

DECISION IN HUNTER MISCONDUCT INQUIRY TO BE GIVEN TODAY

Dismissed Traffic Patrolman Accused of Conducting Himself Improperly

EVIDENCE IS SUBMITTED

Committee of Business Men Named by City Service Board Hear the Case Which Is Now Ended.

The committee of business men appointed by the municipal civil service board to hear evidence against Charles F. Hunter, traffic patrolman, dismissed by Mayor Albee on charges of misconduct on becoming an officer, is to give a decision this afternoon. The committee, consisting of John H. Burdard, Phil Metachan, Jr. and R. A. Stewart, concluded the hearing at noon.

It was the appointment of this committee which precipitated the removal of George W. Caldwell, chairman of the board, by Mayor Albee. The committee was appointed over the protest of the mayor last Thursday and on Saturday Caldwell was removed.

Hunter is charged with attending a party in an east side apartment house at which several of the participants were intoxicated. He is also charged with contributing to the purchase of whiskey purchased, it was alleged by Deputy City Attorney Myers, in violation of the prohibition law.

According to testimony of witnesses Hunter was not on duty when he attended the party. Deputy City Attorney Myers appearing for the city contended that a patrolman should always uphold the law and that his conduct should be exemplary whether he was actually on duty or off.

Attorney Moser appearing for Hunter contended that Hunter's conduct was not unbecoming an officer.

"A man does not have to be a Sunday school teacher to be a patrolman," said Moser.

SEWER PLANS ARE FILED

Specifications Ready in the Tanner Creek Trunk System.

Plans and specifications for rebuilding the Tanner creek trunk sewer have been filed with the city council by City Engineer Dater. The cost of reconstruction is estimated at $287,037, and it is proposed to construct a conduit to property on the west side drained by the sewer.

Plans call for the reconstruction of the conduit beginning near Seventeenth and Taylor and running northwesterly to the Willamette river and with an outlet near Pettygrove and Front streets. The conduit will vary from 8 to 12 feet in height. Plans call for a conduit of either concrete or cement pipe.

The sewer to be reconstructed was laid about 20 years ago and has been repaired a number of times. It is said to be in danger of collapse about a year ago Engineer Ralph Modjeski inspected the conduit and reported that it was in a serious condition.

WOMEN ASSESSED PENALTIES

One Given Jail Term, Another Fined.

Two women were brought before Circuit Judge Davis this morning for sentencing. One was given a jail term and the other a fine, without parole and without attorney. The woman sentenced to six months in the county jail is Mrs. Frances Polard, who was convicted last week of larceny. She entered a Japanese store at 433 Washington street and asked "Tolo, the proprietor, for the permission to go into a rear room to adjust her clothing. A few minutes later she was detected rifling a money drawer.

Eugenia Sell, a dressmaker in the Strand building, is the other woman. She pleaded guilty to a charge of employing a girl at wages below the minimum fixed by the industrial welfare commission and was fined $25.

She was employed by Freda Bernke at $2 a week, when the minimum wage allowed by law, unless special permit is obtained, is $8 a week.

BREWSTER DECLINES OFFER

Ex-Commissioner Tells Mayor He Does Not Want Caldwell's Job.

W. L. Brewster, formerly city commissioner, does not want to fill the place on the municipal civil service board left vacant by the removal of George W. Caldwell. He told the mayor so this morning, saying:

"I do hope that the man appointed is not a lawyer. The new member of babies should be a business man."

It is probable that Mayor Albee will officially acquit the council with the facts regarding Mr. Caldwell's removal tomorrow. Mr. Caldwell says that he will reply to the mayor's charges when the matter goes before the city council.

Will Fix Damages.

The city council this afternoon is to attempt to determine the damages to property owners to be affected by the proposed O-W. R. & N. regrade project. Yesterday afternoon the council gave a decision to regrade along East Sixteenth and East Eighty-second street which will be affected by the lowering of the O-W. R. & N. tracks and the construction of viaducts.

Eight Take Examinations.

Eight would-be assistants to Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin of the women's protective division of the department of public safety are today taking a civil service examination for the position. Miss Martha Randall has been temporarily holding the position.

Condemned Move To Indorse Hughes

Former Maryland Congressman Vigorously Opposed Resolution Proposed in Progressive Meeting in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Oct. 3.—At the recent meeting in Baltimore of Maryland Progressives, former Republican congressman George A. Peck, Sixth district, vigorously condemned a resolution proposing the indorsement of Candidate Hughes and in a spirited speech declared that he would support President Wilson. He was led to the mountain peak. We were given a glimpse of the promised land. We then saw an idol dashed to the ground and shattered. I regret that the Republican party has delivered into the hands of the Philistines. If Theodore Roosevelt was right in 1912 he ought to have been right in 1916. In 1912 we were the militants. We marched to the tune of "Onward, Christian Soldiers." We were fighting the battle of Armageddon.

