ECHOES FROM WAR ZONE.
STRAND PROGRAM
Mrs. De Verne... Posing Horse Snowflake
Al... Musical Novelty
Von Perry Duo... Belgian War Refugees
Grandma Huxley... Old-time Fiddler
Photoplay... "Chalice of Sorrows"

CHOICES from the war zone come to the Strand theatre with the Van Perry Duo, which appears in the new bill. Refuges from Belgium give with their act a talk on the war a striking "eye-witness" outline of some of the stirring things that have taken place in that ill-fated kingdom. Their act proper is a presentation of clever dancing and xylophone playing.

Like Wallace Irwin Story.
The Japanese opinion of Mack Sennett is given in four pages of elaborate decorative wringles in the Kinema-Record, the recognized photoplay journal of Japan. The cartoon sounds like a real Wallace Irwin story. In part, it is: Most comedy-films now exhibited in Japan are made in America. Above all, those made in Keystone are very popular among us. Until some time before, to our sorrow, many photoplay theatre goes have had Mr. Sennett. Our endeavor, however, in introducing Mack Sennett to Japanese has had echoes among them, and now much about him has become known. We are also hoping to report about Mack Sennett's valuable services rendered to the comedy film making, and this we are now doing with success.

Eleanora Duse Dying.
Eleanora Duse, the great Italian tragedienne, is reported near death at her villa in Lugano, according to a telegram from Rome. She is 67 years old. The London newspapers. Often called the richest woman of the stage, and compared favorably with Bernhardt by many critics, Miss Duse, who is 67 years old, has been active in army relief work since her native country became involved in the great European war. She is beloved by the Italian people, and her critical illness has caused concern throughout Italy.

Former Chief's Daughter.
Mirian Doyle, who has an important part in "The Silent Witness," is the daughter of a former chief of police of Chicago. She made her stage debut in Boston the season before last when Irvin Cobb's Back Home stories were made into a play.

Indexes Her Costumes.
"When one's library becomes so extensive that one has difficulty in finding the book one wants the only thing to do is to get a catalogue," says Valeska Suratt, siren of the screen. "That is the principle upon which I acted in having my costumes indexed. I found not long ago that my collection of gowns, which I really do think

Goodman Author of Play.
Henry Miller has completed arrangements to produce a new play by Jules Eckert Goodman. It is intended for Mr. Miller's own starring vehicle. Mr. Goodman, who is a former Portland man, is chiefly known to the theatre-going public for his plays "Mother," "The Right to Live" and "The Test."

Will Show in New York.
Horace Anshery Vachell's four-act comedy, "Who Is He?" produced at the Haymarket theatre, London, last year is to be done in New York in October. Harry Ashford is to play Mr. Bunting.

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES
Three Companies Drill Last Night
—Yatch Turns Up.
Three Companies Drilled
Companies B and D and the Machine Gun company met last night and drilled on the floor of the armory. There was a good attendance. A few did not have uniforms but new uniforms are expected to be issued all around before the close of the month. B company rejoiced in the finding of Yatch, the dog mascot. The animal was looking for the company and joyfully followed one of the squad with which he spent most of his time when doing duty on the border.

Give a Dance.
Company C will give the first dance of the season since the return from the border, on the night of Tuesday, October 10. The armory ballroom floor is one of the best in Portland, and a good time is assured all friends of Company C who attend.

Trees in New Role.
Sir Herbert Harbom trees will descend to the role of an old-fashioned farmer in the Fine Arts version of Rupert Hughes' story, "Old Folks at Home." Josephine Crowell plays opposite.

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?
There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.
This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.
There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.
