TOWN TOPICS

Dr. Bishop Installed.—Formal installation of Dr. Arthur F. Bishop into the pastorate of Central Presbyterian church took place last night. Rev. Dr. S. W. Seemann, moderator of the Presbytery, presided and delivered the charge to the new pastor. Rev. C. W. Hays charged the congregation, telling the members that the success of what is virtually a new church with a new preacher, depends on the cordiality of the support the members accord the pastor in his efforts to weld the society and extend its scope of influence. The sermon was delivered by Rev. J. M. Skinner, prayer offered by Rev. William Macleod and scriptures read by Rev. L. C. Grimes. A musical program was followed by a reception to Dr. Bishop.
Dr. Stansfield to Speak.—Dr. Joshua Stansfield's first address before the Portland business organization will be delivered tomorrow noon at the Multnomah hotel before the Progressive Business Men's club. Dr. Stansfield recently assumed his duties here as pastor of the First Methodist church. Frank B. Uphaw will serve as chairman of the day.
Addresses Vesper Service.—The vesper service of Laurelvood Congregational church on Sunday evening, November 13, was addressed by Superintendent L. R. Alderman, who gave an interesting and instructive talk on Portland's schools. The talk was illustrated with lantern slides, showing pupils at work and the teaching methods of both the graded and trade schools. The music was furnished by the Franklin high school glee club, under the direction of Professor Walsh. The club sang Gounod's "Send Out Thy Light" with creditable expression and precision of attack.

Next Lecture Thursday.—The last of Professor Putnam's lectures in the Thursday evening series at the Multnomah hotel, at 8:30, at the Art Museum. The subject is "Roman and Pompeian Art." The next lecture in the series will be by Miss Failing on "Early Christian Art." On Friday the third lecture in the series, "Artistic Problems of the Painter," will be given at 8. The subject is "Color."
Mazama Lecture Thursday.—Next Thursday evening, G. Jackson of the United States forest service will deliver a lecture on "The Work of the Forest Service" at the Mazama club-rooms in the North Hotel Bank building. Mazama and his friends are invited to attend at 8 p. m.
Mazama to Speak on "Forest"—"Forest" will be the subject of the lecture which will be given at 8:30 p. m. at the Turn Hall at 7 o'clock. Records of Caruso, Journet, Ruffo and Mmes. Homer and Farrar will be used to illustrate the lecture. Admission is free.

legislative expense was $33,000, appropriations for election expense amounted to $67,000 and the upkeep of the capitol building and grounds totaled $69,850. There were other very divergent incidental appropriations amounting to $116,925, by approximation.
Was Not Evenly Divided.
Had the total appropriation for the two years been evenly divided, there would have been $3,155,274 available for use in 1916, but more was spent in 1914 than in 1915, the total cost of the government for the present year amounting, in round numbers, to $3,471,876. This sum included $562,658 brought over from a former levy, together with the indirect income due from license fees and other such charges, amounting in approximate figures to $369,018, together totaling $921,676.
To arrive at a base for the appropriations possible under the operation of the tax limitation amendment it is virtually a new church with a new preacher, depends on the cordiality of the support the members accord the pastor in his efforts to weld the society and extend its scope of influence. The sermon was delivered by Rev. J. M. Skinner, prayer offered by Rev. William Macleod and scriptures read by Rev. L. C. Grimes. A musical program was followed by a reception to Dr. Bishop.

a total income available of about $3,064,554 for 1917.
The cost of government for 1916 amounted to $2,471,676, or $466,822 more than the total revenue that will be available for 1917 under the limitation amendment.
Somebody to Feel Pinch.
It will be possible, however, for the legislature to add 6 per cent of the direct levy of 1917 to the cost of government for 1918, which would amount to approximately $154,401, and thus permit the legislature to appropriate for the expenses of 1918 the sum of $2,850,063, or $252,591 less than the cost of government for 1916. To sum up the situation, it is apparent that the legislative appropriations of 1917-18 will have to be under a tax limitation amendment, some $759,000 less than for the biennium just past. Already institutions and departments of government have asked for sums approximately $320,000 in excess of what they received during the last two years, and the list has just begun to be compiled.
If the asylums, reform school, penitentiary, universities and other similar institutions are given even what they had during the past two years, the departments and commissions will have to be pared down to the tune of $759,000, and not given the increases they are asking for. If the departments are taken care of the institutions will be pinched. It is clear that somebody is going to be pinched, maybe entirely out of governmental existence.

TALLMAN CONFIDENT O. & C. GRANT LAW IS CONSTITUTIONAL

continued Commissioner Tallman. "I spent one day in the field, and found time to visit only one of the camps. I was seeking to learn the general character of the land and to get an idea of the timber from personal observation.
Work Is Progressing.
"The work of classification is progressing now better than at any time since it began. The working organization has been constantly improving. On November 1 the work of classifying between 700,000 and 750,000 acres had been completed.
"Next year, I predict, the work will be done better and proportionately cheaper than it is being done now, as the crews become more efficient and problems of transportation are solved." Commissioner Tallman said he had undertaken to settle the question of the value of the heavy timber in the northern part of the grant by giving instructions yesterday that it be cruised at once, the report to be in sufficient detail to be used as a basis in sales and purchases.
"By December 1, or as soon as the present assignments of the classifying crews are complete, the work of classification will be stopped for the winter to begin with renewed vigor next spring. "We will go right on with the classification which will be complete by the time the supreme court has finished reviewing the case," said Commissioner Tallman.
Greater Section Agricultural.
"It would be highly inadvisable to open the lands to entry before all questions as to title are settled; to do so would undoubtedly be cause of trouble both to the government and settlers."
"So far the work of classification shows that the greater portion of the grant lands are agricultural. But it would not be wise to get an exaggerated idea about the agricultural value of the lands. Some of the tracts classified as agricultural will be found chiefly valuable for grazing; other land might be rocky, and some of it is undoubtedly a good land as can be found in the country."

Commissioner Tallman spoke of the work that former Governor West is doing in connection with tax adjustments of lands within the various counties of the unlimited detail connected with this work and of the satisfactory progress that is being made. West reported that of 19 counties in which grant land tax adjustments were to be made, 10 counties have been completed and the rest should be finished by January 1.
Commissioner Tallman will probably be here until tomorrow when he will return to Washington.

Complaint Is That He Could Have Stopped I. W. W. in Time to Have Prevented Their Visit to Everett.
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 15.—(P. N. S.)—More than 100 representative citizens of Seattle are on record here today as the sponsors of an organization the aim of which will be to deplore the administration of Mayor H. C. Gill.
At a meeting in the Press club theatre, presided over by H. J. Ramsey, addresses were made denouncing Gill's attitude towards the complaint that he did nothing to stop the journey from here of some 300 I. W. W.'s who recently battled with citizens of Everett, near here.
The I. W. W.'s left here on a Sunday morning and it is the complaint of the hundred citizens that Gill could have stopped their chartered boats before they cleared the docks here.
