

GERMANS VIGOROUSLY SHELL GROUND TAKEN YESTERDAY BY FRENCH

French Respond With Equal Fury, Making Battle One of Most Terrific of War.

STRUGGLE STILL GOES ON

Consolidation and Strengthening of Trenches Followed Capture of the Teuton Forces Yesterday.

Paris, Aug. 17.—(U. N. S.)—The Germans last night violently shelled the ground captured yesterday by the French south of the Somme. Today's official communiqué says: The French reciprocated and the artillery duel, one of the most terrific of the war, continues with unabated fury today. "The French," says the statement, "worked as fast as possible in consolidating and strengthening the conquered trenches in anticipation of counter attacks and bombardments."

By Henry Wood.

With the French Army on the Somme, Aug. 17.—(U. N. S.)—Like a gigantic sledgehammer, the French army is smashing away at the German lines on the Somme battle front. The new French offensive in no way resembles the Russian attack of the summer. Instead it hammers continually with blow upon blow at any given point, until eventually, French officers believe, it must break down both the German defenses and the resistance of the German army. The success of this steady hammering is demonstrated both in the actual advance and the influx of prisoners who have surrendered in large numbers.

Before going to the fighting front I inspected the vast organization behind the lines for feeding the offensive. It is this incredible preparation on which apparently everything has been foreseen and nothing overlooked that puts the punch into the French sledgehammer blows.

Immense Depots Established.

I first visited one of the eight ammunition and material depots established last May miles behind the line. The depot covers a square half mile into which French France's northwestern network of railways daily pour materials coming from all parts of the world.

If the French offensive has carried terrible destruction in advance of the armies, it has wrought equally terrible progress in the rear. The great munition depots have been connected with the battlefield by a vast, labyrinthine maze of railways of broad and narrow gauge. In peace times it would have required a year's work to construct them. Approaching the battlefield these lines converge, even thicker, and ever more intensively, so perfected is this railway system that each of the eight depots can pump out upon the Somme battlefield its entire square half mile of munitions and material every 24 hours.

Heavy Artillery Added Daily.

On other specially constructed railways, all of them broad of gauge, guns are being carried to the front. France does not lack heavy artillery on the Somme front, but is making constant additions for the purpose of increasing the power of her punch.

From the depot the way led to one of the four aviation groups which protected every depot, but which had only a small part of the aviation service on the Somme front. During the visit scarcely a minute passed that aimed aeroplanes either did not return or depart for the German front. The air was literally alive with aerial scouts and fighters.

Returning toward the rear in the evening, after observing the fighting from the plateau of Bempierre, south of the Somme, and from a point of vantage just north of the river, I was amazed to see that since early in the morning what had appeared like veritable mountains of material and munitions in the supply depots had entirely disappeared.

Everything Moves Methodically.

The great wheels of war have been creeping along on specially constructed railways and when I had reached could not reach the front for weeks, were no longer visible, having either arrived near their employment or having been transferred to other railway lines.

Nearer the front I was able from this gigantic displacement of munitions and material to gain an impression of what had gone into the day's sledgehammer blow. Progressing toward the rear in the direction of the munitions area, we met great trains and convoys of fresh material moving toward the front to replace that which I had seen disappear. Yet there was no hurry, no excitement. Everything was orderly, methodical.

Above all, the impression a neutral observer receives from a visit to the Somme front is that the French are supremely confident and not only determined but prepared in every detail to carry out Grant's famous declaration: "We will fight it on this line if it takes all summer." And more, too.

12,000 Miners Walk Out.

Shamokin, Pa., Aug. 17.—(U. N. S.)—Twelve thousand anthracite miners struck here today when they discovered that 500 non-unionists were at work in the mines. The walkout ties up 12 of the largest collieries in this section.

Rust will disappear from steel if soaked in sweet oil for a day, followed with a rubbing with fresh lime.

WOMAN TO PRACTICE IN FEDERAL COURT

Miss Hazel Grace Arnold.

Federal Judge Wolverton this morning admitted Miss Hazel Grace Arnold to practice in the United States district court for Oregon.

Attorney Arnold was presented and recommended to the court by Robert R. Rankin, assistant United States district attorney, and was presented a certificate of admission by G. H. Marsh, clerk of the court.

Attorney Arnold is a graduate of the University of Oregon law school, class of last June, and had previously been admitted to practice in the state courts. She is already familiar with practice in the federal courts, as she has served as a clerk in the United States district attorney's office for two years.

She is the third woman to be admitted to practice in the federal court in Oregon.

Striker Found Dead; Guards Detained

Inquiry Is in Progress Into Death of Stanley Wislen, Found Shot and Beaten.

