

NO SIGN OF END OF WAR VISIBLE, SAYS OBSERVER

Germany Wants Peace Now, in Belief She is Nearer Victory Than Any Belligerent Will Get in Future.

GREAT BRITAIN JUST WAKING TO SITUATION

Recent French Action Shows That Country is Far From Exhaustion.

(After more than four months spent in South America and Europe, Roy W. Howard, president of the United Press, returned to New York today. While in Europe, he obtained from the leaders in England, France and Germany their views on the war and the chances of peace. Though most of the statements made to him were made under a pledge that they would be no direct quotations, they furnish basis for the conclusions reached in the following article. Howard is one of the very few neutrals permitted to visit the opposing belligerents during the past year.)

By Roy W. Howard. New York, Nov. 4.—(U. P.)—Nowhere, either in England, France or Germany, is there the slightest evidence yet of an approaching end of the war. In no country is there any indication that the struggle can be terminated within the next two years. There are innumerable indications that the end is much farther off. Lord Northcliffe, who more often probably than any other man has correctly forecast the war's developments, is now urging the British to make no calculations based upon peace within five years. Although pushing their offensive on the Somme with great vigor, the British land forces will not have attained full fighting strength before next summer. The idea current in Germany that France is too nearly exhausted to continue the war is not supported by any of the evidence.

Disapproves Move To Turn Catholics Against President

Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston, after reading articles in the New York World regarding the reported move to turn Catholics in Wisconsin and Indiana against the reelection of President Wilson, issued the following statement: "It has come to my attention that some of the daily papers allude to an organized propaganda among Catholics in the middle west against one of the candidates for the presidency, assuming that this propaganda is carried on with the knowledge and tacit approval of the American cardinals. 'For my part, I know absolutely nothing of such political movement among Catholics anywhere in the United States, and if by any chance such unwarranted political activity existed, I should most heartily disapprove it.'

Chicago Pastor Gives Reasons for His Views

Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones Declares Strongly for Re-election of President.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, the eminent Chicago pastor, politically an Independent, has written a letter to Gifford Pinchot, setting forth his reasons for supporting President Wilson. This serves as an answer to a letter from Pinchot, which the latter asked to have printed in Unity, a publication edited by Jones.

The Chicago minister expresses his reasons for voting for Wilson in these words: "Whatever the faults of President Wilson may be, he has maintained the academic dignity of a man of thought. If not through his word and work, then through those of his rivals, he has brought the eight-hour day to the front and greatly hastened its advance. He has lifted the child of the cotton mills and elsewhere out of its crippling slavery."

"He has incurred the displeasure and distrust of the capitalistic crowds who know of no higher appeal to the American voter than the argument of a 'full dinner pail,' and who in the face of these high issues are striving to inject into the campaign the obsolete clamor of 'tariff protection,' which as a political party issue is an added drag on the last year's bird's nest. The intelligent in all parties agree that tariff intricacies can only be settled by a non-partisan tariff commission of experts, devoting themselves perpetually to the study of the problems involved."

BUDGET AXE IS AGAIN SWUNG AND GENERAL SLASHING IS ORDERED

Five Per Cent Additional Reduction in All Departments Edict of Three.

Fearing that Commissioners Daly and Bigelow, whose 1917 budget estimates are already thousands of dollars less than amounts appropriated for the present year, would attempt to make reductions in the departments where the estimates for 1917 exceed the present year's appropriations, Mayor Albee and Commissioners Baker and Dieck, in charge of the estimates, yesterday afternoon ordered a 5 per cent reduction in the totals for all departments.

This means that the estimates of Commissioners Daly and Bigelow, already cut to the minimum and far below present year's appropriations, will be reduced still further and that the estimates of Mayor Albee and Commissioner Baker and Dieck will be a few exceptions, will be practically the same as allowed for the present year.

Economy Is Aim. The action of the three was the first real step in the interests of economy that Mayor Albee and Commissioners Baker and Dieck have taken since the budget estimates have been under consideration. Commissioners Daly and Bigelow had led the fight for reductions in the estimates.

Up until yesterday, Mayor Albee and Commissioner Baker had not taken the initiative in a single instance to make eliminations in the estimates, and it is probable that they would not have taken the action they did yesterday if it had not been that they heard of the action of the other two.

