SUM INVOLVED IS $704.50

Accused Had Fled and Was Placed Under Arrest at Cosmopolis, Washington, About Six Weeks Ago.

EXTRADITION COST $1252

Bringing of Pair From Canada to Trial Was Expensive.

It cost Multnomah county $1252 to extradite Homer N. Ford and Elizabeth G. Frary from Winnipeg, Canada. This was the most costly proceeding of the kind in the history of the county.

The two are charged with forgery by Mrs. Caroline Ford, whom Ford repudiates as his wife.

District Attorney Evans carried on diplomatic relations with the Canadian officials for a long time, and refused at times to pay the exorbitant charges of the counsel at Winnipeg.

The state auditing department has written to District Attorney Evans asking for the facts of the case which would make such an expenditure advisable. It is recalled that a man was extradited from England in 1907 for a sum of $327.

The fight against extradition, necessitating an appeal, and the exorbitant charges of the state's agent in Canada have been the causes of the heavy expense, according to Evans.

Brothers Held For Murder Seem Happy

Harold and Lynn Lovelace in Jail at Twin Falls Apparently Do Not Realize Their Predicament.

Twin Falls, Idaho, Aug. 24.—(U. P.)—Facing murder charges, Harold and Lynn Lovelace, aged 20 and 11 years, played happily about the juvenile ward of the county jail today. They apparently have no thought whatever of the killing of F. T. Hamill, to which they have confessed.

Since their arrival in prison the boys have been bathed and clothed in new outfits. They have rigged up a method of playing "one o'clock" with the jail wall as a back stop. It is evident they are not doing any worrying about their predicament. They have no horror of the Hamill killing, and no concern about the whereabouts of their mother and step-father. Every effort to locate the parents has resulted in failure.

The date for the Lovelace preliminary hearing has not been set. It will be held up until the district attorney decides whether he shall go ahead and prosecute the boys on a straight murder charge.

Lynn, the younger, is alleged to have actually fired the shot which killed Hamill after the latter surprised the boys robbing his house. Harold is held as an accomplice.

Execution Without Trial Probed.

Dublin, Aug. 24.—An inquiry is under way here in the four courts into the shooting without trial of three men during the rebellion in Ireland last spring.

The men shot were P. Sheehy, Skeffington, Fred McIntyre and Thomas Dickson. The men were put to death at the orders of Captain Bowen-Colthurst, who was court-martialed and found guilty, but insane. The contention is that the men had nothing to do with the rebellion.

EX-CONVICT ADMITS KILLING FARMER AND WIFE WITH SHOTGUN

Roy Dudley Relates How He Disposed of Bodies After the Double Murder.

Olathe, Kans., Aug. 24.—(U. P.)—Roy Dudley, arrested late yesterday, charged with the killing of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mueller on their farm near Stillwell, 17 miles southeast of here, admitted the killing today, officials said.

Dudley is reported to have said he quarreled with Mueller over a team of mules and that Mueller attacked him. To defend himself Dudley claims to have grabbed a shotgun that was hanging over the barn door and shot Mueller, then when Mrs. Mueller attempted to interfere he shot her.

Officials say Dudley did the shooting Sunday, took possession of the place and hired a boy to help him with the farm work and then tried to sell part of the wheat crop Mueller had raised. The double murder was discovered when Sheriff Carroll went to Stillwell to arrest Dudley on a charge of stealing the wheat. Carroll believes the crime was premeditated by Dudley.

After the killing Dudley is said to have tied the bodies together and dragged them to an abandoned house a quarter of a mile distant, where he hid the bodies in the cellar.

Dudley is an ex-convict. When neighbors questioned him as to why he was running the farm alone, he said the Muellers had gone on a trip to California.

Perry Chandler, one of the owners and publishers of the Blue Mountain Eagle of Canyon City, Or., accompanied by his wife and daughter, is at the Imperial hotel, en route to his home following an extended trip throughout many sections of the United States.

His trip east was taken primarily as a delegate to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, held at Saratoga, N. Y. "Committees are now working on the plan, which has almost the unanimous endorsement of the conference. I expect to see definite steps taken toward consolidation within the next two years."

Mr. Chandler verifies statements which have been made recently by travelers that business there is booming.

Laziest Young Man In Portland Found

Municipal Judge Langruth Announces Discovery and Orders Jailors to Keep Youth Busy as Possible for 90 Days.

Characterizing him as the laziest youth in Portland, Municipal Judge Langruth this morning sentenced Charles H. Jackson, who was arrested for vagrancy on the complaint of his father, to 90 days in jail. Jackson is 19 years old.

H. Jackson, the father, a hard working laborer past 60 years of age, wept when he narrated the slothful habits of the son. The inclination to work was entirely lacking in the young man's nature, the father said, and his only desire was to lie in bed until noon and then devour the edibles in a not overly well stocked pantry.

"Pure laziness," decreed the judge, and the jailors were ordered to give Charles the heaviest work a trusty in the city bastille provides.
