

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR OF OREGON HOLD ANNUAL CONCLAVE, YESTERDAY

Delegates, Members and Officers From All Parts of State in Attendance.

CORVALLIS ENTERTAINER

Elaborate Luncheon Followed by Numerous Entertainment Features Made Day Highly Enjoyable.

Yesterday the annual convolve of the Knights Templar of Oregon at Corvallis was attended by over 150 delegates, members and officers from all parts of the state. Louis G. Clarke, grand commander, presided. The sessions began at 9:30 and at noon the hospitality of Corvallis was extended in the form of an elaborate lunch served to members, after which the drill contest was held on the O. A. C. camp.

The convolve was marked by the attendance of the largest numbers of past commanders for many years, and was noticeable because of such a large representation being younger men. The Willamette valley was especially well represented, and by its efforts united with that of the delegation from southern Oregon the next session of the convolve was voted to Marshfield. At the same time both the grand commander and the deputy grand commander were taken from eastern Oregon.

Drill Contest Held.

The prize drill banner held by the team of Oregon Commandery for the past nine years was awarded to the Washington Commandery team of Portland by the close decision of four tenths of a point. The drilling was held according to army drill tactics and the judges were Colonel U. G. McAlexander, U. S. A., stationed at the Oregon Agricultural college, Corvallis; Colonel George O. Moran of Eugene and Major C. B. Winn of Albany.

Each team performed some fancy formations, and the fact that the Oregon Commandery team comprised of Knights Templar who are members of the Shrine patrol under the leadership of Captain William Davis, were forced to concede honors to a newer organization under the leadership of Captain J. Francis Drake, shows the keenness of the competition. Captain Drake, his friends say, has never lost in a competitive drill.

Officers Elected.

In the afternoon the guests were shown about the city and college in automobiles. At the second session the following officers were elected: W. F. Laraway, grand commander; E. E. Kiddie, of Island City, deputy grand commander; G. G. Brown, of Salem, grand generalissimo; Frank S. Baillie, of Baker, grand captain general; W. G. Sibley, of Portland, grand recorder; M. L. Myers, of Salem, grand scribe.

A reception was given in the evening, and the Portland members returned by special train over the Southern Pacific, leaving at midnight.

Husband Accused of Murder.

Mountain View, N. H., Sept. 29.—(U. P.)—Fred L. Small, formerly of Boston, was arrested today, charged with murdering his wife and setting their summer residence here on fire. The house, on the shores of Ossipee lake, was destroyed by fire last night. The body of Mrs. Small was found with a rope tied around the neck.

ONCE AGAIN J. MOORE GRANTED EXTENSION OF LEASE CONTRACT

Secretary of State Olcott Declares, for Him, It's "the Last Chance."

Salem, Or., Sept. 29.—The State Land board today voted to extend to December 15, the time in which Jason Moore shall post a balance of $15,000 on a bond of $25,000 to insure the performance of the terms of his lease of Sumner and Abert lakes.

Moore, E. B. Black, Kansas City engineer, and C. A. Sheppard, Portland attorney, appeared before the board and explained that certain changes in the lease were desired by parties who are to invest their money in the project of extracting salts from the waters of the lake.

Last Chance Given.

State Treasurer Kay warned Moore that if the lake lease matter ever got before the legislature again, "the stuff would be all off," and Secretary of State Olcott, the other member of the board present, said that he wanted it to be distinctly understood that, so far as he is concerned, December 15 is the final date for posting the balance of the money for the bond. Governor Withycombe was absent.

The changes desired in the lease relate to the payment of royalties, but do not change the amount and make more specific matters relating to the erecting of a plant on the lake or its meander line.

Changes Are Referred.

It was explained that an experimental plant would be built first, and later a manufacturing plant would be erected. Whether it would cost $500,000 or $1,500,000 would depend on the rapidity with which transportation from the lake is arranged.

The board referred the proposed changes in the lease to the attorney-general.

FOUNDER OF MT. ANGEL TOWN AND COLLEGE IS BEING HONORED TODAY

Rt. Rev. Prior Adelhelm Odermatt Celebrates Fiftieth Anniversary of Service.

