OLD JACK RYAN TOYS WITH BEAVERS; GIVES 1 TALLY TO ANGELS' 6

Refuses to Ease Up With His Heaving When Teammates Take Four-Run Lead.

BEAVERS' SOLO IN EIGHTH

Williams, Ward and Nixon Get Credit for Putting Home Team's Sole Tally on Record.

By R. A. Cronin.

Puffing like a broken backed jitney bus and perspiring like a 250 pound Indian harvest hand, old Jack Ryan belabored the Beavers for nearly two hours yesterday afternoon and beat them 6 to 1.

Jack might have eased up a bit when his mates gave him a four-run lead off Al Sutton Sothorn in the second, but Jack is getting old and age brings wisdom. Therefore, Jack was taking no chances, remembering vividly how his two old cronies, Pete Stridinger and Farmer Scoggins, were treated by these self same Beavers the previous afternoon.

Beavers' Solo Played in Eighth.

The solo of the Beavers was played in the eighth when Williams led off with a single across second. Ward raised a fly to Volter, and Billy Nixon, who pinched for Sothorn, cracked a double over Maggett's head and Ken checked in. That was the only time the Beavers got over one hit in an inning of the grizzled veteran.

Sothorn got by the first inning very nicely, but his mates fell down on him after he filled the bases in the second. Koerner singled to center and Schultz walked. Galloway cracked one through the pitcher's box and before A. Sutton could untangle his legs and arms everybody was safe.

Byans Lets Ball Get Away.

Jonathan Bassler grounded toward Evans and when he got to the plate he was away from him with a double in sight. Koerner and Schultz had cracked one through the pitcher's box and before A. Sutton could untangle his legs and arms everybody was safe.

Maggett Singled in the Fifth and when a mixup occurred between Howard and Roche, Maggett went to third.

Howard was looking for a hit when Maggett stepped in first and Roche whipped the ball to Ivan. Volter's hit brought the angelic one home.

Hagerman Called to the Rescue.

After Nixon had performed a pinching stunt for Sothorn, Sheriff Hip Hagerman took up the pitching and the half-dozen tally was made off that worthy. Schultz got his second hit of the series, hit to center, Galloway, who had a .332 average for the day starting him in the face, sacrificed. The Dutchman went to third on Bassler's out and talked out McLarry's matter through the pitcher's box.

The Lantern Jaws and the Mackles are now even up on the series, with one game each, and they are wondering if the threatened railroad strike will keep them at bay.

Threats for the next two weeks until the Coast league can readjust its schedule.

Somebody May Be Released.

Manager McCredie may find it necessary to release somebody when Pitcher Lyle Bigbee, who has been bushing it in southern Oregon, rejoins the club next Friday. Whether it will be Speer or Nixon remains to be seen. The score:

New York, Aug. 31.—(I. N. S.)—Bob Newkirk's pitching gave the Yanks a victory over Detroit yesterday, 5 to 2. The game was swayed up in the third inning when the rally of hits drove James from the box. Singles by Maggett, Magee, Peck, Pipp and Malsel in rapid succession gave the locals three runs. Bolan went in and Oldring greeted him with a single bringing in the fourth run. The score:
