Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 11 -- (U. F.) A youth whose name is being withheld by the police is a prisoner in the city jail today, charged with stealing an automobile. He was pursued by Herman Wohlfarth, owner of the machine, and when caught was bound by a heavy rope and was towed several miles into the city, being compelled to walk the entire distance behind the car, to which one end of the rope was fastened. Wohlfarth says the youth was in the act of stripping the chassis when overtaken.
