What Society is Doing BY NONA LAWLER

LAST night the dinner given by Miss Genevieve Thompson, at the Benson hotel, for Miss Hazel Dolph and her fiance, Edward W. Clark III, closed the round of gay pre-nuptial affairs which have been given since the arrival of Mr. Clark from Philadelphia. It was a large and beautifully appointed affair. The decoration of the table was in yellow chrysanthemums and autumn tinted leaves. There were 60 covers arranged, and dancing was enjoyed later in the evening.

The wedding of Miss Dolph and Mr. Clark at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will call forth Portland society en masse to the First Baptist church. Yesterday afternoon the bridal party assembled at the church for the rehearsal. Rev. A. A. Morrison will be the officiating minister, and the bride's attendants will include: Her cousin, Mrs. Marion Dolph, as matron of honor; Mrs. David Taylor, of New York, and Mrs. William Hurd Lines, and the bridesmaids, Miss Marguerite Auzias de Turenne of Seattle, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Isabella Gauld and Miss Ailsa MacMaster. Franklin T. Clark, of Philadelphia, will be the best man for his brother, and the ushers will be Henry Ladd Corbett, William Hurd Lines, C. Sewall Clark, John M. Dolph, Hamilton Clark and Clark D. Symonds.

Miss Dolph will be given in marriage by her brother, William Vanderbilt Dolph.

Yesterday afternoon the bridal party assembled at the White Temple for the rehearsal.

Junior League Date Changed.

The date for the Junior league frontier dance has been changed from Friday, October 27, to Thursday, the 26th, because of the interference of the later date with the Horse Show.

Landes-Jellison Wedding Planned.

Miss Harriet Jellison and Herbert D. Landes of Salt Lake City will be married Wednesday, October 18, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jellison. The ceremony will be read by Dr. John H. Boyd at 8:30 o'clock, and about 65 guests have been bidden for both ceremony and reception. The only attendants will be two little flower girls, Helen J. Wolcott and Jessie Smith. Mr. Jellison will give his daughter in marriage. Miss Jellison is a most popular young woman, and it is much regretted that her marriage will take her from Portland. She has been especially prominent in charity work, being president of the Portland Fruit and Flower mission. Her hosts of friends have entertained extensively for her during her pre-nuptial days.

Mr. Landes is a prominent business man of Salt Lake City, and he will arrive in Portland Sunday. His parents will arrive from their home in Kansas later in the week.

Laurelhurst Club.

Last Tuesday afternoon the women of Laurelhurst club had a very enjoyable game of bridge and five hundred at the club rooms. The prize winners for five hundred were Mrs. Walter Eddy and Mrs. W. Dalton, and for bridge Mrs. George Powis and Mrs. M. D. Alger. The attendance required 24 tables, and the hostesses, Mrs. E. T. Hall and Miss Rinehart, are to be complimented upon the tastefully arranged display of autumn leaves used as a decoration.

A repast furnished by the women of the club was thoroughly enjoyed by the members of the orchestra at the conclusion of their practice Tuesday evening last, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

An interesting discourse was given by Professor Leigh of Reed college on the subject of initiative measures in the club rooms on Wednesday evening, and as these meetings are open to the public, there was a large attendance.

The regular dance of the club will be held tonight, commencing at 8:30 o'clock, and promptness would be appreciated by the orchestra.

New Arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Burrows are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby daughter Wednesday. Mrs. Burrows was formerly Mrs. Vena McCullough.

Mother of Mrs. Gardener Here.

Mrs. Joseph T. Patton, of Detroit, Mich., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Cornelius Gardener. Mrs. Patton came here from Santa Fe, and the high altitude of that part of New Mexico so affected her that since her arrival in Portland she has been seriously ill. For that reason projected entertaining for her has been postponed. Mrs. Patton will, however, remain in Portland for several months.

Miss Hammond Hostess.

Miss Jessie Hammond entertained a number of friends at her home in Rose City Park on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Mark Wheaton (June Clark) of North Battleford, Saskatchewan, Canada.

Mrs. Wheaton is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Newberg, and her sister, Miss Lila Clark of Portland.

New Arrival.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell K. Akin. The little one is to be known as Russell K. Akin Jr.

Tri Delta Meet.

The Tri Delta Sorority will meet Saturday at the Hazelwood for luncheon.

O. E. S. to Meet.

Friendship chapter 115, O. E. S., will hold its regular meeting Monday night at Vincent hall, Forty-third and Sandy. Social following business meeting. All O. E. S. welcome.

Beauty Chat BY LILLIAN RUSSELL

The Growing Girl.

I WISH I could reach the minds of the mothers of a certain class—families of means, at any rate with income large enough for all the comforts of life, including the proper education of children. These mothers with misplaced indulgence, who are allowing their daughters to grow up without duties and without work.

School, a little music, generally of the pianola order, fancy work of only the fashionable kind, such as fancy sweaters; some church work, and ladies' sewing societies, which consist of a little talk and an afternoon of bridge or the movies.

These daughters of the majority of prosperous American families manage to fill their time one way or another without doing one thing to develop the mind or muscle or start healthy blood. They go to bed when they please, get up when they please and eat what coaxes their squeamish appetite, and take walks only when other girls call for them.

Of course they appear delicate and are in failing health at 16. The mothers spend their lives and energies, at the time of well earned rest, anxiously watching and doing the work which the daughters should do were they normal girls. These devoted mothers are making life hard for their petted daughters; cheating them of the beauty of health and strength, honorable esteem, and probably of life itself.

The anaemic, chlorotic girls who remain in their rooms while the housework is being done, reading novels or writing silly notes, should be up and doing some sort of physical exercise, if it is only housework. Many mothers spend days over the needle, making some charming little dress for a daughter who will ruin it in a day lolling in a hammock.

