

What Society BY NONA LAWLER Is Doing

The excursions from the city of the young people for school seems to have put a damper on the social activities of this week. There is little entertaining planned and, with the exception of the wedding tonight, of Miss Irene Butler and Dr. Allen Pendleton Noyes, Saturday of Miss Louise Burns daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns, and Irving Webster, and the marriage Thursday of Miss Stella Wolfe and Edwin I. Neustadter, there is nothing of social interest promised.

For Miss Korell.
Miss Dagmar Korell, who as a September bride-elect, is being much feted, will be the honored guest Saturday evening at an informal dancing party given by Miss Ida Blackford at her home, "Waldemere," at Linnton.
To Return to Bryn Mawr.
Miss Helen Wortman left Sunday for the east and will return to school at Bryn Mawr. H. C. Wortman accompanied his daughter east.
Visiting in Hood River.
Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal is passing a few days in Hood River with her sister-in-law, Miss Helen Teal.
Guest of Col. and Mrs. Gardner.
Mrs. Charles Morton of Washington, D. C., the widow of the late General Charles Morton, U. S. A., arrived last Thursday to visit with Colonel and Mrs. Cornelius Gardner of Sherwood Drive. She will make but a short visit in Portland and her entertainment is quite informal, having many friends in the city who are welcoming her with small affairs.

Young-De Keyser Wedding.
Late Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt, a party of relatives and friends witnessed the marriage at Salem of Arthur E. Young of Blackfoot, Idaho, and Miss Margaret DeKeyser of that city. Mr. Young will be remembered by countless friends at Portland, where he held a position with the Northwestern National bank.
The ceremony took place close to the midnight hour, in the reception

FRATERNAL NOTES

Four Chapters of Royal Arch Masons Hold Reunion in Portland
Preparations are extensive. Arrangements have been made for a joint meeting in Portland at the Masonic Temple on the night of September 20 of Portland chapters of this city, Multnomah chapter of Salem, Clackamas chapter of Oregon city and Oregon chapter of Jacksonville, as a reunion of the four chapters that met in Portland on September 18, 1890, to form the grand chapter, Royal Arch Masons of Oregon. Hon. J. C. Moreland, clerk of the Oregon supreme court, the oldest living past high priest of Portland chapter, will give the principal address, and will relate many personal reminiscences of the early history of the organization. There will be a special program of music and other features, and a large gathering of Royal Arch Masons is expected.

Dr. Morrow Will Speak.—Dr. E. V. Morrow will exhibit his slides and give a lecture on hospital service at the front in France at the social of the Loyal Order of Moose to be held in Moose hall tomorrow night. There will be a special program of interesting events presented to the members. All members are cordially urged to attend this meeting.

Woodmen Assisted Families.—The Woodmen of the World of this city have cared for the families of their members in the Oregon troops on the Mexican border, and said very little about it. Any case of aid asked for was promptly and quietly attended to with a feeling of patriotic gratitude to the men who left their families and dependent ones for the call of their country.

Artisans' Opening Dance.—Oregon assembly, United Artisans, will give its opening dancing party for the season on Thursday night, September 14, in the W. O. W. temple, 128 Eleventh street. The Artisan orchestra will furnish the music under the direction of A. L. Clifford. There will be nitty room, prettily adorned with white and yellow roses and dahlias, under a bow of the same flowers, erected in a corner. George Schwind led the bride to the improvised altar, to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Ruby Welsh. Tom Ordeaman sang "O Promise Me." Miss Adeline DeKeyser and Fred Silberg acted as bridesmaid and best man, and little Miss Constance Eougher of Portland filled the role of ringbearer. Rev. G. C. Van Gotthem of Nogales, Ariz., read the ceremony. A buffet supper was served after the wedding. The following guests were present: Mrs. William Young, Mrs. Nath. DeKeyser, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bougher, Mrs. A. D. Case, Miss C. Brougher, Miss Adeline DeKeyser, Fred Silberg, Tom Ordeaman, Miss Ruby Welsh, Miss Mary Karlin, Miss Alley Gilbert, Miss B. Frohlich, and Masters Clarence and Charley Young.

Dr. McGavin Hostess.
Dr. Jessie M. McGavin entertained a few of her friends Friday evening at her home, 1948 Alameda drive. A pleasant time was spent in singing old and new melodies. Dr. Ethel Gray presiding at the piano. After the serving of refreshments the lights were lowered and the guests sang the first of old poems of school days and many choice thoughts of recent years were voiced.

