WILSON IS URGED TO SPEAK IN WEST BY BULL MOOSE LEADERS

Leading Progressives of Washington Join in Letter Sent to the President.

'CHANCES NEVER BETTER'

Committeeman White of Oregon Sends Encouraging News and Comment Is Given on Hughes' Speeches.

New York, Aug. 21 — Nine prominent Progressives in the state of Washington have joined in a telegram to President Wilson inviting him to arrange to make speeches in that state during the campaign.

Chairman McCormick of the Democratic national committee, at the request of the president, today replied to the invitation and expressed deep appreciation and also the great regret of the president that he will be unable to do what they suggested.

Text of Telegram.

"Press dispatches from Washington would indicate you may not come to this state during campaign," said the telegram. "Chances never better to carry state of Washington. Members of Progressive party are now in open revolt against amalgamation with the Republicans. If you could arrange to make two or three speeches here, it would insure electoral vote of Washington for you.

"We, the undersigned members of the Progressive party of the state of Washington, who are supporting you for reelection, most respectfully but earnestly appeal to you to come to the state for at least two speeches before November 1 if it is possible to do so. We want to win Washington for Wilson."

Prominent Progressives Sign.

The telegram was signed by Oe Hanson, Progressive nominee for United States senator in 1914 and associate member Democratic national campaign committee, C. J. France, chairman Progressive state committee, 1916, Edgar C. Snyder, chairman Progressive party state committee, 1912, Otto A. Case, candidate Progressive party for governor in 1912; Henry Albert Mclean, Progressive candidate for congress in 1912 and nominee of the Progressive party this year for attorney general; H. C. Pigott, editor Seattle Saturday Night, E. G. Allen, member Progressive county central committee, Dr. Edwin J. Brown, former Progressive candidate for mayor of Seattle, and J. R. Justice, member Progressive county committee.

Oregon Straw Votes Favorable.

Drift of public sentiment in Oregon is accurately gauged by a series of polls of voters taken by Samuel White, chairman of the state Democratic national committee that public opinion in Oregon is largely in favor of Mr. Wilson.

At the Smith Lumber company's mills, near Marshfield, in Coos county, a straw vote was taken and 90 per cent of the votes were for the president.

A straw vote was taken of the railroad employes on the division between Roseburg and Ashland, showing every employe in favor of Mr. Wilson with the exception of four.

South Dakota Outlook Good.

The normal Republican majority in South Dakota is about 18,000 yet James Mee, Democratic national committeeman from that state, who was a visitor at headquarters of the Democratic national committee, today declared his belief that the state's electoral vote will go to President Wilson in 1916.

"Prosperity is winning many votes for Democracy in South Dakota," said Mr. Mee. "We have a large Scandinavian population among our farmers and their natural inclination is to be 'for the government.' In addition to being prosperous they appreciate the fact that this country is not involved in the European war.

Farmers Are Prosperous.

"Near Centerville is a farmer whose name is T. I. Gulderson. On June 12 last, he shipped 16 carloads of South Dakota cattle to the Chicago market. For those 16 carloads he received the sum of $41,360. That was a record breaking price. It was the largest amount ever paid for 16 carloads of cattle on the Chicago market. Other farmers are shipping their cattle and their produce to the market and they likewise are receiving record breaking prices. My personal opinion based upon many conversations is that they will not want to change the administration."

Hughes' Speeches Help Wilson.

Guy Mason, secretary of the Woodrow Wilson Independent league, displayed a batch of correspondence from the western part of the United States which told of the effect of Mr. Hughes' spellbinding pilgrimage as disclosed by eye witnesses. Among the letters shown by Mr. Mason was one from C. E. LaFollette of Helena, Mont.

"I was just talking with Governor Stewart," wrote Mr. LaFollette. "He tells me that J. M. Brinson of Butte who was a candidate for congress on the Progressive ticket four years ago, has come out for President Wilson. We feel confident out here, now that we have digested Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance. My feeling of confidence that the president will be reelected has been materially heightened by the speeches of the Republican candidate."

Isador James of San Francisco, who is active in the Independent league of California has written his opinion of the effect of the Hughes' pilgrimage to the far west.

"There does not seem to be any doubt but what the more speeches he (Hughes) makes on the lines he is making the more votes he is making for President Wilson, and we only hope that he will continue making these speeches."

Somnambulist Shot By His Brother Dies

Walter Smith, 14 Years Old, Succumbs to Wounds Inflicted by Member of Family While He Walked in Sleep.

