was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and bride roses. After the ceremony, to which only the immediate relatives were bidden, a delicious wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Ripley then left for a short trip to the south.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Friday night, Rev. and Mrs. L. K. Richardson were tendered a surprise farewell reception by the members of Kenilworth Presbyterian church. As they were led into the church which had been kept dark, the lights were suddenly turned on and they were greeted by a church full of people. After a brief program, Rev. Richardson was presented with a neaping plate of silver dollars. This was followed by the gift of a pair of gold cuff buttons. Frank Hoeh, president of the "Boys of the Orange and the Black," an organization of 18 high school boys, made the presentation speech. Mr. Richardson organized the club. Cafeteria refreshments were served by the young people. Rev. Richardson spoke at some length of the past four years' work and thanked the members for their many tokens of esteem. Friday afternoon, the Ladies' Aid gave Mrs. Richardson a handkerchief shower. Recently at the home of J. M. Wiley, Mrs. Richardson was given a social by the Adult Bible class

"WHY IS MARIE ALWAYS THE LAST TO GET A NEW SUIT?"

"Because the Rest of Us Use Our Credit!"

"In the face of an argument like that, how could anyone deny that installment payments are a thing to be proud of?—and girls on allowances, too, for that matter. Not that you want to deny CHERY'S know credit as an enthusiastic about CHERY'S CREDIT SYSTEM as I am. But shouldn't you think a young girl Marie miserable to be so shabby?"

"Indeed, I should—and it DOES, doesn't it?—just last night she confided it to me, and I told her about CHERY'S. Would you believe it, she didn't want to deny CHERY'S know credit Store! Of course, she hasn't been here long, and although she knew a lot of the girls bought our clothes at the same store, she thought it must be a very high-priced place because our clothes are so pretty."

"Well, I felt positively wicked that I hadn't given her the tip before. Marie is going to make the first payment on her suit tomorrow and pay the rest by THE WEEK address—389, 391 Washington street, Pittock block."

and presented with a silver salad spoon. Both Rev. and Mrs. Richardson were recently tendered an informal dinner by the missionary and Ladies' Aid societies.

Mr. Richardson will leave with his family, October 9, for Philadelphia, where he begins his new pastorate October 15.

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. E. R. Martin, Mrs. L. C. Dickie and Mrs. H. D. Oliver of Sunnyside Methodist church gave a farewell reception at the home of Mrs. Oliver, honoring Mrs. J. W. McDougall, who leaves soon for Spokane, and Dr. Leah Riker, who goes to Wasco, Or. Mrs. Charles T. McQuinn sang "Song of Heart" (Tunis), and "Wherever You Go" (Somerset), giving "The Bluebird" (Zerbe) in response to an encore. Miss Faith Jones played and Miss Henrietta Honey recited two humorous selections, "The Traveler" and "The Widow," the last as an encore. Mrs. Martin in appropriate terms presented to each of the two honor guests, as a token of regard, a dainty remembrance inscribed with the autographs of all present. Dainty refreshments completed a delightful social event.

"U-Re-Ka Card" club, which meets twice each month were entertained at "500" in September by Mrs. B. F. Padrick and Mrs. Emil Schacht. Dainty refreshments were served by each hostess. Habekost, Mrs. M. L. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Kroll, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. B. F. Padrick, Mrs. D. M. Povey, Mrs. Emil Schacht, Miss Ada Taylor, Mrs. Louise Williams.

A charming party was an event of last Saturday evening, given by Mrs. Earl Parker and Miss Pearl J. Nelson, in honor of Mrs. Fred A. Paddison whose engagement to Fred A. Paddison was made known. The house was effectively decorated in autumn leaves and red ribbons. The table scheme was carried out in red and green. Among those present were: Flora K. Parker, Frances Randall, Pearl Usher, Frances Raasmussen, Max Cox, Hazel Hanks, Dorothy Waldron, Grace Morris, Anna Roberts, Florence Vale, Edna Mott and Rose Carter. Little Earlean Charlotte Parker was cupid.

A pleasant surprise party was given last Friday evening to Mrs. M. V. A. Romack in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent with musical entertainment and a card party, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Blum, Mr. and Mrs. Goulickson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Kerbell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Jessup, Miss Emma Blum, Mrs. M. V. A. Romack, Mrs. Frank Stoll, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hazel, Mrs. J. Richter, Miss Ivy Giesy and Clarence Blum.

A delightful afternoon was spent with Mrs. H. Suckow at her home, 874 Halght avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, October 4. In latter part of the afternoon a luncheon was served. The guests were: Mrs. H. Richards, Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. P. Lollick, Mrs. R. C. Bonser, Mrs. C. F. Hennings, Mrs. H. Hennings, Mrs. G. Wishart, Mrs. Graybach, Mrs. E. Arpin and Mrs. H. Suckow.

Miss Rae Levin entertained with an afternoon tea Saturday, September 29, complimenting Miss Mamie Brown who just recently returned from Seattle. Selections and songs by those present filled the afternoon with much amusement. Those being present were the Misses Lorna and Fanny Abrahams, Hatie Goldman, Cecil Rubenstein, Fanny Pellmar, Mrs. Boteford, Eva Levin, Mamie Brown and the hostess.

Portland Chapter Social club, O. E. S. will give an informal card and dancing party in W. O. W. hall, 323 Russell street, Friday evening, October 11.

prised by about 75 friends Thursday evening, the occasion being their twenty-fifth anniversary. Games and music were enjoyed and a mock ceremony performed, after which dainty refreshments were served and a silver shower was presented.

