

PRESIDENT TO MAKE FIRST CAMPAIGN TALK ON EIGHT HOUR LAW

He Will Address Trenton Business Men Who Are to Visit Shadow Lawn.

By Robert J. Bender.
Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 22.—(U. P.)—President Wilson will make his first personal appeal for re-election tomorrow, when he speaks from the veranda of his summer home here to several hundred business men of Trenton. The gates of Shadow Lawn will be thrown open to the public 30 minutes before the president appears, and several thousand persons, in addition to the Trenton business men, are expected to be on hand to hear him.

Tremendous interest among the Democratic leaders centers in this speech. It will be the first plunge of the President into a discussion of the issues Charles E. Hughes has been raising in his tour of the west.

Eight Hour Law Coming Up
The eight-hour law, what the administration holds out to the country, and what it has done toward laying a foundation for meeting the competition to face American trade after the close of the great war are expected to feature the first of the president's "porch campaign" addresses.