Ottawa, Ill., Aug. 17.—(U. P.)—Two guards employed for strike duty by the German-American Portland Cement company plant at La Salle, were held in the county jail here today pending an inquiry into the death of Stanley Wislen, 26, a striker.

Wislen was found dead today on a switch track that leads into the cement plant. He was shot through the knee and beaten to death. Guards at the plant told authorities that they saw Wislen prowling about the plant last night. Two nights ago the strikehouse was destroyed by fire. More than 1000 cement workers have been on strike here for several weeks. State troops were withdrawn from La Salle about a week ago. No request for their return has been made.

Hacon Rostad Gets Conditional Pardon

Former Lents Banker Goes Back to Prison If He Uses Any of Funds He Is Accused of Diverting.

Salem, Or., Aug. 17.—Hacon Rostad, an inmate of the Oregon prison, was conditionally pardoned today by Governor Withycombe. A condition of the pardon is that if at any time the governor is convinced that Rostad is using any part of the proceeds of his crime for his personal benefit, the pardon shall be revoked.

Rostad was cashier of the Multnomah County State bank of Lents and he was convicted of diverting the bank's funds to his own use through forgery.

The parole board recommended the pardon of Rostad. As he had not served his minimum sentence, he was not eligible to parole.

Governor Withycombe considered the question of pardoning Rostad for several days.

2 Naval Militiamen Will Be Sent Home

Washingtonians Were on Shore Duty and Failed to Return to Battleship Oregon Before She Sailed.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 17.—(U. N. S.)—E. L. Wilson and H. D. Stephens of the Los Angeles division, Naval Militia, will be sent their transportation from Seattle home by the state of California. The two men, members of the United States steamship Oregon practice cruise, failed to return from shore duty on time and the Oregon steamed away without them. The adjutant general's office ordered that they be taken care of.

Naval Bill Includes Pacific Coast Items

Appropriations Provided For in Conference Report Ratified by the Senate Total Nearly $1,500,000.

Washington, Aug. 17.—(U. N. S.)—Pacific coast appropriations provided for in the conference agreement on the naval bill which was ratified by the senate today include:

Mare Island, $384,000; Pearl Harbor, drydock, $700,000; for purchase of land on San Diego harbor for advance base expeditionary and aviation purposes, $250,000; Puget Sound navy yard, $18,000; Yerba Buena island naval training station, $70,000.

NATIONAL GUARDSMEN CHOOSE DESPERATE MEANS TO GET HOME

Enforced Idleness at Border Is Said to Be Driving Men Desperate, Soldiers Say.

DESERTIONS NUMEROUS

Some Even Resort to Wounding Themselves in the Hope That They Will Be Invalided Home.

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 17.—(U. P.)—National Guardsmen are being driven to desperation by their enforced idleness at the border and are choosing the two most precarious methods to get home—desertion and self-inflicted wounds.

This was the statement of Roy Gambrel, former city hospital corps of the Texas National Guard. He was in Dallas to take a deserter back to camp. "There are now between 16 and 20 men in the Texas National Guard hospital at Marfa with bullet wounds in their legs, feet and hands, as a result of their trying to get their release from border duty," said Gambrel.

"Since I have been down there a large number of men have been sent to the hospital who shot a finger or toe off, but none of them have been released. The officer decided in most of the cases that the shooting was not accidental. We have had a large number of desertions lately. I know of one man having deserted four times. 'The idleness and sameness of everything is deadly. I am ready to come back myself.'"

Republican League of County Revived

Delegates From Various Clubs of Party Throughout County Took Action at Central Library Yesterday.

The Republican league of Multnomah county was revived at a meeting at the Central Library yesterday. Delegates from the following clubs were represented: Albina Republican club, J. H. Wilson, M. L. Lane, James Gleason, M. A. McEachern, J. A. Miller, L. D. Cole, Al Mathiesen, J. C. Jamieson, John T. Whalley, E. C. Robbins, Paul Struck, Thad W. Brand, Multnomah Republican club, H. B. Dickinson, H. Rasmussen, G. R. Miller, and Burdett Thayer. Mt. Scott Hughes club, H. A. Darnall, J. A. Dunbar and M. K. Hedger, Firia Ward Republican League club, C. B. Davis, Beveridge Young, Cris Young, Rita S. Davis and Charles Conroy. The Republican Club of Oregon, A. N. Willis, Joseph W. Beveridge, Clara C. Cox, Oliver L. Dow, Harriet Hendee, Roscoe R. Johnson, Louis Kuehn, A. A. Muck, W. P. Keady, M. W. Peterson, C. E. Rockwell, E. C. Taylor, B. B. Williams, George W. Brant, Dr. W. I. Cottel, John T. Douglas, M. G. Griffin, J. E. Kertchem, Elmer E. Pettengill, Louis E. Schmitt, G. A. Taylor, Charles E. Lockwood, Ralph W. Hoyt, O. Laugaard, Clarence H. Gilbert, F. Dubois, J. H. Kelly, W. G. Kerns, E. C. Heald, E. E. Paisley and L. W. Matthews.