Walter Smith, 14 years old, of St. Helens, who was accidentally shot by his brother, Chauncey, while on a deer hunt, died at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday. A pint of blood transfused from his father, S. E. Smith, failed to save his life.

Young Smith was shot last Thursday night and after the shooting was carried, by his brother and a physician, on a blanket for several miles before a suitable stretcher could be obtained.

The brothers were camped with a party of hunters at Bunker Hill. Shortly after 9 o'clock Walter walked in his sleep and was mistaken for a marauder by his brother. His brother awakened and called the other, firing a second later. The load from the shotgun entered the right hip.

The body was taken to St. Helens yesterday.

BULGAR FORCE HITS GREECE ON TWO FLANKS

Greek border, eclipsed in interest operations on other fronts today. Aside from unsuccessful attempts by the Germans to recover lost ground on the Verdun and Somme fronts, no events of importance occurred in any other theatre of war.

BULGARIAN TROOPS ARE REPORTED WITHIN 10 MILES OF KAVALA

Athens, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Bulgarian troops are reported within 10 miles of the Greek port of Kavala, in their advance to attack the allies' right wing.

The Greek cabinet has been called into special session because of the Bulgarian advance into Greek territory. Generals Moschopoulos, Sotillis and Ghenadis attending the conference.

Kavala, a port of about 5000 population with considerable trade, was taken from Turkey by Greece in the Balkan war. It lies 18 miles west of the Bulgarian border, and has long been coveted by the Bulgarians.

The government is watching the Bulgarian invasion of Greek territory with the greatest interest. The newspaper Patris says the cabinet thus far has reached no decision and will await further developments.

From the military standpoint the Bulgarian advance is considered unimportant, so far as the allies are concerned. The Bulgars apparently are trying to seize the strategic positions on the allied flanks, from which to deliver attacks when the expected allied offensive begins.

The British and French ministers conferred with Premier Zamasis, who immediately afterward summoned the chief of staff of the Greek army. The discussion turned to the question of withdrawing portions of the Greek army and civilians from the territory occupied by the Bulgars.

Seek Capture of Saloniki.

London, Aug. 21. — (I. N. S.) — A great new campaign is rapidly developing in the Balkans and the unfolding battle finds seven nations meeting in the clash of arms. Promises of activity, contained in troop movements and brushes of minor forces within the last two weeks, are now being translated into a general offensive by the Bulgarians, assisted by their allies, Germany, Austria and Turkey.

On four fronts the Bulgarians are launching attacks against the entente armies—British, French and Serbian—and Sunday saw the capture of two villages, as well as the seizure of an important series of heights.

French Admit Advance.

An official dispatch received by the French war office from the commander in chief at Saloniki, General Sarrail, admits the Bulgarians have occupied two Greek forts. Bulgarian attacks along the entire allied front are reported, with the main operations proceeding as a four-pronged offensive in the regions of Lake Prespa, Astrovo, Doiran and Seres.

More than 100 miles to the eastward it is reported the Turks are striking at the entente force which landed during the winter in the district of Cavalla, on the Aegean sea.

Serious Effort Expected.

This movement, undertaken to protect the British position, has resulted, according to an official admission by the French, in a crossing of the Nestos river. The forces engaged, it is stated, were small.

Information reaching here tonight from many sources indicates that the Bulgarians are determined upon a serious effort to capture Saloniki, the allied base and "drive the allies into the sea." Their most advanced front is within about 40 miles of Saloniki.

Fight on Serb Frontier.

Saloniki, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Bulgarian forces are advancing south of the Greek town of Florina, despite stubborn Serbian resistance. Stubborn fighting continued all day Saturday near Banitz, 31 miles northwest of Saloniki.

Incessant skirmishes between patrols and frequent infantry engagements in which whole regiments have taken part are reported on the British and French fronts along the whole Greek border east of Lake Doiran. In the Doiran district particularly hot artillery struggles have occurred. Airmen on both sides are very active. Hostile aeroplanes attempted a raid on allied camps south of Doiran but were driven back by allied aviators.

Village Is Captured.

Berlin, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Bulgarian troops have captured the village of Vichill, southeast of Florina, it was officially announced this afternoon. Another Serbian position was stormed and captured at Malkaniszeplanina.

Steamboat Man Fined.