Mrs. Eliza-Belle Dodson, 863 Clinton street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Pearl, to Frank James Wagner of San Francisco.

COMING EVENTS

The Ladies' auxiliary, Ancient Order of Hibernians, is making preparations for its thirteenth anniversary which will be celebrated with an informal ball, Thursday evening, October 19, in their own home, the Hibernia hall. All the old-time friends of the organization are cordially invited to attend and share the pleasures of the evening, which promises to be a gala one. The committee arranging for the affair is: The Misses Mary Frances McCarthy, Anna Donovan, Katherine Dowd, Mary Lawler, Francis McCarthy, Catherine Quint, Margaret Whitney and Agnes Dowd.

One of the much anticipated events of the season is the dance to be given by the Swastika club, Tuesday, October 10, in Christensen's hall. This is the premiere of the season's series of parties, and the 16 young people of this club promise to make this a gala affair, and the opening of this popular series will be an auspicious event. The patronesses will be Mrs. A. Fox, Mrs. D. R. Ladd and Mrs. A. Delury. The committee is: Elda Fox, Ruth Le Tissier, Cora Eaton, Olive Keffer, E. M. Moore, Ethel Hale, Rex Rethelstein, Edna Greenway, Helen E. Ladd, Walter Keffer, Olga Fox, Stanley Bryant, Ada Coles and Leo Le Tissier.

The members of the Illinois society, their families and friends will assemble at the society's first fall meeting next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Oregon building, Fifth and Oak streets. The program committee has arranged some attractive musical numbers after the business session and the remainder of the evening will be given over to refreshments and a general good time. All former Illinoisians are urged to take this opportunity of becoming acquainted and are asked to cooperate in making the society's affairs this season as successful as were those of last year.

The Nineteen-Seventeen "prom" will be given Friday evening, October 13, at Christensen's hall. The patronesses for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Ross Elkims, Mr. and Mrs. Belden H. Grant and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Schmidt. The committee consists of the Misses Helene Dorres, Ruth Doty, Eva Twineham, Doris Clarke, Mrs. Doty, Hazel Saylor and Messrs. Fred Hummel, Harold Grant, Norman Schaefer, George Jehlmeier, Lou Hems, Fred Hoynton, Alfred Schill, Andrew De Mentz and Harry Schaefer.

The O. W. R. G. "Employees' club" will give their evening party Tuesday evening, October 10, at Cottillion hall with the Cottillion orchestra playing. It will be an informal affair with dancing at $30 a doctore. The patronesses will be: Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. R. Blaisdel, Mrs. W. W. Cotton and Mrs. B. E. Palmer. The committee is: Mrs. Theresa C. Dupue, Miss Esther DeGroat, W. E. Hoffmann, O. E. Durkin and Eugene Tuck.

The St. Joseph's society will entertain with a dance at Gregory hall, Milwaukee and Center streets, on Tuesday evening, October 10. From all indications it is very evident that this event will be the greatest of the society's many social successes. An excellent committee has been appointed and has reported most favorably on the coming event.

A social event which is being looked forward to with much pleasure is a dancing party to be given under the auspices of the Alameda Tuesday club, November 9, to raise funds for the proposed new clubhouse in that district. This party promises to be one of the biggest affairs of the season in that community, and is to be given in Cottillion hall.

The Michigan state society held its monthly meeting Monday of last week and made plans for a harvest festival which is to be held on October 16. About 150 former residents of the state gathered Monday evening and cards, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

Portland Chapter Social club, O. E. S. will give an informal card and dancing party in W. O. W. hall, 323 Russell street, Friday evening, October 11.

All members of Eastern Star and friends invited.

Orphila temple, No. 18, Pythian Sisters, will give a 500 card party Friday afternoon, October 13, in Pythian castle, Eleventh and Alder streets. Good prizes awarded. Light refreshments will be served.

Multnomah circle, 144, Women of Woodcraft, will give a 500 and stepping party, October 12, at 8:30 sharp, at W. O. W. hall, Eleventh and Alder streets.

The Portland Rowing club will give its next dancing party Tuesday evening, October 10, at the clubhouse, foot of Ivon street.

The Sisters of the Israel Benevolent society will give a grand charity ball October 19 at the B'nai B'rith hall, corner Thirteenth and Market streets.

Autumn Footwear.
The scarcity of leather will not hinder us from wearing shoes.
According to reports of the boot-makers, shoes and slippers will be made of almost any old thing that costs plenty of money.
Pigskin is to be used, also seal and alligator, all of which sounds very interesting, does it not, little Pauline?
An imitation frogskin is employed for the uppers of a saucy pair of 'kicks,' with the lower portion of black patent leather. A mottled pigskin is combined with whitewash kid, while a calfskin with the little short hairs left on is made up with brown suede. Can you beat it?
High boots made of silver cloth are attached in black and have black patent leather tongues that glitten through lacings of silver ribbon. Black patent leather tips appear in high boots of blue gabardine. Black velvet is also utilized, and actually one pair has toe-tips of gold cloth.
Fancying slippers in all the light evening shades are fashionable and attract attention because they have different heels.
Street boots show Cuban heels, not more than an inch and a quarter high.

He Got His Decree.
San Francisco, Oct. 7.—When Archibald Alexander, explaining the vicissitudes of his five months of married life, told the court that "it was just like living with a wildcat," he got a divorce.

The frock you bought is worth the amount of pleasure you'll get out of wearing it—that much, and not one cent more.
