

What Society BY NONA LAWLER Is Doing

FOR MRS. PAUL CHURCH GIESY (Edith Edmondson) a charming California girl who, as Mr. Giesy's bride is being much loved, Mrs. A. J. Giesy presided at a large reception this afternoon which was one of the first formal affairs of the season. The Giesy residence on Portland Heights overlooks the canyon road and the beauty of the day combined with the outlook on the woods added a charming note to the affair. The rooms were a bower of flowers and greenery, all in the delicate pastel shades. Receiving with Mrs. Giesy and her daughter-in-law, were the sister of the hostess, Mrs. Lewis G. Clark and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Chester G. Murphy.

Mrs. Giesy wore a handsome gown in black silk net embroidered in bright blue design and fashioned over white satin. She wore a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Paul Church Giesy was charmingly gowned in white tulle taffeta, elaborated with white tulle and silver trimming, and combined with little French bouquets of velvet flowers and touches of silver caught here and there on the skirt and skirt. She carried a bouquet of Upland rose buds.

In the dining room Mrs. J. F. Dickson, Mrs. James B. Honeyman, Mrs. Charles E. Wolverson and Mrs. John Gill presided at the tea table assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Robertson, Miss Eliza Parker and Miss Elizabeth Jacobs. About the drawing room the following women assisted in receiving: Miss T. Van Buren, Miss Ella Stephens, Mrs. A. E. MacKay, Miss Eliza Grelle, Mrs. Frederick Morey, Mrs. L. F. Steele, Mrs. F. R. Johnson and Mrs. Frederick Albert.

Corvallis, Or., Sept. 29.—Benton county sportsmen state that unless some radical steps are taken to protect the Chinese pheasants they will become practically extinct in a short time. At a meeting of the Benton county Rod and Gun club Wednesday night a resolution was passed asking the state board of fish and game commissioners to make an order closing Benton county to pheasant shooting until October 1, 1917. # GRANT COUNTY FAIR ON AT JOHN DAY IS PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

Livestock and Forest Shows of High Standard; Grain Is a Little Under Average.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE ON

Bronchos From All Over Country Brought to Put on Bucking Contests With Flucky Riders.

John Day, Or., Sept. 29.—The eighth annual Grant County Fair opened here Tuesday. The grain and fruit exhibits are perhaps a little under the average of other years, due to the unusually late season. Nevertheless, there are some splendid specimens.

In the livestock department are to be seen some of the finest specimens of cattle of the best breeds that have ever been shown in Grant county. During the last three or four years the stockmen of this section have spared no efforts to bring their cattle up to the highest type, and with this end in view they have imported some of the best obtainable specimens of Shorthorns, Herefords and Poled Angus bulls.

Bronchos Will Buck. About 20 heads of Grant county's best bronchos have been rounded up for the bucking contests. During a tryout Monday afternoon Charles Helmick was thrown from a vicious horse and kicked. He escaped death by a very narrow margin. First aid treatments were applied on the grounds and he is rapidly improving, though it is doubtful whether he will be able to participate in the contests. Among the most attractive exhibits at the fair is that of the Malheur national forest. It occupies a special booth outside the regular exhibition pavilion. The arrangement of the exhibit is very striking and unique, and a constant stream of visitors passes through it.

At the teachers' institute, which is being held here in connection with the fair, the various lecturers are Miss Cooley, teacher in the Ladd school, Portland; Professor E. D. Resier, of the O. A. C. Corvallis; Professor Earl Kirkpatrick, of the U. of O., Eugene, and A. C. Strange, superintendent of schools, Baker. Every school in Grant county is represented at the institute.

SCORES ATTEMPT TO MAKE SECTIONALISM AN ELECTION ISSUE

President Garfield of Williams College Issues Statement Protesting G. O. P. Move.

Williamstown, Mass., Sept. 29.—Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams college, and son of James A. Garfield, general in the Union army and martyred president of the United States, gave out the following statement today as his protest against the Republican attempt to make sectionalism an issue: "Representative Simon D. Fess, of Ohio, is reported to have said, 'Had any one been found so bold as to have ventured a prophecy that the time would come when the Union soldier would see the entire government which he saved under full control of the states which attempted to destroy it, he would have been regarded as a candidate for the asylum.'"

"The attempt to rekindle old fires of hatred between the north and south is reprehensible in the extreme. The south today is not the south of 1861. It does not desire the return of slavery nor the dissolution of the union. Any attempt to confuse the old and the new south is due to ignorance or to a deliberate purpose to befog the minds of voters."

"The south is seeking to develop its agricultural and industrial resources by the same methods as those employed in the north. 'Insofar as southern representatives have sought special favors for their districts, for good of national interests, they are blameworthy, but the prevalence of local spirit is not new. It is also a Republican failing, and has been a cardinal vice of the dominant party since the first congress. 'It is quite as reasonable to assert that the Republicans seek to regain political control in the interest of plutocratic government because the chairmen of important committees of congress would then hail from the northeast section of the country as to say that the Democrats seek to retain control in the interest of the south of 1861, because the chairmen of those committees reside in the southern states."

Keeps Her Children In Perfect Health

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the Family Laxative for Many Years.

Mrs. Aug. Doellefeld of Carlyle, Ill., recently wrote to Dr. Caldwell, at Monticello, Ill., that she has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in her home for a number of years, and would not be without it, as with it she has been able to keep her four children in perfect health.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that acts on the bowels in an easy, natural way, and regulates the action of this most important function. Nearly all the sickness to which children are subject is traceable to bowel inaction, and a mild, dependable laxative, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should have a place in every family medicine chest. It is pleasant to the taste and children like it, and take it readily, while it is equally effective for adults.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores everywhere for 50 cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure you get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a fac-simile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
