MANNING IN FROM NORTH

Cutter Is Without News of the World Most of Summer.

Astoria, Or., Oct. 6 .- In command of Captain S. R. Winram, the coast guard steamer Manning is in the harbor and will spend the winter in this, her home port. The Manning has spent six months cruising in Alaskan waters. The officers and crew had five months' pay coming, and Postmaster Wise, who has charge of the strong box, dispensed nearly $24,000 among them.

"We are glad to return to Astoria." said Captain Winram, "although we had a pleasant cruise and rendered every service possible in our department.
