TENER SAYS M'GRAW OUTBURST DUE TO AN OVER HEATED TEMPER

Charge That His Men Laid Down Against Brooklyn Is Not to Be Considered.

"MUGGSY" QUITS FIELD

When Poll Perritt Winds Up With Man on First Fiery Leader of Giants Fairy Explores.

By H. C. Hamilton. New York, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—President John K. Tener of the National League, declared to the United Press today that absolutely nothing will be done from his office regarding the charges of Manager John McGraw that the Giants quit in yesterday's game with Brooklyn.

"It looks to me like an outburst from a man brought up over the fact that he couldn't keep winning with a team which had just finished a run of 26 consecutive victories," Tener said.

"I do not doubt that he said harsh things, but every friend of baseball who knows the national game will attribute it to the fiery temper of the man who said it. There is nothing to be done from this office."

Tener expressed regret over the fact that so much fuss had been made over a matter that appeared to him to be of very slight importance.

Garry Herrmann insisted he didn't see why the National commission should take this matter.

"There is no case to close so far as the commission is concerned," he declared. "I don't want to talk about it."

Ban Johnson, president of the American league, did not comment on the occurrence, saying it was not his place to become involved in a controversy in which he could not have any interest at the present time.

McGraw, himself, could not be located early today, nor could Harry N. Hampton, president of the New York National league club.

Muggy loses his temper early in the game between the Dodgers and Giants, it developed today. He left the field in the fourth inning, when he became enraged by a wild throw made by Pitcher Perritt. He returned, however, only to leave again in the fifth when a Brooklyn baserunner stole second.

McGraw declared Perritt displayed poor judgment and gross carelessness in taking a full windup with a baserunner on first. His charge of quitting roused Art Fletcher, who pitched, who gave him the lie, and McGraw rushed from the field in a fit of temper.

After the game he declared his players had not given him their best efforts, and that he was through with the season. He did not directly charge them with playing into Brooklyn's hands, but he said they showed a listlessness and indifference in a crucial game which was shameful in a team which had just completed a run of 26 consecutive victories.

They hit, ran and fielded. The Giants must be given credit for putting up something of an objection to Brooklyn's running over them roughshod for a pennant. They hit the ball, ran the bases and fielded most of the time in top fashion. Pitching was the point where they fell hard, and it was on this point that McGraw based his charge.

McGraw has been manager of the Giants since 1902, when he came to New York from the Baltimore club. He has piloted the team to one world's championship in 1905, and to five National league pennants—in 1904, 1905,

BRINGING UP FATHER

1911, 1912 and 1913. His present contract, which is said to call for a salary of $30,000 a year, still has a year to run. He always has been known as a fighter.

The Brooklyn club, by going into a clinch position for the National league pennant, won its first championship since 1900 and will go into its first world's series next Saturday against the Red Sox. The Brooklyn season will close tomorrow and it is probable the Brooklyn regulars will be relieved of hard playing in the final two games.

Bancroft's Injunctive. Pat Moran of the Phillies, short of pitchers, strove hard for the league bunting and failed only on the last play. An injury to Shortstop Dave Bancroft, last week, is believed to have been responsible for the poor showing of the champions against the Braves. Stock, a third baseman, has been playing in the final two games.

The race just over was one of the most spectacular ever seen in the National league. Brooklyn, the pennant winner, held the lead for five months in a season that fairly sizzled. Founding down the stretch from May to October, the leaders never were in a position to relax for a moment.

Injuries beset the Dodgers and Pfeffer, Robbie's star pitcher, suffered a reversal of form. The Dodgers started on a long road trip when the Cubs and Giants went into a play off series in which he could not have any interest at the present time.

'DUTCH' REUTHER TAKES MEASURE OF DEL'S DEARS

Six to Nothing Was Score of Pleasant but Loose Contest Yesterday.

By R. A. Cronin.

McCredie's Dutch Reuther on the "Eppers" bowditched yesterday and after the harbored Teuton had finished wiping up the earth with them, the score board showed a row of cypresses, while ranged alongside were six juicy tallies for the binging Beavers.

Two hits, both in one inning, was the portion allowed to the cellar champs by the Portland left hander, who makes a specialty of two and three hit games.

Brother Del is worrying along with the most weebone outfit seen in this part since Pearl Casey's old Portland Colts. Half of the Portland runs were made on almost inexcusable errors by Lane and Kenworthy and the remainder were the result of solid whiffs off Tex Kinney, the lonestar outpawking acquisition to the Oakland forces.

After the fifth Kinney didn't do so badly and shut the homeguard out hitless and runless.

Billy Lane Did It. Middleton's single to right and a scratch hit through Reuther gave the Oaks their delicate bingles.

Vaughn was on first in the first frame from a force-out and Southworth singled across second. The ball rolled out to center and through Billy Lane's underpinning clear to the center field fence. Both runners tallied. Southworth coming in standing up after a long sprint.

Vaughn walked in the third and Southworth rolled the ball down to pitcher, who held it up. Vaughn was out and with plenty of time to spare, threw wide of Berger. Vaughn reached third, whence he scored on Nixon's force-out of Howard, who had walked.

Williams' Home Around. Williams singled to right in the fourth, followed by Ward's strikeout and a single across second by Reuther, on which Williams pulled up at second. He followed with a clean steal of third and tallied on Evans' force-out of Reuther.

With one out in the fifth Howard walked and went to third on Nixon's single to right. Will reaching second on a steal, Jack Roche brought them home with a crash past Kenworthy, and the catcher was out when he was hit on the leg by Williams' ground ball, automatically giving Kenny a second hit for the day.

ALEXANDER NOT TO BE COMPARED TO C. RADBOURNE

Pitched All but Two of Providence's Long Standing Run of Victories.

The fact that Grover Alexander has pitched practically every other day for a week in an effort to land the pennant for the Philadelphia Nationals has caused an endless chain of comment among the present day baseball fans.

It is a remarkable feat for a present day twirler, but it in no way compares with the record hung up by Charley Radbourne of the Providence club in 1884. Radbourne pitched and won 18 games from August 7 to September 6. It was during this period that the Providence club hung up a consecutive game record, which was broken by the New York Giants last week with a string of 26 straight games.

Radbourne pitched 11 consecutive games beginning August 21, four against Chicago, two against Detroit, two against Buffalo and three against Cleveland. Conley pitched the other two games of the string.

The record of the Providence club is as follows: PROVIDENCE (1884). August 7, Pitches. Providence 4, Detroit 2.

August 8, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 9, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 10, Providence 4, Detroit 2.

August 11, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 12, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 13, Providence 4, Detroit 2.

August 14, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 15, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 16, Providence 4, Detroit 2.

August 17, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 18, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 19, Providence 4, Detroit 2.

August 20, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 21, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 22, Providence 4, Detroit 2.

August 23, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 24, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 25, Providence 4, Detroit 2.

August 26, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 27, Providence 4, Detroit 2. August 28, Providence 4, Detroit 2.
