

WILSON SENTIMENT IN EAST OVERWHELMING, MACKENZIE DECLARES

Out of 700 Delegates to the Steam Engineers' Convention, One Was for Hughes.

TIMES ARE FINE IN EAST

Portland Labor Leader Says His Home City Better Than Any He Has Visited.

William MacKenzie, second vice president of the International Union of Steam and Operative Engineers, who recently returned from the convention at Newark, N. J., made a report of his trip at the Central Labor Council last night. He said the overwhelming trend of public opinion throughout the nine eastern states he visited is for Wilson. Of over 700 delegates at the convention only one was avowedly for Hughes.

Mr. MacKenzie visited Illinois, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Missouri and portions of Indiana and Ohio. He found times good and everywhere strong Wilson sentiment among the workmen.

In New York Mr. MacKenzie inquired into conditions in connection with the street car strike. He says he discovered that the street car workers were not 5 per cent organized before the strike and organized labor had no confidence in them. Prices for food and housing he found high throughout New England, and while the munition plants were busy, they are slackening up to some extent.

At Chicago, he declared, the labor conditions are good and Wilson sentiment strong.

At the international convention Mr. MacKenzie declined the first vice-presidency, he said, because it would have kept him on the road, and he did not like the water anywhere he went, none of it being equal to good, old Bull Run. The convention adopted the initiative and referendum as a part of the constitution of the international, the plan adopted being drawn up by W. S. U'Ken of Portland, who, he says, is regarded by workmen in the east as one of the most famous men in America. The adoption of this measure was the signal, according to Mr. MacKenzie, for the complete sweep of the progressive element and the retiring of the stand-patters of the organization.

He said he found Portland above the average as a union town. "The fact is," he said, "if anybody could give me one of those eastern cities, I'd take it to a pawn shop and get enough to buy one side of Portland."

Citizenship of Two Dry Workers Issue

Complaint Made Against J. Sanger Fox and A. J. Robertson; Only First Papers Taken Out, They Admit.

Complaint has been made by C. T. Haas, secretary of the "Equal Rights for Oregon" committee, that J. Sanger Fox and A. J. Robertson, who are directing the campaign to make Oregon absolutely "dry," are not citizens of the United States. When interrogated both Mr. Fox and Mr. Robertson asserted that they had taken out their first papers, the former in Prineville in 1910 and the latter in New York some years ago. Neither will be able to get his second papers in time to vote at the coming election. The Oregon law requires full citizenship for the right of suffrage.

BOARD WILL NOTIFY MRS. ALEXANDER OF CHARGES THAT PENDING

School Directors Consider Accusations Are Sufficient to Demand Dismissal.

The school board, by unanimous vote, adopted a resolution yesterday afternoon to the effect that the charges preferred against Mrs. Alevia Alexander, suspended principal of the Benson Polytechnic school for girls, are sufficient grounds for her dismissal and directed the clerk of the board to serve Mrs. Alexander with a copy of the resolution and of the charges.

This was the first formal step to be taken by the board in the matter. Mrs. Alexander may now ask for a hearing, at which time it will be up to Superintendent Alderman to sustain his charges before he may expect the board to take action dismissing her.

Resolution fails to pass. An effort of the finance and judiciary committee, comprised of Directors S. P. Lockwood and J. Francis Drake, to get through a resolution prohibiting Superintendent Alderman or Assistant Superintendents Grout and Rice from doing institute work at other educational institutions during the summer months, failed by a two to three vote. Directors Beach, Plummer and Smith voted against it.

Superintendent Alderman pointed out that the charges against the superintendents to take leave during the summer to take part in such work, and said the schools benefit by the knowledge gained by the superintendents. Lockwood and Drake objected to the superintendents getting paid for this kind of work when they are on the school payroll by the year.

Assistant Superintendent Grout said the resolution looked like a "reflection on everybody." The board voted to pay $12,000 for lot 1, block 2, Portland Homestead addition. The property, which is just east of the Holman school, is desired for a playground for that school. The appraised value is $900. Director Lockwood voted against paying more than that sum for it.

New School Requested. R. A. Letter presented a petition from the patrons of the Chapman school asking for a new school building in a new location. He said the present building is unsuitable, unsanitary, desks unfitted for use, and the location is bad because of its nearness to the crematory. The petition was referred to the grounds committee.