The leaders of the Republican party in 1912 asked the question: Can a Republican party in 1916. Do we suppose that these gentlemen have reformed? Is Joe Cannon different? Penrose, whom Mr. Roosevelt denounced, is high in the councils of the Republican party. The burglars whom Mr. Roosevelt condemned are still in the saddle.

Fairbanks' Address Largely on Tariff

Says Hughes Would Not Handle Mexican Problem as Wilson Has, Is Answer to Question from Auditor.

Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—(P. N. S.)—Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice president, in San Diego following a series of campaign speeches here yesterday. In his principal address last evening Fairbanks attacked President Wilson's Mexican policy, but devoted most of his time to the tariff issue. Speaking of Democratic prosperity, he said:

"To analyze it makes one's blood run cold. How many have had it here in Europe to make Democratic prosperity in the United States?"

Fairbanks was harried continually by a staunch Democrat in the audience who rose to his feet and asked questions and tried to engage the speaker in debate. In answer to a question as to just what Hughes would do with Mexico, Fairbanks was content to say: "He would handle it as Mr. Wilson has done."

Two New Suspects Brought Into Case

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—(P. N. S.)—Two new suspects today were brought into this preparatory homicide explosion case when affidavits indicating the bomb was planted by Adolphe Schultze and Tony Jolmes, alias the Spanish Kid, were submitted by Maxwell McCut, chief counsel for Warren K. Billings, when the latter appeared before Superior Judge Frank H. Dunne on his plea for a new trial.

Judge Dunne put over till Saturday his ruling on the plea or the imposition of the life sentence recommended by the jury that found Billings guilty of murder as a result of the explosion of July 22, which killed 10 persons.

Would Go Back to Land.

Washington, Oct. 3.—(U. P.)—The high cost of living is giving an added impetus to the lure of the land. Members of the new farm loan board drew this conclusion from a recent investigation that a majority of their 100,000 inquiries have come from city dwellers who want to get back to the land, through farm loan aid. The board plans to help the city folk get there, as well as to help the man on the non-paying farm.

BABY FROLICS WHILE LAWYERS WRANGLE OVER ITS POSSESSION

Ivor Wilson Harris Taken Away From Mother at Party Held September 21.

DRUNKEN ORGY CHARGE

Father's Lawyer contends Place Not One Where Baby Should Be; Couple May Be Reconciled.

Two hours in the county jail, a prisoner in the custody of Sheriff Hurlbert, and a stormy session in the court of Circuit Judge Davis, was one grand picnic for Ivor Wilson Harris yesterday afternoon.

While the lawyers argued and wrangled for kicked up his heels and emptied a bottle of nice warm milk. When he tired of that he slid down from his mother's lap and rolled on the carpeted floor.

Ivor is only 12 months old and this was his first experience in jail or in court and he was not the one to worry about how much the lawyers feuded and argued over him.

He is the son of Russell B. Harris and Ruth Harris. He lived with his parents in contentment until the night of September 21. Something happened then. Attorney Arthur L. Moulton, representing the father, tells the story one way and Attorney McNamein, representing the mother, tells it another way.

Between the two it may be gathered that the mother was at a party at the home of William Hughes. The husband may have been there too or he may just have arrived, at any rate he is in the jail. He decided it was proper for his baby to be in the company of such hilarity and he drove the "party" out of the house at the point of a gun. Then he took the baby, from its bed in its night clothes, and wrapped him in an overcoat and disappeared.

Moulton told the court the party was a midnight, drunken orgy. McNamein said he would concede, as much, but that the husband was the worst drunk.

Two weeks passed before the mother learned of the whereabouts of her baby. She discovered him at a baby sanitarium at 615 Nehalem avenue, Yreka, Cal., where he was being cared for by her to gain possession of the child. Deputy Sheriff Franklin went to the sanitarium for the baby and found him in the county jail where the baby's mother took care of him.

Reconciliation Probable.

Judge Davis ruled yesterday afternoon that the baby should be left in the custody of its mother, but that it must not be taken from the jurisdiction of the court until the trouble over it is finally adjusted.

Asked if she wanted a divorce, Mrs. Harris replied: "No, all I want is my baby."

The attorneys expressed the belief that a reconciliation would be brought about.

AUTO THIEVES ARE TARGETS

Offenders Will Not Escape Jail Sentence, Says Judge.