A. L. Day, a steamboat man who was arrested yesterday at Columbia beach while intoxicated, today pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy and was fined $25 by District Judge Jones.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION HOLDS MASS MEETING WITH BIG ATTENDANCE

Loyalty and Patriotism Topics of Speakers; To Protect Integrity of Church.

RADICALS GIVEN A RAP

Edward Feeney of Brooklyn Sounds a Warning Against the "Socialistic Clatter of Modern Times."

New York, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Undivided loyalty to God and nation was the keynote of the meetings held today as a part of the annual "Catholic week" celebration here this week in which 25,000 persons are participating.

In opening prayers, blessings were invoked upon the nations. Before the sound of religious songs died away, new voices sang patriotic airs. The papal colors—yellow and white—appear with the Stars and Stripes. Delegates are wearing miniature flags in addition to the colors of the church.

High mass for delegates to the central verein, held in the church of St. John the Baptist, opened today's program. A pontifical mass opened the convention of the Catholic Young Men's National union. Other organizations which held opening sessions today are the American Federation of Catholic societies, State League of Catholic societies and Catholic Women's union. A mass meeting tonight at Carnegie hall to discuss the service work being done by the American Federation of Catholic societies will close the day's program.

Archbishop of Boston Speaks.

Religion as the bulwark of American government was the theme of the addresses by the highest dignitaries of the Catholic church in this country, during the opening day of the week's celebration. His eminence William Cardinal O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, declared religion has always been the mainstay of government and urged Americans to guard against atheism and "free thought" and religious intolerance. History teaches, he added, that "as there can be no liberty without law, there can be no law without God."

The presence of three cardinals resident in the United States, John Bonzano, archbishop of Militene and apostolic delegate to the United States, in addition to priests and prelates from foreign lands and every quarter of the United States, made yesterday's service one never to be forgotten. Ten thousand persons crowded into St. Patrick's cathedral, while 30,000 waited outside.

The Right Rev. Bishop Hickey of Rochester, N. Y., one of the best known orators in the Catholic church, struck a keynote of "Americanism" when he said "We want no Catholic party in this country."

Certain Institutions Denounced.

Bitter denunciation of directors of American universities and colleges who "permit an alien radicalism to contaminate at the fount the youth of our country," was contained in the report of the national committee on public morals made today by Edward Feeney of Brooklyn to the convention.

"Insist that the minds of your sons be not debased," said Feeney. "Steer clear of the school that tolerates within its precincts the pagan idea of the materialistic conception of history, either through addle-brained profesors or the socialistic clatter. It is up to you to demand that Marxism, immorality or disloyalty to the religion of your fathers or to your country shall not be tolerated in any form."

The Catholic theatre as a means of solving the problem of regulation of motion picture and photoplays was proposed in the report. The seriousness of the divorce evil was emphasized, and states that permit of easy divorce, were scored.

tion with prisoners within the walls.

"4—The desirability of a new unit for segregation of the first offenders, and the establishment of industrial work, and education for them.

"5—The advisability of establishing the prison farther out into the country upon a larger tract operated by prison labor, so as to make the institution as near self-sustaining as possible."

Governor Withycombe explained that his idea is to get as members of the commission men who had made a study of modern prison methods.

Data Is Needed.

"We should have some reliable data on the prison," said the governor. "There is no question but that the institution is away behind the times. As chairman of the board I ask permission to appoint the commission."

Kay expressed the view that the resolution was an admission that the board was shirking its duty and responsibility. He thought the resolution should be held over for consideration at a later meeting.

Olcott, the third member of the board, also favored not taking action right away.

In reply to Kay's remarks, Governor Withycombe said that conditions are bad at the institution, old style punishments are inflicted and the whole system is not in harmony with modern civilization.

"Well, we ought to have some changes then," said Kay.

Governor Withycombe told the other two members of the board that he favored action on the resolution as soon as possible.

JUDGE HUGHES GOES TO CHURCH; INVITED TO SEAT IN PULPIT

at the First Methodist church at Los Angeles and was greeted with applause by the entire congregation. The pastor of the church came down to welcome him and urged him to say a few words from the pulpit. Hughes was quite embarrassed and insisted that he could not comply with the request. The services then proceeded, but at the close of the service the congregation again demanded that the candidate stand up so they could see him, and Hughes complied, stating his pleasure at being in California.

WARRING REPUBLICANS FIX UP TRUCE WHILE HUGHES IS IN SOUTH

By William Hoster.

