telegraphers, section foremen, dispatchers, under clerks and other office, yard and shop employes receiving less than $100 a month. The raise amounts to 7½ per cent and begins with August. The road is owned by the Phelps-Dodge company.

OREGON MILITIAMEN ANXIOUS TO RECEIVE LETTERS FROM HOME

Soldiers Glad to Get Letters; Certain Packages May Be Sent Free of Charge.

Send a letter to your friends in the service of their country at the front. The Oregon boys will like to hear from you. Address it with the rank of your friend, if possible. Write the name plainly. Give the letter or number of his command, and the regiment or other designation. The postoffice near where located will be better than to any other. The Third Infantry, Oregon Militia, is the proper designation, and Palm City, Cal., is better than San Diego.

The letter, or card, should be addressed thus:

"Private John Smith, Company B, Third Infantry, Oregon Militia, Palm City, Cal."

Members of First battery (battery A) Field Artillery, Oregon Militia, should be addressed at "Calexico, Cal."

Member of troop A, Oregon Militia, should be addressed at "San Diego, Cal."

Packages of less than 20 pounds can be sent free to any member of the Oregon Militia on the border if delivered to the quartermaster's department, 429 Stark street, properly addressed. Such packages should be well done up, must contain no liquids or any kind, and such things as preserved fruit, jellies or jam must be put in wooden boxes outside of glass or tin containers.

PRIVATE GARAGES ARE PLANNED FOR NEW LOCAL APARTMENT

Laurelhurst Apartments Are to Have Place for Tenants' Automobiles.

FEATURE IS NEW IN WEST

Name of Building Decided Upon by Mere Chance—Plans Are Being Rapidly Pushed to Completion.

A casual greeting, flung in fun by one of the gentler sex, decided the name of the new apartments for Herbert Gordon, which he is about to build at East Thirty-ninth and Belmont streets.

On the way home the other night a neighbor called to Mr. Gordon. "I'm going to tell you what the name of your new apartment house is going to be."

"What?" asked Mr. Gordon in surprise, for the matter of a name had not yet occurred to him.

"The Laurelhurst apartments," was the reply.

And so it was. After looking up the directory to see whether or not he was poaching on anybody's trade mark, Mr. Gordon adopted the name.

While it is not yet definitely decided, Mr. Gordon is planning on having individual garages for the occupants of the apartment house. This is a new departure for Portland, although it is quite common in the east.

The building, which will be completed in four months, is to be three stories high, with 24 three room apartments. The exterior will be of pressed brick.

The building, which will be 55x100, will be on a lot 86x173 feet, allowing plenty of room for the garages in the rear, and grass plots in the front.

The plans are being made in the offices of the Lawyers' Title & Trust Co., of which Mr. Gordon is president.