Scappoose Man Is Killed by Horse

First intimation of an accident came when the horse came riding into the city. Search was started and Davis' body was found about a quarter of a mile away. His neck was broken. Davis had been rounding up some cattle.

A son, Wallace Davis, business college student, also survives. Dr. Roger Biswell of Halbes is a brother-in-law. Robert C. Chrisman, formerly manager of the Ford hot Portland, is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Davis.

Notice of funeral will be made later.

AUSTRIANS' LOSS IN RESISTING DRIVE OF ITALIANS IS 25,000

Furious Fighting Has Been Program for Four Past Days.

Rome, Nov. 4.—(U. P.)—Twenty-five thousand Austrian soldiers were killed, wounded or captured in the first four days of General Cadorna's new sweep on Trieste.

No offensive on the Austro-Italian front since the beginning of the war has been marked by such fierce fighting. Battling in the Carso mountain lands, Italians and Austrians have met in hand to hand struggles that have continued for some five or six days.

An especially furious combat preceded the capture of the Veliki hill by the Italians. The summit was captured by the Italians after a bitter struggle that drew a semi-circle of fire against the base of Veliki and prevented Cadorna's men from advancing in frontal attack.

Several small Italian detachments, under cover of darkness, reached the slopes on the sides of Veliki, outside this fire zone. Without waiting for reinforcements they scaled the sides, surprised the enemy, and after a brief encounter with bayonets and daggers, captured the Austrian battery. The victors signalled news of their success by firing a salvo of three shells.

A wider field of college activities is now promised.

Twenty-Eight Are Entombed by an Explosion

Frantic Efforts Made to Save Bodies; Little Hope for Men.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 4.—(I. N. S.)—Twenty-eight men are entombed in the Bessemer mines of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel & Iron company, about 20 miles west of Birmingham, as a result of an explosion that occurred around 3 o'clock this morning.

More than half of the men in the mines are white. Two dead were brought to the surface shortly after 3 o'clock. The bodies were so badly mangled that it was impossible to tell whether they were white or black.

Rescuers are working frantically to reach the bodies before the gas and other elements would make identification impossible.

At the office of the Sloss-Sheffield company, owners of the property, it was stated that about 25 of the employees had come out before the explosion.

Federal mine rescuers stated that it is practically certain they are dead, as no human remains have been recovered.

Volunteer rescue squads are being rushed here from other mines.

WILSON WILL CARRY STATE, SAFE MARGIN, CHAMBERLAIN'S VIEW

Senior Senator, Returning from a Trip Over State, Says Sentiment Is Strong.

After a campaign trip through all the counties of Oregon lying along railway lines Senator Chamberlain returned to Portland last night confident that President Wilson will carry the state by a safe majority.

"I found Wilson sentiment strong in southern Oregon and support rapidly veering to the president but in eastern Oregon I found the sentiment for Wilson even stronger and growing fast," said Senator Chamberlain.

Asked to what he attributed this strength, he answered: "The splendid business and financial conditions prevailing in Oregon and the country generally; second, to the unflinching confidence the people have in Wilson's confidence; and third, to my brilliant diplomatic victories, his able handling of difficult situations which has kept this country from becoming embroiled in either world or in the titanic European struggle."

Questions for Hughes. "It is a fact that people generally in Oregon are asking the questions put to Hughes the other day by the 29 prominent business men of the country. That is, would Hughes, if elected, carry out his threat to wipe all the constructive legislation of this administration off the statute books and what would be the result of his achievement in the field of diplomacy?"

Senators Chamberlain and Lane will be the speakers at a final Wilson rally to be held at the Armory Monday night.

McMinnville College Raises Endowment

Lancaster Locates Jackson Boulevard

Samuel C. Lancaster, highway engineer, returned last night from Coos bay, where he did the preliminary work of locating between Marshfield and Coos bay a road which would connect the district call the "Jackson boulevard."

"The road will be about three miles long. It will have great value, both scientifically and industrially, and constitute probably the most direct route between the two thriving cities of Coos bay," said Mr. Lancaster.

"It was very fortunate that I went when I did, for I found that property lines were being run in a way to interfere seriously with the road if located in accordance with its possibilities. The 'Jackson boulevard' will lead from the heart of one city to the other. It will take in both the scenic upland between the communities and provide access to the fishing grounds."