The girls who "must be excused" from every claim not personally agreeable to them deserve what inevitably comes upon them. Wrinkles and pallor or chronic colds and skin diseases caused by impoverished blood, by 25. They "go off" suddenly in looks and doctors are "fed up" with them.

Let your girls housekeep and do housework, as you were compelled to do, in order to enable you to arrive at this state of leisure. Let them learn all the methods of maintaining a home and children.

If they marry, what have they to offer a hard working husband? Nothing but a useless, pleasure loving nonentity, who is an expense and a drag. Never let your girls shirk the interest and the development that lies in real work.

Social life in America is becoming a mere interlacing of clubs, luncheons and teas, that confine girls in stuffy rooms during the hours of sunshine, sapping their vitality and youth.

If you have grown to despise work, and are thinking to save your girls from the experiences you have gone through, you are unjust to your girls. Experience is the greatest, if not the only true teacher. It is necessary to experience hard work to appreciate real leisure.

Nothing will develop the mind and muscle of girls but hard work. At the age of 15 a girl should be taught to take hold of the housekeeping, purchase the meals and see that they are cooked properly, if she does not cook them herself. She should have the privilege of shopping for food, learning the prices of foodstuffs, and economizing whenever she can. That alone is an education which is expected of her when she marries.

The telephone housekeeper is an expensive luxury, which only rich husbands can maintain.

If you cultivate your girls to every branch of homemaking and give them the physical development they are entitled to, you will instill an interest in the home, in their minds, that will save them from all manntr of silly mistakes which are the result of idleness and uselessness.

FRATERNAL NOTES

I. I. Boak, the Distinguished Fraternalist, Received by W. O. W.

Cordial Reception to Boak.—Rose City camp, Woodmen of the World, entertained I. I. Boak and wife of Denver, Colo., yesterday afternoon and last night. The committee took the guests on the Columbia river highway for the afternoon. Last night the crowd assembled being too large for the hall at 334 Russell street, Hibernian hall next door was secured, and the distinguished head consul of the order received by the degree team in new uniforms under Captain E. Vahl. John T. Whalley presided, and the address of welcome was delivered by John P. Kavanaugh. I. I. Boak made an eloquent fraternal address in reponse, after which there was a reception to all. The following musical selections were given during the evening: Piano solo, Francis Richter; vocal solo, A. Hallene Pierce.

The committee on reception was: John B. Hoffman, consul commander of Rose City camp; J. W. Boothe, clerk; C. M. Rea, adviser; H. K. Brintzenhoff, banker; O. E. Schupp, escort; H. A. Ellers, watchman; J. S. Anunsen, sentry; N. M. Moody, R. T. Byrnes, M. A. McEachern, managers; C. A. Remson, musician.

A number of the prominent members of the order in this city were in attendance, including E. P. Martin, chief deputy head consul; A. L. Barbur, city auditor; George L. Baker, city commissioner; J. W. Wilson, clerk of Multnomah camp, and O. W. T. Muellhaupt and T. J. Kreuder.

United Artisan Social.—The United Artisans will give a neighborhood social tomorrow at East Twenty-sixth and Clinton, at which time everybody is invited to have a social hour of music, song and story.

Progress Assembly Social Tonight.—Progress assembly, United Artisans, will hold an open meeting tonight at Albina and Killingsworth avenue, at which members and friends will be welcome. Judge Gatens will speak on "Marriage and Divorce," and an interesting program has been arranged.

Grand Secretary Has Returned.—E. E. Sharon, grand secretary of the I. O. O. F., has returned from attending the sovereign grand lodge at Chattanooga, Tenn. He says he liked everything but the water in St. Louis, Chattanooga and other Mississippi valley towns.

Webfoot Boak Reception Tonight.—The reception to I. I. Boak, head consul of the Woodmen of the World, tonight by Webfoot camp will be attended by members from all over the city and adjacent towns. He will be serenaded by Webfoot W. O. W. band at the Benson hotel before being escorted to the W. O. W. temple, 128 Eleventh street, by the degree team, Multnomah camp officers, staff, degree team and members will attend in a body. An excellent program has been arranged.

Tomorrow night Multnomah camp and team will escort him to McMinnville with a special train, leaving at 6 p. m. from Fourth and Yamhill streets on the Southern Pacific. At McMinnville extensive preparations have been made to receive the guests at the dedication of the new W. O. W hall building there.

Grand Master Sick.—H. S. Westbrook, grand master of the I. O. O. F. of this state, is quite ill, following his return from an extended trip through the southern and central parts of Oregon.

WHY IS MARIE AIWAYS THE LAST TO GET A NEW SUIT?

"Because the Rest of Us Use Our Credit!"

"In the face of an argument like that, how could anyone deny that Installment Payments are a help to girls on salaries—and girls on allowances, too, for that matter! Not that you want to deny it, Edith—I know you're as enthusiastic about CHERRY'S CREDIT SYSTEM as I am. But shouldn't you think it would make Marie miserable to be so shabby?"

"Indeed, I should — and it does, PEGGY! Just last night she confided it to me, and I told her about CHERRY'S. Would you believe it, she didn't know that CHERRY'S is a Credit Store. Of course, she hasn't been here long, and although she knew a lot of us girls bought our clothes at the same store, she thought it must be a very high-priced place, because our clothes are so pretty.

"Well, I felt positively wicked that I hadn't given her the tip before. Marie is going to make the first payment on her Suit tomorrow and pay the rest BY THE WEEK.

Their store is at 289-91 Washington street, Pittock block.