Miss Engberg Surprised.
A most delightful surprise party was given for Miss Florence Engberg at her home, 238 Ivy street, last Saturday. The evening was spent in games, music and dancing, and later in the evening a supper was served. About 20 guests were present.

Society Notes.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clifford (Nita Briggs) have returned to the city, after a very pleasant two months' outing spent at Welches' resort, near Mount Hood.
Mrs. David Fulton and sons, John, David and James, have returned from their ranch in Wasco, and are with Miss Driver at 1175 Williams avenue. The ceremony, and later will occupy their home in Walnut Park.

prizes for the card players. The committee in charge is Mr. and Mrs. Frank D'Arcy, Mrs. C. Courter and J. N. Russell.

Bacon, deputy grand knight; Edward Kenefick, chancellor; Frank J. Whalen, financial secretary; F. E. Dooley, treasurer; J. J. Higgins, advocating secretary; Joseph Kehoe, advocator; A. L. Gianelli, warder; Frank A. Smith, trustee; J. W. Hughes, outside guard; Dr. Leo McKenna, outside guard.

Head Consul of W. O. W. to Visit.
Head Consul I. I. Boak of the Woodmen of the World will stop in Portland on October 12 as the guest of the local camps in this city. He will attend the dedication ceremonies of McMinville W. O. W. hall, now in course of building, and expects to spend November and December in Honolulu.

Maccabees Plan High Jinks.—The members of Portland tent, Maccabees, will hold a social smoker and high jinks next Thursday night at K. of P. hall. There are to be several lively sporting events, with local amateur champions taking part. There will be refreshments after the program. Members are invited to bring a friend.

Anchor to Give Social.—Anchor council, Knights and Ladies of Security, will give a social, dance and card party tomorrow night at 129 Fourth street. Admission is free. Members of the order, friends and interested strangers are invited.

Oregon City Maccabees to Meet.
J. W. Sherwood, state commander of the Maccabees, visited Oregon City last night and addressed the local tent and its guests on the work, history and advantages of the order. A large number of applications were received for the consideration of the committee.

Pepper Helps Prisoners Escape.
New York, Sept. 12.—Two prisoners escaped and two were caught as they sought exit, when pepper, smuggled into the west side prison by a girl, was used to blind a keeper.

COMMANDER'S WIFE RETURNS FROM THE MEXICAN FRONTIER

Mrs. Geo. A. White Greatly Impressed With Soldierly Appearance of Troop A.

Mrs. Geo. A. White, wife of the commander of Troop A, Oregon cavalry, has returned from San Diego, where she went to visit her husband during the encampment there. Saturday, September 2, she and her two little daughters bade farewell to the troop at Campo, about half way between San Diego and Calexico. "The last we saw of the troop when our auto turned back, it was streaming over a hill, all in such splendid order," said Mrs. White, "and every man looked so well and strong. Tanned indeed they are. And they have picked up a number of pet dogs, too. I asked one of the men to give me a pup they called Pronto, and he said he was going to bring Pronto back to Portland and give him to his sweethearts."

Mrs. White says the members of the troop are in splendid shape and all work in harmony with each other and the officers. "I did not see a horned toad or a lizard while I was down there," said Mrs. White. The children enjoyed everything they saw. The people of San Diego were very glad to do anything they could for the Oregon troops. A U. S. army officer told me without knowing that I was from Oregon, and the Third regiment was the finest body of volunteer troops he had ever seen. The members and officers of Troop A are busy all the time. They drill in the morning and attend school in the afternoon and stand guard at night and work with the horses. Now that the Third regiment is home we are hopeful that Troop A will be relieved also. Perhaps we would have remained in spite of the heat being 130 under the tent, but the children had to go to school."

Mrs. White shows that she has been in the sun and hot desert winds herself, and says her health was improved by the outdoor life and travel in southern California.

Calls Stroking Cat As Good as Kissing

Expert Says Love Is Only Chemical Reaction and Too Much Kissing Same Girl Puts End to Thrill.

Dr. A. A. Lindsay, expert psychopathologist, passes this tip out to a world of lovers while the moon is still full. "There is nothing in this so-called love, that is, really nothing but the