Officers were elected as follows: President, H. A. Darnall; first vice president, Burdett Thayer; secretary, Charles E. Lockwood; treasurer, Ralph W. Hoyt. These, with two to be appointed by the president, will constitute the executive committee, which with the president of each Republican club in the county, constitutes the governing power of the league.

Clubs will be organized throughout the county, and to that end a special committee consisting of A. N. Willis, E. E. Pettengill, J. A. Dunbar, Harriet Hendee and H. A. Lewis, was appointed to look after the work of organizing clubs, working in cooperation with Charles E. Lockwood, Republican National league executive committeeman for Oregon.

Jealous Suitor at Seattle Kills Two

Police Believe That Slayer, Too, May Be Dead—"Family Trouble" Says Victim Just Before He Dies.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 17.—(U. P.)—Detectives are searching for Frank Young, who shot and killed Miss Martini Antone and Jack Collinson in a jealous rage near Providence hospital here at 9 o'clock last night. They believe he took his own life after the tragedy.

The woman died at Providence hospital at 4:29 o'clock this morning. Collinson, said to be her husband, with three bullets in his back, died a few minutes after he had been removed from the street where the shooting occurred. Young was known as Frank von de Hyda 16 months ago when he ran a rooming house at Vancouver, B. C.

Collinson, just before he died said: "Von de Hyda shot me, he pulled a gun—didn't say anything—just shot. Family trouble."

The woman died at Providence hospital at 4:29 o'clock this morning. Collinson, said to be her husband, with three bullets in his back, died a few minutes after he had been removed from the street where the shooting occurred. Young was known as Frank von de Hyda 16 months ago when he ran a rooming house at Vancouver, B. C.

Britain to Purchase Zinc of Australia

Agreement Is to Insure Transfer of Smelting Industry From German to English Hands—$25,000,000 Involved.

London, Aug. 17.—(U. N. S.)—Great Britain and Australia have reached an agreement, under which Great Britain contracts to purchase 100,000 tons of zinc concentrates and 45,000 tons of spelter annually from Australia during the war and for 10 years afterwards. The agreement is to insure the transfer of the smelting industry from German to British hands. The amount involved exceeds $25,000,000, covering more than half of Australia's annual output. The remainder, it is expected, will be taken over by France and Belgium.

Will Leave Nebraska. Washington, Aug. 17.—(U. N. S.)—William Jennings Bryan is to leave Nebraska finally after the election this November. He is to move to his home at Asheville, N. C., and re-enter politics in that state, with the idea of being elected later to the United States senate. This report was brought to Washington today by a Nebraskan, who claims personal knowledge of the plans of Mr. Bryan.

Police Commended On Handling Crowd

Ice Palace Arrangements Carried Out in Detail and No Accident Or Arrest Made the Program.

The police bureau is receiving praise for its work in handling the big crowd at the Ice Palace last night during the Hughes address. The thousands were handled without an arrest or accident, and very few complaints.

Lieutenant Jenkins with a squad of men kept the aisles open and assisted in guarding the Hughes party until it left the building. Several firemen also assisted in watching exits. Sergeant Van Overn handled the crowds outside the Ice Palace where Mr. Hughes spoke for a few minutes before going into the building.

Bay Cities May Keep Their 5-Cent Loaves

Bakers Are Likely, However, to Shave Down Size to 12 Ounce Minimum Permitted by Law.

San Francisco, Aug. 17.—(U. P.)—With the price of wheat and flour ascending, residents of the bay cities may not be forced to pay an extra price for a nickel loaf of bread, but the bakers may shave their loaves down to the legal minimum. A meeting of the local branches of the California bakers' association will be held here Tuesday to consider the situation. A city ordinance prescribes 12 ounces as the minimum weight of a nickel loaf.

CITY HALL NEWS ITEMS

Controversy Concerning Use of Cement in Paving Now Settled.

Agreement Is Reached.—The controversy between Warren Bros. and Giesbach & Joplin as to whether the latter were using the Warrens' bit of cement in paving on East Tenth street was settled yesterday when Warren Bros. agreed to furnish their cement in place of the cement which Giesbach & Joplin have on hand, which they claimed was not according to specifications.

Unlicensed Dogs Targeted.—The Oregon Humane society, according to an announcement yesterday, will start to gather in unlicensed dogs shortly after September 1, when annual licenses are due.

License Revoked.—The city council yesterday revoked the license of Louis Sherman, who had been arrested five times for violations of traffic laws.

