FRIDAY, THIRTEENTH, FAR FROM UNLUCKY FOR ALLAN SOTHORON

Thirteenth Game Was Won by the Old Reliable on Fateful Yesterday.

THE SCORE WAS 4 TO 2

Aside From That, the Most Unusual Feature Was That Heavers Took the Contest.

Table with 4 columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Rows include Los Angeles, Vernon, Portland, San Francisco, Salt Lake, Oakland.

Salt Lake, Utah, Oct. 14.—(P. N. S.) Friday, the thirteenth did not stop Allan Sotheron from winning his thirteenth straight game and the Heavers their first victory of the week yesterday, 4 to 2. Al hurled a masterly article of ball and drew an additional credit for the reason that his teammates repeatedly put men on for him through errors or misplays. He was somewhat wild and doubted five passes himself. It was when he was in the hole that he looked best and most effective.

The Bee clusters were helpless before him. The thirteenth on the other hand was a fateful day for Dutch Klawitter, for he happened to be the Dutchman who was again hurling his best kind of ball against just such beating as was dishied up by Sotheron. His work yesterday would have won any other game of the series.

The Heavers got one earned run off Klawitter. A double by Evans off the first ball pitched by Sotheron, followed a walk, Willie single and Klawitter's error gave the Beavers a 3-run start in the opening frame.

A couple of walks and Sotheron's own best when he failed to cover first and take Rodgers' perfect throw netted the Bees one in their half. A walk, an infield out, Klawitter's single and an error by Vaughn set up another for Salt Lake in the second.

Portland scored again in the sixth on singles by Southworth and Willie and a miscue by Ruth. The score:

BRINGING UP FATHER

LINCOLN BEATEN BY SPECTACULAR FORWARD PASSES

Franklin High School Eleven Wins a 7 to 0 Victory Over West Siders.

By George Bertz.

A series of dazzling forward passes at the beginning of the second half that put the Lincoln high school players completely at sea gave the Franklin high school eleven a 7 to 0 victory over the West Siders yesterday on Multnomah field. The victory was the first chalked up by the winners since their entry into the interscholastic league last season.

The passes were by far, the most spectacular ever staged on Multnomah field by a scholastic eleven, and all were timed perfectly. Lincoln's defense was practically helpless against Franklin's surprise attack.

Substitute Leads the Attack.

Lincoln opened the half by kicking off, the ball being returned to the center of the field. Brown, who put the passed Sauter, was the leading figure in the attack. The first pass, Brown to Powell, netted over 15 yards. Peake received the second pass for a gain of the same distance, but Dave, who received the third pass, lost five yards. The pass that resulted in the touchdown was from Brown to Post and it sailed 14 yards before crossing the goal line. Brown converted the point. Franklin deserved to win. Throughout the entire first half they were defending their goal in its shadows. Lincoln being on the offensive practically all the time. Three times the Cardinals tried place kicks, but each was a feeble effort.

Put Up a Great Struggle.

In the last period, the Cardinals put up a great struggle, but they were lacking and they lacked the punch in the punch. Lincoln's last chance was lost when Hadley broke up a forward pass. Brown, who put the Cardinals within scoring distance, the pass was from Preston Holt, but just as Buck Hicks was about to receive the ball he collided with Badley, who was the last man to touch the ball. It glanced off into the hands of Klein. The pass was ruled incomplete by Umpire Pratt and Head Linesman Pensternmacher. The Lincoln players were disappointed at the ruling and did not fail to make known the fact by their actions and words.

The actions of Smith, one of the Lincoln back players, were such that he should have been ruled off the field. Referee Sturiburg came near chasing him out during the last period and if such had been the case the match would have been ruled out for the season.

Post, besides scoring the touchdown, gave Frank the game, played a brilliant game on the defensive. Time after time he broke up Lincoln's pass by his brilliant and spectacular tackling. Davis, Barber, Powell and Peake showed up in great style for the Cardinals, while Hicks started alone for the Cardinals on the defense. Herd Campbell and Lipman were Lincoln's stars on the defensive, although the youthful Simmons of Franklin put up a stubborn resistance.

The Line-Up.

AUSTRALIAN BOXERS AS HOME BUILDERS

Rest Days Send Scrappers to Woods to Clear Brush and Build Houses.

Even the pugilists in Australia are "doing their bit" to aid the mother country in war. The ranks of the squared circle clan have given many soldiers to England, and these who are not serving at the front are aiding at home.

American and Australian boxers, most of whom are under the management of Snowy Baker, are now building homes for the returned, wounded and incapacitated soldiers. The boxers, as a class, have gone into this work with the bricklayers, carpenters, taxidors and, in fact, all trades and professions.

On every Sunday and holiday each trade sends a delegation to one of the government tracts which have been turned over to the wounded soldiers, and helps in the erection of homes. The boxers in Sydney have been working in "French's Forest" about 15 miles out of the city. In July they had their first house well under way and the name "Darcy" had been chosen for it. Other houses are planned and the street of houses and call it "Pistic Avenue."

Among the fighters who are engaged in the work are Les Darcy, Herb McCoy, Dave Smith, Colin Bell, Jimmy Hill, Buck Crossie, Jimmy Chubb, Fred Watson, Eddie May and a host of lesser known pugilists.

Tribute Is Paid Former Portland Player Now With the Dodgers.

By H. C. Hamilton.

Los Angeles, Oct. 14.—(U. P.)—Why is it that rooting for the Angels has dropped off, while the support of the Oaks has markedly increased at Washington park this week? A champion fan was asked.

"Very simple," replied the rooster, who has not missed a game in three seasons. "Los Angeles wants a world's series all its own. If the Angels drop a few games and the Vernon Tigers pick up a few, so only a few points separate both teams when they clash in the first series of the season, October 24-29, Frank Chance and Ham Patterson will just naturally be in a class with Wilbert Robinson and Bill Carrigan and Washington park will become a second 'Braves' field."

BOSTON PLAYERS GET THEIR COIN; $3,826.25 A PIECE

Dodgers Go Through Painful Process of Dividing $65,170 Real Money.

Boston, Oct. 14.—(U. P.)—Bill Carrigan, manager of the world's champion Red Sox yesterday received a check for $37,584.47—the Boston players' share of the world's series melon. Carrigan deposited the check and made out 25 of his own to the players eligible, each man receiving $328.24. The remainder of the Sox' share was divided among the other five players, Wagner, Walsh, Penneck, Wyckoff and Gregg. Wagner and Gregg received three fourths of a share each, Wyckoff and Penneck a half share each and Walsh received $1000.

Bill Carrigan himself gets a regular player's share and the five remaining players divide the amount in an arbitrary manner, determined upon by the players themselves at a meeting. "Goose" Leg, George Foster of the Red Sox staff, announced after he received his share that he was through with baseball and would devote his time to his farm in Bokoshe, Okla. President Lamm has flatly stated there was no truth in the report that he was to sell the club. He refused to make any statement regarding the dismissal of secretary Riley, who was given $500 of the players cut, as also was Trainer Green.

Dodgers Also Divide Money.

Brooklyn, Oct. 12.—(U. P.)—Twenty-four Dodgers yesterday went through the painful process of dividing $65,170, the losers' end of the world's series coin that went to the players. Wheeler Dell, Ed Appleton, Gus Getz and Ollie O'Mara received sums slightly smaller than their brother Dodgers, but each walked away richer by about $2700.

The players, having been frowned upon by the national commission at the mention of a barnstorming tour, were hastily disbanded and left for vacation trips or for home.