Recommendation of Superintendent Alderman that the time of opening and closing of Capitol Hill, Multnomah and Fulton Park schools daily be made 15 minutes later than the schools was adopted. This action was taken because of the train service, which makes it difficult for the teachers to get at the schools until nearly 9 o'clock in the morning. Petitions of the Peninsula and Vernon districts for night schools were placed on file.

Bids were received as follows for the contract for furnishing the stadium seats for the Franklin high school: Mait & McClelland Construction company, $6395; K. G. Lundquist, $7000; Parker & Banfield, $7600. They were referred to the building and grounds committee. Two bids, each for the same amount, were received for the contract for supplying fuel oil to the schools. The bids were from the Standard Oil company and the Union Oil company and were $140 a barrel.

A Trifle Close, One Might Say; Perhaps A Trifle Too Close

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 6.—In support of her charges that Manly E. Mumford, 76, was "close, niggardly and parsimonious," gave her only $15 in their one year of married life, and that he failed to provide her with clothes, Mrs. Sarah M. Mumford, 68, testified before Superior Judge Jurey that Mumford purchased a dozen prunes, ate six of them raw and told her to stew the rest if she wanted them, that he did not like them stewed. She also testified that he was too stingy to buy olive oil, so purchased and drank lubricating oil. Mumford is a G. A. R. veteran.

MARINE RECRUITING HEAD FOR WESTERN DIVISION GUEST HERE

Major Lowndes Here on Inspection Tour and Portland Offices Are Visited.

Character and physique are the requirements of the present day marine, according to Major Edward R. Lowndes, U. S. M. C., in charge of the western recruiting division for the marine corps, who is in Portland on an inspection trip. Major Lowndes has his headquarters in San Francisco, and his division comprises all the territory west of and including Denver.

This morning he visited the local recruiting offices in company with Captain L. F. Pinkston, U. S. M. C., retired, in charge of the district of Portland, and Dr. J. L. Manion, examining surgeon for the Portland district. "Until recently our quota for the marine corps was 9991," said Major Lowndes this morning, "but this number has been increased to 15,000, and the president is empowered to call for still more men if necessary."

"There are about 11,000 men in the marine corps at present, and so recruiting is being carried on actively in all parts of the country. We are getting a considerable response to our efforts, but the physical requirements of the marine corps are most severe and only those of excellent physique are accepted. "Following his enlistment the recruit is sent to Mare Island, Cal., or Port Royal, S. C., for 14 months of training before being assigned to a station. "Enlarged in numbers and scope, the marine corps offers excellent futures to both officers and men." Major Lowndes left for Tacoma this afternoon.

Ben Selling Morrison at Fourth

THE BOY DID RIGHT

"How Do You Like It, Dad?"
"Very Well! Where Did You Get It?"
"At Gately's, of Course."

"That's right. That reminds me—40 years ago I bought my first long trouser suit at Gately's."
"And, listen, sonny! It was my first experience with a charge account. It taught me a good business lesson that has proved very valuable to me ever since."
"Credit, wisely used, is a man's biggest asset. If you have $10.00 you can only buy a $10.00 suit, but if you go to Gately's you need not buy what necessity compels you to take, but you can get a good suit by paying a small payment down on the kind of a suit that you ought to have."
"GATELY'S is a good, reliable house. They sell the kind of clothes a man ought to wear. I have bought from them for 40 years and always been well pleased."
"Mother, do you remember when we first were married? Every spring and fall we went to Gately's for our new outfit, and how easy we found it to dress well."
"Why, Dad! Gately's advertise: Dress well, never miss the money. They operate 106 stores in the United States—they show a wonderful assortment of all-wool SUITS and COATS for fall and winter in the very latest styles, at $15, $18, $20 and up to $30."

Ill Health Often Caused by the Kidneys

Of all the ills mankind suffers from, nothing is more to be feared than those caused by kidney poisoning, because such ailments usually come on so stealthily that you are seldom aware of their presence until they have actually spread dangerous disease throughout the body. There are, however, certain signs by which you can tell whether your kidneys are properly cleansing the blood.

If you arise in the morning with dull, aching pains in the back and feel as if your night's rest had not refreshed you if you are weak, depressed, nervous or irritable; if your head aches spots appear before your eyes; if your appetite is poor, your complexion sallow; if you have indigestion, biliousness, rheumatic pains, and have lost flesh rapidly, you may be sure kidney poisons exist in your blood, and you cannot possibly get well until they are removed. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy has a steady beneficial action on the kidneys that usually brings relief in a short time. It is recognized by many physicians as one of the most dependable medicines in the treatment of kidney and liver diseases. It contains no harmful ingredients. Try it.