Mr. Lancaster went to Coos bay at the instance of C. S. Jackson, who was inspired with the possibilities of the drive upon the occasion of a recent visit. There is much enthusiasm among the people of Coos bay about it.

RE-ELECTION IS GOOD AS WON, MESSAGES SAY

Veritable Avalanche of Telegrams from Wilson Campaign Lieutenants in All States Herald Victory.

REDUCED MAJORITIES IN NEW JERSEY PREDICTED

Managers in Middle West Say President Will Carry Their States.

By Stuart Godwin.

Shadow Lawn, N. J., Nov. 4.—(I. N. S.)—A veritable avalanche of telegrams poured in all day from Wilson campaign lieutenants in all parts of the country, all assuring the president-elect that his reelection is as good as won. From every state in the Union came messages of good cheer and heralding certain Democratic victory at the polls next Tuesday.

Senator Walsh of Montana, western campaign manager, wired that "North and South Dakota and Illinois were sure for Wilson."

Democratic managers in Nebraska predicted a majority of 20,000 for the Democratic ticket there. It was predicted that the president would run ahead of his ticket.

Senator Thomas Taggart telegraphed that "Indiana is safe in the Democratic column. One of the Democratic Congressmen James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, who has been touring New Jersey, says that the majorities in the Republican strongholds will be greatly reduced."

John M. Parker, who was nominated for vice president by the Progressives, and who is supporting the Democratic ticket, and Albert D. Norton, one of the Progressive leaders of Missouri, wired:

"Permit me to extend congratulations in advance on your re-election, which appears assured. Progressive and other middle and western states coming strong to your support and elements of landslide appearing. The elements of a landslide are appearing in Michigan."

"The president will carry West Virginia by a safe majority," wired C. W. Watson, national committeeman of that state. Campaign managers made similar predictions regarding Ohio and Wisconsin.

Vance McCormick, chairman of the national committee, is expected here today to confer with President Wilson, and other campaign managers, forecasts which is expected to be made by the chairman tomorrow.

The president will leave Thursday night for Williamsport, Mass., to attend the christening of his granddaughter, baby Sayre, Friday. From there he will go directly to Washington.

BIG DEALS IN REALTY CLOSED IN PORTLAND IN PAST 24 HOURS

One large deal and two leases, of considerable item, were closed during the last 24 hours, making the week one of importance in the real estate market, despite the fact that election is supposed to have a dampening effect on deals.

One of the largest of several months was the one closed yesterday by Stanley S. Thompson, involving an aggregate realty of $1,000 over a period of 10 years. The main floor, full basement and mezzanine floor of the building on Fourth street, between Washington and Stark, now occupied by the Fourth Street Department store, was leased to the Lewis-Stenger Barber Supply company by the Bates Real Estate company, which has charge of the property.

The space leased contains, approximately 12,500 square feet, 5000 in the basement, 8000 on the main floor and 2500 on the mezzanine floor.

The deal begins January 15, when in the lease of the company now occupying the premises expires, and the Lewis-Stenger company will move from its present quarters in the Tilton building to the new quarters at Washington street, which is being converted into its new quarters after making extensive alterations that will cost $50,000.

That will become of the space vacated by the Lewis-Stenger company in the Tilton building is at present problematical, but it is known that the upper floors of the building, together with the intervening building, have been offered to the deal by the Seward hotel for extension purposes.

It is also reported that L. Wallingford, manager of one of the Ford agencies in the city and now located at Ninth and Everett streets, has taken a lease for a one-story building at Sixteenth and Alder streets, containing 8000 square feet of space.

The largest cash sale for some time in the city was the deal just being closed today, whereby the Clark-Wilson Lumber company acquire title to the Flanders building at Tenth and Washington streets, which is being converted into a one-story building, containing 100 by 100 feet on the northwest corner and is five stories in height.

Boss Penrose's Plot Is Exposed Seeks to Swing Labor Vote Oregonian Publishes Fake

Story of Fake Resolution Printed Here by Oregonian and Telegram. Secret Activities of Frank Feeney of Philadelphia Are Made Public.

New York, Nov. 4.—The secret activities of Frank Feeney of Philadelphia, an erstwhile agent under Boss Penrose for the Republican national committee in its attempt to obtain Hughes' endorsements from labor bodies in the east and middle west were exposed today.

