

BOSS RULE BETS, NOT CREDIT SYSTEM, SAYS THE PRESIDENT

Smashes Hard at Methods Employed to Gain Defeat of Administration.

FINAL APPEAL IS VOICED

World Is No Longer an Issue in Present Presidential Campaign, Chief Executive Asserts in Address.

The inspiration and impulse which is to come not only to the United States but to the whole world next Tuesday.

New Jersey Situation Bodes.

The president said in part:

"I must say that it has been very hard in recent weeks not to take off my coat and get into the fight that is now developing in this state in the effort to renege in power the men whom we routed six years ago and held up to reprobation and contempt of all lovers of just and true government, because it is apt to stir the blood very hotly to see these men trying to get into power again. We have heard a great deal of talk in condemnation of invisible government."

"Invisible government never existed in more hateful form than it has existed in past years in this state of New Jersey."

"When I see this unblushing, this impudent attempt to renege these forces without any concealment of any kind, do you wonder that I would like to get out again and denounce the whole crowd as I know them?"

Kept Promise to State.

"You remember that six years ago, when I was running for governor in this state, it was said that I was a schoolmaster. I had to admit it, because it was so; but I told them that I was running as a schoolmaster on a business understanding. That the business of a schoolmaster is to get the best out of all who come under his hand, and to find out everything he could and tell all he knew about it; and promised them that if I was elected, I would find out everything I could about the men who were running for governor and tell them all about it. I did find it out. I did tell them, and if they have not forgotten the lesson, they turn with reprobation and contempt away from the men who are trying to establish the things which they then destroyed."

"It is delightful to fight the things that are wrong. It is a high duty to do something that is worth hitting and destroying. The only thing that is disappointing in contests of this sort is that these fellows dodge and do not get hit. They sneak and will not reveal their purposes."

No Stable Issue Set Forth.

"But after all, my fellow citizens, the thing that is being attempted in New Jersey is only part of what is being attempted in the United States and being attempted in the United States with more and more transparency of purpose. Look how the campaign has gone. First of all, an attempt to set up some kind of handsome issue. Not a very interesting attempt, because the issue was a new one every week. As soon as you approached what was said to be the issue, it seemed to fade and disappear and there was nothing for you to grasp or grapple with. And after finding that the search for an issue was in vain, they came down once more to the only thing they have in recent years ever known how to talk about and that was the protective tariff."

"They know perfectly well that all these pretenses about the protective tariff have been torn away, not by the victory of Democratic speakers, but by the patent demonstrations of fact. They know that the workmen of this country have been deceived for a little while, but they cannot be deceived all the time."

Protection Did Not Aid Labor.

"They know just as well as we know that the industries in which the highest wages were paid in the last protected industries. That is a matter of record."

"Not only that, they know that in some of the most highly protected industries the conditions under which the laboring people lived were a disgrace to our civilization."

"And now, when we are asked to determine the issue, they are turning away from the country with arms, but they are attempting to deceive the country with arms."

"They are attempting to deceive the country with arms, but they are attempting to deceive the country with arms."

"They are attempting to deceive the country with arms, but they are attempting to deceive the country with arms."

"They are attempting to deceive the country with arms, but they are attempting to deceive the country with arms."

President Wilson Stands for America

By George Cress.

The Wilson administration stands clean before the people.

Not a scandal soils it. There have been no Ballinger cases, no "Dear Harriman" letters, no Wall Street scandals, no Federal Coal and Iron company mergers, no "whitewashes," no tariff lobby disgrace.

From first to last, Woodrow Wilson has been the open, accepted and responsible head of government. Not even in the heat of the campaign has it been charged that he has controlled him, or that his decisions have been influenced by corrupt considerations.

Not only has it been an honest administration, but it has been a clean and dignified as well. For four years we have had a president whose days have not been given over to strenuous insistence that the "other fellow" was a liar.

For three months, while Hughes and Roosevelt have dipped into the gutter for their names or indulged in a single personality, holding fast to principles and issues.

Out of it all, just three specific complaints have been lodged against him:

1—The eight hour day law.

2—That he has not severed diplomatic relations with England.

3—That he has not severed diplomatic relations with England.

The eight hour day averted a strike that would have entailed incalculable disaster.

Honest neutrality—the steadfast refusal to "play favorites"—has kept the United States at peace, maintained international law, and saved the European struggle from becoming a world war.

It is America that this man stands for—the America of progress, peace, justice and brotherhood.

A vote against him is a vote against America.

These men are not their own masters and dare vote as they think; and at last I think the American laborer is awake.

Labor Judges Deeds, Not Words.

"He at last judges his friends by what they do and not by what they say," said a schoolmaster. I had to admit it, because it was so; but I told them that I was running as a schoolmaster on a business understanding. That the business of a schoolmaster is to get the best out of all who come under his hand, and to find out everything he could and tell all he knew about it; and promised them that if I was elected, I would find out everything I could about the men who were running for governor and tell them all about it. I did find it out. "It is delightful to fight the things that are wrong. It is a high duty to do something that is worth hitting and destroying. The only thing that is disappointing in contests of this sort is that these fellows dodge and do not get hit. They sneak and will not reveal their purposes."
