For Chicago Visitors.

Ludwig L. Pokorney was host last evening at the Benson hotel at a charmingly appointed dancing party which he gave in honor of his niece and nephew-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Eichbaum of Chicago. Mrs. Eichbaum was Miss Stella Pokorney before her marriage, which was an event of a few weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Eichbaum are enjoying a delightful wedding trip, touring the western states. Many pleasant affairs are planned for them in Portland before their departure next Tuesday.

Mr. Pokorney entertained about 20 couples in the Tyrol room of the hotel. Pretty baskets of yellow golden glow formed the decoration of the room. A buffet supper was served during the evening.

Olson-Erickson Wedding.

Last Saturday evening a pretty wedding took place at 84 Thurman street, this city, when Axel Olson and Miss Clenda Erickson were united in bonds of matrimony. Rev. J. Richard Olson, of the Immanuel Lutheran church officiated. Miss Esther Swanson was bridesmaid and Oscar Swanson best man. Little Marjorie Erickson, niece of the bride, was ring-bearer, carrying the ring in a beautiful case. Mrs. Olive S. Lacey, who had charge of the arrangements, served delicious refreshments after the ceremony.

Gallagher-Ward Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Ward and Manus Gallagher took place August 21, at the Madeleine church, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father George Thompson, pastor of the Madeleine church. The bride wore a light blue serge suit trimmed with white silk. The bride's attendant was Miss Marion Ward, sister of the bride. She wore a brown serge suit. The bridegroom was attended by Hugh Dugan, cousin of the bride. Only a few friends of the couple were present. After the ceremony a reception was given to their immediate friends.

Visiting Sister.

Clements, wife and daughter, Mrs. Daisy M. Kinsley, Miss Frances Kinsley, Mr. and Mrs.

Dr. Edwin Hall and Miss Florence Mary Martell, both of this city, were united in marriage at the Immanuel Lutheran parsonage, 150 North Nineteenth street, last Saturday morning. The Rev. J. Richard Olson officiated. Witnesses of the ceremony were Dr. C. E. Morrison and Mrs. L. M. Sergeant. After a honeymoon out of the city they will reside in Portland and Dr. Hall will continue his practice of dentistry at 808 Sealing building.

Returned From Mountains.

The Misses Mary and Genevieve Clancy have returned home after a delightful sojourn in the mountains.

New Arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Rodgers are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son Sunday, August 20. The baby is named Frederick William.

Society Notes.

Miss Erna Wright has returned from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Pritchard (Maude Belcher) have returned from San Francisco, where they have been visiting.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Knights and Ladies in Vancouver Securing Many Applications.

Just Across the Columbia. Vancouver Council, Knights and Ladies of Security, is giving the benefits of the energies of Mrs. E. M. Saltmarsh, district deputy, assisted by her husband, and last Friday night had 32 application cards on the desk of the secretary, and a class of 17 was initiated. An effort is to be made to increase the membership of the Vancouver council by 200 during September.

The members of Portland and the members of the Portland council will be asked to assist in the near future a visit of the Portland council will be made to witness the conferring of degrees on a class of 50 or more by one of the teams of the visiting members.

Women of Woodcraft Active.—The Women of Woodcraft throughout the Pacific states has been doing excellent work in the way of establishing new local circles and securing membership in old ones. In Montana the publicity given the order through its having bid for the farm loan bonds next year, has resulted in a large number of new members. The Women of Woodcraft, which has secured for the order a national reputation, and her knowledge of fiscal matters is sought by the heads of other orders for guidance in investments. Mrs. Van Orsdal is an Oregon woman who has built the order up from a "Blick" typewriter, for assets and $3000 indebtedness to one of the most stable financial institutions of the northwest.

W. O. W. Campaign Starts.—C. O. Samain, district organizer for the Woodmen of the World, will start a campaign next Friday morning for Portland Camp, No. 107, of this city, which will continue until November next. During that time membership fees have been reduced to a minimum below which it is impossible to go without giving a bonus for an application.

Successful Social Given.—The Knights and Ladies of Security of Eureka Council last night had a large attendance at the at-home social given in the W. O. W. temple. Cards were played until 10 o'clock, when the floor was cleared for dancing. This council will give a moonlight dance and excursion on the "Swan," starting from the foot of Salmon street on Thursday night, August 24.

Yeoman Will Gather.—Portland Star Homestead, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, will give a special open meeting and reception to one of the supreme homestead officers next Thursday night, August 24. Moose hall will be thrown open to all members and the public to hear C. E. Stallcop, grand master of ceremonies, of Des Moines, Iowa, deliver a fraternal address. All members of the order of homesteads in Portland and vicinity are invited.

Anchor Dance and Social.—Anchor Council, Knights and Ladies of Security, will give dance and card social Wednesday night at 129 Fourth street, to which members and friends are invited.