Los Angeles, Aug. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Across the Tehachapi mountain lies peace. Charles E. Hughes crossed the mountains Saturday night into southern California, and, arriving in Los Angeles at 9:45 a. m. found regulars and Progressives dwelling in political peace and unity.

At the expressed wish of Mr. Hughes himself, made in New York some time ago, but disregarded in San Francisco, the Old Guard leaders here have agreed with the Progressive leaders on a 50-50 representation in the reception of the Republican candidate in Los Angeles. It is a mere truce, of course. The war will go on with all the bitterness characteristic of the situation in San Francisco as soon as the nominee has departed.

Fly in Ointment.

And it is a fact which the Progressives have not lost sight of, though they are grimly enduring it, that most of the Progressives who have been recognized in the even break plan are no longer Progressives. That is to say, they have registered Republicans.

The chief factor of the situation, however, is that Mr. Hughes is not being embarrassed by any open break and the necessity of choosing upon which of the factions he will bestow his smiles.

For instance, when he arrived here yesterday General Harrison Gray Otis, a fire eating old guardsman, and E. T. Earl, one of the Progressive leaders, leaped forward simultaneously as members of the reception committee and grasped his hand.

Candidate Cordially Received.

Through the streets leading to the Alexandria hotel, the candidate was cordially received and a goodly crowd has lingered about the hotel through the day waiting for a glimpse of him. There is apparently a real feeling of interest and enthusiasm here for the Republican leader and it is fair to say that both factions are scrupulously living up to the truce.

There is every promise, moreover, that both sides will work hard to make tonight's meeting a success. For this occasion, under the split-even plan, Stoddard Jess, a leading business man and Republican, has been selected to preside, and he will be introduced by Russ Avery, a pronounced Progressive.

Progressives Recognized.

A dozen Progressives, or at least men who were formerly identified with the Progressives, though they have since registered as Republicans, will act as members of the reception committee and more than 100 will serve as vice presidents of the gathering. Among the latter will be former Lieutenant Governor Albert J. Wallace, who is campaigning for Governor Johnson in the senatorial primary.

Another feature of the meeting will be the presence of 15 prominent labor leaders and their wives on the platform. And in order to lend emphasis to the truce, public announcement has been made that all candidates for public office of any kind have been barred from participation in the festivities. This rule disarms the Progressives of any right to object that Governor Johnson has not been invited to attend.

Chester Rowell Not There.

Finally, Chester Rowell did not come down from San Francisco with the Hughes party, and will be absent during the presence of the Republican candidate. And the leading Progressive newspaper of Los Angeles has pointedly asked everybody to join hands in greeting Mr. Hughes.

Therefore this side of Tehachapi mountain surely lies peaceful until Hughes departs, at least.

Mr. Hughes himself, despite the fighting that has raged on all sides of him, is perfectly satisfied with the situation and can see nothing but good for the cause in the lively interest which has been stirred up by the factional row.

Hughes Himself Satisfied.

He said yesterday:

"Ever since I have been in California I have had the most enthusiastic greetings. The meetings at San Francisco and Oakland showed the greatest enthusiasm. Nowhere on the tour have I been received with greater cordiality."

In the Hughes party there is a feeling of absolute certainty. Mr. Hughes' friends feel some concern that the newspapers of the east are printing stories that his reception along the coast has lacked enthusiasm. They declare that his experience as a campaigner has given him a good idea of crowds and enthusiasm. Upon that experience they base their opinions that never in his political career has the reception by the public been more warm and cordial than on this trip.

Under the Cottonwood Tree.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Candidate Charles E. Hughes will speak in Topeka from a platform under the famous cottonwood tree under which Harrison, McKinley and Taft stood when they addressed Topeka audiences, if plans announced here today are followed out.

A. N. Rodney, member of the national committee, arrived from Denver this morning to confer with Governor Capper over the arrangements for Hughes' visit here September 1.

ROGUE RIVER VALLEY FRUIT GROWERS FIND BEES SPREAD BLIGHT

Volume of Evidence Gathered Against Busy Little Workers Spells Doom.

Medford, Or., Aug. 21.—The busy bee is in bad in the Rogue river valley. Many of those who have been fighting desperately against apple and pear blight this season have concluded that the honey bee has much to do with scattering the disease among the orchards of the valley. They have watched it and have accumulated a volume of evidence of its guilt. Developed pears and apples show it.