MANY VISITORS ATTEND

Monsieur Schumann Meets Kings at Service in Connection With Day's Significance.

Mount Angel College, St. Benedict, Or., Sept. 29.—Early this morning automobiles commenced to arrive from the entire surrounding country to be present at the golden jubilee of Rev. Adelhelm Odermatt, O. S. B., who today celebrates his fiftieth anniversary of entering the Benedictine monastery.

Special trains from Portland over the Willamette Valley were run all day. The first train brought well loaded cars. The regular trains from Woodburn, Salem and Silverton brought many.

At 9:45 the procession, consisting of the leading Catholic societies of the town, about 50 clergy of the state, Bishop Shinner of Spokane, the Right Rev. Abbot Placidus, Archbishop Christie and the Rev. Jubilarian marched from the parish house to the church.

Sings High Mass.

The Rev. Jubilarian, by his recent appointment by Rome, was granted the privilege of singing pontifical high mass. The church, which has a capacity of about 2500 people, was packed. Many disappointed visitors were at the door, but were unable to view the ceremony on account of the well filled church.

Archbishop Christie spoke eloquently in his sermon, in which he gave due praise and honor to the Rev. Jubilarian for his work and missionary labor in the state of Oregon. He was Rev. Odermatt who came to this country 35 years ago and founded the town of Mount Angel, then called Fillmore. His grace, who is a special friend of the Jubilarian, laid special emphasis on the noble work which the reverend father has done for education in the west.

Dinner Is Served.

Monsieur Schumann-Hainke sang during high mass and enthralled the 2500 present. Immediately after high mass the visitors went up to the mount for the afternoon.

Dinner is being served for all the dignitaries of the church, the clergy, alumni and many friends of the Rev. Jubilarian.

Mischa Elman Stirs Large Audience

Russian Violinist Opens His Season of Concert in Brilliant as Well as Difficult Program.

Making his debut this season as it were, Mischa Elman, Russian violinist, last night stirred the emotions of a large audience at the Heilig. It was his first appearance in concert in a year, as he came across the continent direct to open the season here, and there was not the slightest sign of fatigue, as may happen when an artist is on the last lap of his tour.

Elman played a most difficult program, for it included the Ernst concerto in F sharp minor and the Verdi concerto particularly carries technical difficulties that few of the virtuosos even attempt to master.

Philip Gordon, New Yorker, of Russian parentage, proved himself a brilliant accompanist.

VILLA'S FORCES SHOW STRENGTH NEAR CHIHUAHUA

ed that up the present the only news received was a message to Chihuahua City from General Ramos, commanding the de facto troops engaged in the battle, asking that a hospital train and surgeons be rushed to his assistance. Ramos himself was slightly wounded.

To this request Ramos added the information that in the battle with the bandits 100 Villistas were killed, their leader, General Uribe, captured, and that de facto forces suffered heavy casualties.

In Juarez today there were varying reports of the outcome of the fight. One report was that General Ramos wired for reinforcements, and was fleeing with the remnants of his shattered command toward Santa Ysabel.

Villa Victory Is Suspected.

It was pointed out that Ramos' laconic statement that there had been a big battle portended another victory for the bandits, for had the Carranza forces been successful it would have been immediately announced.

Several American owned mines with offices in El Paso are located in that region. From the Mexican manager of an American owned mine near Cusuhuarichic officers here are in receipt of a telegram from Madera, Chihuahua, saying he had fled and was coming to Juarez on a gasoline vehicle over the railroad. It is believed here if the Carranzistas were victorious the manager would have returned to the mine.

Armed Mexicans Surprised.

Washington, Sept. 29.—(U. P.)—Thirty armed Mexicans, belonging to the command of Colonel Revel, a Carranza officer, were found concealed in the brush two miles west of Ysleta by a patrol of the Eighth Cavalry yesterday. General Funston reported to the war department today.