Automobile thieves are not going to get away with their crime, said Judge Davis in presiding over the criminal department of the circuit court. This was made clear this morning when he denied an immediate parole to E. C. Mercer, although Mercer's attorney pleaded for it and Deputy District Attorney Collier recommended it.

Mercer entered a plea of guilty to larceny by baillee for taking the auto of A. Barbash on August 1. The crime is punishable by penitentiary sentence. "What was your idea when you took the machine?" asked the judge. "I guess I did not have any," replied Mercer. "It was just foolishness."

"Any man who does not even have a motive for stealing a machine, certainly needs some punishment to remind him he must not do it again," said Judge Davis.

He allowed Mercer to change his plea to simple larceny, which will permit a jail sentence, and sent him back to await 30 days before sentence is pronounced. If his conduct has been good, at the end of that time the court will send him to a year in jail and give him a parole on condition he repay the automobile owner for his damage and repay the state its expenses.

ACCOUNTING IS DEMANDED

Hearing of Keep-Miller Suit Begun Before Judge Gatens.

Hearing of the suit brought by Joseph Keep against E. E. Miller, an attorney, and others, for a restraining order and an accounting of funds in connection with the Eastern Irrigation Power & Lumber Co., and the Wapinitia Irrigation company was begun before Circuit Judge Gatens this morning.

Involved is an irrigation project of considerable size in Wasco county.

Miller, who is being represented by Attorney C. A. Sheppard.

Miller has used his power in the company to strip the company of its possessions and defraud him out of his interests. Keep is being represented by Attorney S. B. Huston. He denies these allegations, and presents affidavits to substantiate his claim that he acted in the advice and with the full knowledge of Keep in all matters complained of, and that one-half of the 100,000 shares of stock in the Wapinitia company, due Keep, belongs to Miller as payman for his services.

Attorney Huston also contends that Keep cannot bring a suit in the courts, because he is now under sentence to a term in the penitentiary. His case is on appeal to the supreme court.

Prospective Actor's Career Is Nipped

J. Allen Grant Failed to Show Up for Breakfast This Morning; Facing Charge of Violating Mann Act.

Federal officers last night nipped a dashing, handsome prospective theatrical star. Two young women today were grieving. He is J. Allen Grant, lately of Seattle, and United States Commissioner Drake ordered him held today for preliminary examination on Thursday on charges of violating the Mann white slave act of violating the Mann white slave act.

The woman in the case is May Bennett, a prepossessing young woman who was not at all eager for his prosecution. As a matter of fact, when she told her story to the grand jury this morning she did not know he had been arrested, but was still angry because he had not kept a breakfast appointment with her. She did not then know that he had breakfasted in a steel cage at the county jail.

Another woman also figures in the case and it is asserted that in his associations with Miss Bennett he had pretended to be trying to rid himself of the other. Federal officers say Grant, who is unusually handsome, has been taking lessons in acting at a local film producing studio.

Two Prominent New Yorkers for Wilson

Progressive Admits President's Domestic Policies and Republican Finds His Foreign Policies to His Liking.

New York, Oct. 3.—Two prominent New Yorkers, one a Progressive and the other a Republican, have announced their intention to support the increasing ranks of Wilson supporters. Richard Weiling, who was the Progressive member of the civil service commission in Mayor Gaynor's administration and vice president of the Men's League for Woman Suffrage, is one of the recruits. He said: "In domestic matters the president has made such a remarkable constructive record that it seems to me Progressives are almost bound to support him."

Benjamin Wood of 118 East Sixty-third street is the other New Yorker outside the Democratic party who is going to support the president. He said:

"I am favorable to Wilson because of his forceful and dignified correspondence with Germany; because I believe that President Wilson has had more serious problems to contend with on taking office than any previous president, and that he has handled those problems calmly and deliberately, bravely and intelligently. Because, through diplomacy, he has demonstrated that the pen is mightier than the sword. Unlike other presidents, he has talked little and said much. Because, we are at peace while the European powers are wrapped in the meshes of war and bloodshed."

Woman Dies Suddenly.

Mrs. Alice Emerson, a former resident of St. Johns, died suddenly at her home in Seattle last Thursday and was buried at Cathlamet, Wash. She was a daughter of Jesse Baker, a sergeant in the Civil war. Her husband, Fred Emerson, and her mother, both survive her.

Wallace, Idaho, Oct. 3.—(P. N. S.)—District Judge Woods last night refused to grant the state's request for a change of venue in the murder case of the state versus Herman J. Ross. The trial will be started here Thursday afternoon.