The bees are charged with carrying the blight germ from flower to flower and thus inoculating vast areas of orchard. The honey shows it. Blight germs are found in it. They live in honey 48 hours, and they are carried from the hive to the orchard, as well as from bloom to bloom.

Hundreds of hives of bees will be disposed of this year in the hope of lessening the trouble. Flies, bugs and ants, which do a similarly destructive service, may not be so easily dealt with.

DEMOCRATS TO GAIN SEATS IN SENATE AT NOVEMBER ELECTION

Senator Saulsbury Canvasses Situation Affecting Campaign for the Upper House.

34 ARE TO BE CHOSEN

Eighteen Vacancies Occur in Democratic Ranks and Sixteen on Republican Side.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—In a statement issued from the western headquarters of the Democratic national committee Senator Willard Saulsbury of Delaware, chairman of the committee which will direct the contest for the various senatorial elections in the different states, expresses the opinion that the Democrats would not only retain their present majority in the senate, but might gain at least four seats.

This year 34 United States senators will be elected, two each in Maine and Indiana and one each in Arizona, Florida, New Mexico, West Virginia, Minnesota, Wyoming, Texas, Delaware, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Tennessee, Maryland, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, North Dakota, Connecticut, New Jersey, Montana, New York, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Nevada, Washington, Ohio, Missouri, Utah, Virginia, Michigan Mississippi and California.

The Democratic senatorial campaigns in the various states will be directed from Chicago by a committee composed of Senator Saulsbury, chairman, Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, manager of the Western Democratic headquarters, and Senator William J. Stone of Missouri.

Senatorial Campaign to Be Warm.

Interest in the fight to control the next congress promises to arouse public interest second to that of the campaign for president.

Senator Saulsbury in analyzing the senatorial situation in the different states said:

"The Democrats now have a majority of 15 in the senate, and the Republicans must gain nine Democratic seats and lose none to have a majority in the next senate. At the last election, although the Republicans reduced the Democratic majority in the house, the Democrats gained three additional seats in the senate and increased their majority from 10 to 16.

"Thirty-four United States senators are to be elected. Eighteen vacancies occur in Democratic seats and 16 in Republican seats. No intelligent observer would claim that a Republican landslide would cause the Democrats to lose more than 10 of the senatorial elections in the states now represented by Democrats. Should they lose 10, there are just about 10 Republican seats out of the 16 which the Democrats have reasonable hopes of winning. My belief is that the Democrats in the next senate will number from 50 to 54—that is, our majority will be increased from four to eight.

"An analysis of the conditions in the states where senators are to be elected, excluding such states as are certainly Democratic or Republican will convince any one with knowledge of political history and facts, taken in connection with present conditions, that this estimate is as fair as could be made."

Predicts Democratic Gain.

"The election is nearly three months away. Congress is about to adjourn. Conditions may shift in some way to affect particular states. They are as likely to shift one way as another. If we have the same results as in the last election, we undoubtedly will gain one or two senators. If conditions in 1916 approximate those of a normal political year, we will gain no less than four seats in the senate. Under these circumstances, the unqualified statements of the Republican candidate, Mr. Justice Hughes, as to what he will do if elected, are merely idle talk.

"There are approximately as many Republican seats in danger in the senate as there are Democratic. Of course the broad swing of political sentiment will determine whether the Democrats or Republicans will lose more seats, but taking conditions as they exist and are likely to continue for the next three months, knowing the candidates for the senate, so far as they have been nominated and the states where vacancies occur, I have no hesitation in saying that it is quite impossible for us to lose the senate at this election."

Senator Saulsbury says the Democrats expect to hold all their present seats in the senate, and have an excellent chance of electing their candidates in New Mexico, Wyoming, North Dakota, Utah, Washington and California.

CHINESE FILE PROTEST AGAINST TRANSFER OF CONSUL GENERAL SHU

Six Companies Contend That Official's Patriotic Activity Has Made Enemies.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Alleging that the transfer of Chinese Consul General S. C. Shu, who is today awaiting the arrival of his successor before going to Panama, is the result of his efforts to secure better consideration for the Chinese merchants and students landing at Angel Island, the Chinese Six Companies have telegraphed a formal protest to President Wilson.

They allege the department of labor is responsible for the change, stating that they have learned upon good authority that Secretary Wilson asked the withdrawal.

In the telegram the president was urged to prevent the withdrawal. It was alleged that the bankers, merchants, students and other classes of Chinese, permitted to land under the exclusion act, have been given scant consideration and have been herded into detention sheds and unnecessarily held, sometimes for weeks, and that Consul Shu's strong protest was answered only by an intimation that he might be removed.