The Mexicans were dismounted, Funston said, and were concealed, except one, who mounted on a burro, was on guard. The Mexicans retreated across the Rio Grande when discovered. The mounted Mexican left so hurriedly, Funston declared, that he left his burro. He also left a carbine, marked "Troop E," Tenth Cavalry—the colored troops engaged in the Carrizal battle. No shots were fired on either side.

Attack Scheduled for Oct. 4.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 29.—(I. N. S.)—Carranzistas are taking precautions against an attack by Villa forces which, according to advices received by General Bell here, is scheduled for October 4.

Mexican families are crossing the Rio Grande at El Paso. Shops and saloons in Juarez are closing at 8 o'clock at night and civilians have been ordered not to leave their windows open so that light can show through after dark. The street patrols have been doubled.

Villa in Charge of City.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 29.—(I. N. S.)—Following a battle with Carranzista troops yesterday, General Villa personally is in possession of Cusuhuarichic, according to advices received here today by an American mining company.

Box Car Shortage Again on Increase

Increased orders for box cars during the last 24 hours have resulted in an increase of the Southern Pacific's car shortage, the shortage today being 1172 cars. A total of 737 cars were available for loading today in Oregon, with orders for 1909. One hundred empty cars were received at Ashland, but 70 of these were open cars. Demands on the 30 closed cars are coming from fruit and grain men as well as lumber men.

Lumber Cargo Sold To United Kingdom; Another Is Pending

* Sale of one lumber cargo for United Kingdom delivery and inquiry for a cargo of crosscut ties for India delivery was reported today.

* A cargo for British usage is being cut at St. Johns, Inman—Portland Lumber company and Portland Lumber company mills and a vessel to carry it is to be designated shortly. It amounts to $500,000 feet.

HUGHES STUMPS OLD FAMILIAR TERRITORY 'BACK HOME' AGAIN

Huskinness and Weariness Are Gone; American Rights Are Main Issue.

By Perry Arnold.—Oneonta, N. Y., Sept. 29.—(U. P.)—History slid back seven years today—when Charles E. Hughes, "back home," was stumping through the Empire state.

Back in 1909, the same Charles E. Hughes swung "upstate," fighting fiercely for the anti-race-track bill as governor of New York. Grayer of beard and scrapper of hair, today Hughes was fighting his way across the state, in the old familiar territory—but this time appealing for votes to put him in the highest office within the gift of the people.

It is now back in the same first-class fighting trip that he was as governor. The huskinness of voice and weariness of gesture that were so plainly apparent in Pittsburgh the day before yesterday were gone today.

It was the issue of American rights upon which the Republican presidential candidate laid most stress today—this and the issue of whether or not there should be, according to the Republican beliefs, a surrender to the people of force, exemplified in the administration's enactment of the Adamson eight-hour bill. In between he made a sermon on a protective tariff, solemnly warning his auditors that in the days to follow the European war America would have to watch carefully she was not to maintain her place in the forefront of nations of the world.

Defends Nomination Acceptance.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 29.—(I. N. S.) Charles E. Hughes last night made an impassioned and dramatic defense of his acceptance of the Republican presidential nomination. In the midst of a bitter attack on the Adamson bill, and former Secretary Richard Olney's defense of President Wilson's action in the matter, Mr. Hughes cried:

"The distinguished former secretary of state said in substance that I doffed the judicial ermine and appeared in the motley garb of an ordinary office seeker. I did doff the judicial ermine and I submit to you that you know and every American knows that it fell from my shoulders unscathed."

"No American need apologize for being a candidate for office—least of all I desired to remain on the bench. I had no desire to return to politics, but there came a summons which no honorable man could refuse. I did assume the garb—call it motley, or whatever you will—of seeking office, and I am now before the American people seeking the highest office in their gift."

"For what purpose? Not that I covet power, but I do covet the opportunity, if it is afforded, to maintain American rights and American honor."

Marking the formal opening of the campaign, his presence was made the occasion of a big street parade and a love feast of the politicians. And Hughes seized upon the occasion in delivering the keynote speech of the campaign to force into greater prominence than ever the Adamson bill by which President Wilson averted the strike.

Silas T. Riggs Dies.

ARRESTS FOIL PLOT TO KIDNAP HARRIMAN