Hillside Boulevard Opened.—The Hillside boulevard, 11 miles from the end of Thurman street along the hills to Linnton, was opened today, and was inspected by the city council this afternoon.

No Refund Allowed.—No refunds will be paid by the city for jitney licenses, the city council decided yesterday. Several applications were refused.

Auditorium Bill Allowed.—Work on the municipal auditorium cost $999 for the last month's work. The city council yesterday allowed a bill for that amount presented by Commissioner Baker for Hans Pedersen, the contractor. The contract provides that payment is to be made as the work is done.

Majestic

NOW SHOWING Portland Society Film

Veda

Benefit Peoples' Institute

—ALSO—

Pathe News

Scenic Crater Lake

Varied Sports

Coming Sunday

Theda Bara

IN 'The Serpent'

Regular Admission 15c

Loge Seats 50c

ALSO

Fay Tincher

in the mirthful mixture of mistakes and mishaps called

Laundry Liz

in the mirthful mixture of mistakes and mishaps called

Columbia

The Theatre Beautiful—Sixth at Washington

EXPERT UPON FARM LOANS WILL SPEAK ON FEDERAL SYSTEM

Herbert Myrick to Deliver an Address Before Chamber of Commerce.

AUTHORITY WELL KNOWN

Change in Method Has Been Advocated for Aid of Farmer for Years by Mr. Myrick.

Delegations from many neighboring cities are expected in Portland Saturday night to hear Herbert Myrick, well known authority on the subject of farm loans, speak on the new federal farm loan system, recently provided for by congress in the rural credits act.

Mr. Myrick will speak at the Chamber of Commerce at 8 o'clock, and his address is to be the only one given in the northwest. For years he has been advocating a system of aid for farmers and to his persistent efforts the enactment of the rural credit bill is largely due. He refused an appointment as one of the board of directors of the recently

Infant Paralysis Story Turned Down

Court Sentences Man to Jail, Then Suspends Sentence and Orders Alms Solicitor Out of Town in One Hour.

"Twas a sad story of how his baby was stricken with infantile paralysis and how he was destined to go through life a cripple that Hafey McFarland had been telling sympathetic people throughout the northwest. His story had netted him $57 within the last few days.

"Twas the same sad story he told Municipal Judge Languth this morning. He showed the judge his left arm which, he said, was paralyzed and his leg which, he said, had a bow missing. The judge was sympathetic and gave him a 40 days' suspended sentence and allowed him one hour to get out of town.

Dan Burns, 66 years old, with whiskers which would have put old Rip Van Winkle to shame, had made his living similarly. He was also glad to leave town on the next train going south.

Eddie McFarland, a boy of 17, who traveled with them usually, substantiated their stories of hard luck. He turned them down this morning, however. He said that his father, Harry McFarland's infantile paralysis story was signed by George Williams, mayor of Pocatello, Ida., Mrs. J. B. Kenagy, S. C. Browne and A. M. Newton, all of the same town.

Papers Shut Down on Returns. Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 17.—(U. P.)—All daily newspapers of Milwaukee have agreed to cut off returns in the sale of their papers with a view to relieving the paper famine, it was announced today. The size of the papers will also be cut.

Failure to Support Charged. Laura Martin filed suit for divorce against Joseph A. Martin on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. She says that her husband did not support her, and that she was compelled to find work. They were married in Vancouver, Wash., in November, 1915.

Identity of Youth's Body Being Sought

Drowning Suspected—Body Had Been in Water About 10 Days, It Is Believed.

Deputy Coroner Smith is seeking to identify the body of a boy found in a slough near Fairview last night. The body had been in water about 10 days. It was thought at first that the body was that of Eugene Raney, a ward of the Fraser Detention Home, but investigation proved that Raney had been heard from a few days ago. Unless the body is identified within the next two days it will be cremated. The boy is described as being from 13 to 15 years old, five feet tall, with a round face and two prominent front teeth. His nose is small and rather flat. The boy wore a blue shirt with soft collar, dark knickerbockers, black ribbed stockings, and black lace shoes which had recently been half sold.

In a sack bearing a Union Meat company label tied to the boy's waist were a suit of clothes of brown and white color, a pair of black button shoes, two apples and a manifesting glass.

Typically Irish—It's pronounced by critics to be the best production of its kind.

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

MAE MARSH A BIT OF IRISH ROMANCE

"THE MARRIAGE OF MOLLY 'O"

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

MAE MARSH A BIT OF IRISH ROMANCE

"THE MARRIAGE OF MOLLY 'O"

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea

A photo play as dramatic as any of Boucicault's famous productions—as beautiful as one of Tom Moore's poems. It's rich in love, laughter and scenery. Mae Marsh is simply bewitching as the Colleen Molly—later Lady O'Dea