NON-INTERVENTION IN MEXICO IS OBJECT OF LANDOWNERS' LEAGUE

Nation-Wide Campaign Will Be Made to Show Actual Conditions in That Country

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—A nation-wide campaign against intervention in Mexico was started here today when offices were opened by the Mexican landowners' non-intervention league.

The organization was started by Gould Harrold, one time wealthy landholder of Mexico, who has been named president of the league. William Kent, Colonel Daniel Burns and Robert F. Johnson are vice presidents.

The league announced as its purpose "action by the United States that will tend towards rehabilitation of Mexico on lines that shall be mutually agreed upon, to give publicity to actual facts regarding conditions as they exist there, in order to convince Americans that intervention would be nothing less than a crime."

The league will send speakers throughout the country.

Troops to Stay.

Washington, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—American troops will not be withdrawn from Mexico until the joint Mexico-American commission has met and such action has been recommended by the American members, a high official said today.

The statement was made as an answer to a question regarding the action to be taken on General Funston's report that the troops might now be withdrawn without endangering the safety of the border.

At the same time the belief was expressed that the militia on the border would be returned to their respective states not long after the troops are withdrawn from Mexico and the border patrol duty left entirely to the regular army.

Fulton Made Chairman.

Charles W. Fulton has been elected chairman of Multnomah county branch No. 1, of the Oregon Hughes alliance, recently formed. The other officers are W. P. Keady, vice chairman; Mary E. Hill, secretary and Charles W. Ackerson, treasurer. The charter members of the organization are T. B. Neuhausen, George Arthur Brown, D. L. Povey, A. E. Clark, A. I. Moulton, E. D. Baldwin, F. H. Lewis, A. A. Bailey, H. C. Thompson and Lon L. Parker.

Resigns Bench to Aid Wilson.

St. Louis, Aug. 21.—Albert D. Norton has resigned as judge of the St. Louis court of appeals to accept a place on the national Democratic campaign committee. Judge Norton is a Progressive, and four years ago was the Progressive candidate for governor of Missouri.

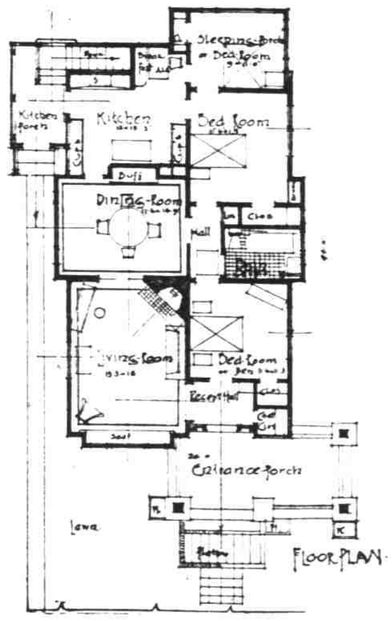
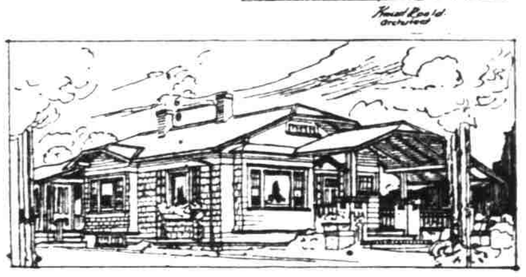
Westover Terraces

Back From Your Vacation?

—Let's plan that home now





What Will It Be?

A bungalow of six rooms?—
A house of nine rooms?—
Or one still larger?

We've had any number of our clients tell us that just as soon as they returned from their vacation, they would be ready to get down to details on that new home.

We expect to be very busy the coming month.

Just what kind and size of home do you want?

If it's a cozy little bungalow that would cost in the neighborhood of $3500 with lot, we can submit several suggestions for Westmoreland sites.

If it's a larger house—say a story and a half or two story—to cost around five or six thousand, with lot, we have just what you want in Eastmoreland.

Then there's Westover Terraces for the homes from $7800 upward, with homesite. This property has been chosen by several prominent business men for their future homes during the past few months.

Whatever your desires, whatever your purse, we have a homesite and a home plan to please you. And remember—

If you desire, the construction can be financed through the Ladd Thrift Plan, which simply means that you pay the rent to yourself instead of to a landlord.