Feeney has been for years the labor agent and political tool of the notorious Penrose-McNichol machine in Philadelphia. He is president of the Mayor's Construction union. The Hughes managers are dealing with him through Senator Boies Penrose and Feeney comes to New York to report directly to Penrose.

This story was branded as an absolute fake and by John Fitzpatrick, president, and E. N. Nockles, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and by J. H. Walker, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor, in telegrams received by E. J. Stack, secretary of the Oregon Federation of Labor, and the Portland Central Labor council. The full text of these telegrams is as follows:

At Senator Penrose's office in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel a secretary said over the telephone on Wednesday that Feeney was due there the following day and told a questioner to "call up tomorrow" if he wished to get in touch with Feeney.

MEXICAN CHIEFTAIN, BOY AND INDIAN DIE FACING FIRING SQUAD

Colonel Garcia Declares He Was Compelled to Join the Villistas.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 4.—(U. P.)—Colonel Rosario Garcia, Villista leader, and two of his followers were executed today before facing the firing squad, Garcia made a long speech declaring he was not a Villista but a constitutionalist and that he had joined the movement to save his family. One of the bandits was a boy only 17 years old.

Shortly after dawn the three men, tied together in ropes, were silently marched up the long hill to the famous execution place in a desolate cemetery on top of a hill back of town. Only a small group of men, some armed and some unarmed, from neighboring houses witnessed the executions.

The motley group slouched out in front of the adobe houses, where more than 200 executions have taken place since the Mexican revolutions began. The captain of the guard handed Garcia his death warrant to sign. He read it aloud and set down in the sand to sign it on his knee. The two other men sat down and the boy began to sob quietly. After signing the death warrant, Garcia wrote a long letter. Some of the firing squad became tired.

FOREIGN POLICY UP TO PEOPLE, SAYS PRESIDENT

Question Too Large and Serious, Wilson Declares, to Serve as Material for "Party Fun" in Campaign.

NEW JERSEY DAY IS OCCASION OF ADDRESS

Change in Procedure With Foreign Powers Feared by Public.

By Robert J. Bender.

Long Branch, N. J., Nov. 4.—(U. P.)—Expressing amazement that "men calling themselves statesmen" could discuss America's international affairs when "the whole world is lurid with the flames of a terrible conflagration," President Wilson belabored Republican leaders in his final speech of the campaign this afternoon.

In his speech on New Jersey day at Shadow Lawn, he denounced the making of "party fun" and political capital out of the American foreign policy at this time.

"We are now in the drift of humanity which is to determine the future welfare of the world," he said, "and it does not seem to some gentlemen, looking backward over their shoulders, to say what we should have done."

"Is it timely to think of party politics and how we have voted in the past? Is it right to think American, in this new world, is to mean the same as it has meant in the past?"

G. O. P. VICE CHAIRMAN IN WASHINGTON QUILTS TO JOIN WILSON CAMP

Li Roy Slater, Spokane, Says: "Hughes Tool in Hands of Same Old Rotten Gang."

L. Roy Slater of Spokane, first assistant chairman of the Republican state committee for Washington and chairman of the Republican county committee for Spokane, has resigned his offices with the Hughes committee and announced he will vote for Woodrow Wilson.

The first assistant chairman he had charge of the Hughes campaign in the eastern part of Washington. The state chairman has his headquarters in Seattle. But Mr. Slater became convinced that Hughes was the hands of the same old reactionary crowd of politicians which the Progressives fought at Chicago in 1912 and in 1916.

Mr. Slater was a delegate to the Republican national convention in 1912 and went with Roosevelt into the Progressive party. He followed the color line in 1912 and 1916, and was given a place high in the affairs of the party organization.

Norman S. Richards of Portland, also a Progressive, wrote Slater a letter of commendation for his action in declaring for Wilson. Mr. Slater wrote in reply:

"Spokane, Wash., Nov. 1, 1916.—Norman S. Richards, Portland, Or.: 'My Dear Richards: Glad to get your commendation of my course in the political world. It took a little courage for me to come out for Wilson. I am naturally a Republican, but I know Wilson is the only progressive running and that Hughes is just a tool in the hands of the same old rotten gang of politicians that we have been fighting for the last 10 years.'

"It looks as though Washington would go for Wilson. The betting here is even money on Wilson to carry the state, two to one that he carries Spokane county."

"Very truly yours, 'L. ROY SLATER.'"
