

OREGON'S FOOTBALL ELEVEN SELECTED TO MEET PENNSYLVANIA

State University Regarded as Best Team in Northwest by Pasadena People.

WILL ASSEMBLE, DEC. 27

Two Teams Will Be Guests of Tournament of Roses for Second Annual Intercollegiate Gridiron Contest.

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—At a meeting of the Tournament of Roses football committee yesterday afternoon, the University of Oregon football eleven was selected to meet the University of Pennsylvania team at Tournament Park, Pasadena, on New Year's day.

The selection was based on comparative scores as well as the general press comment of the strength of the teams in the northwest for the present season.

Tentative invitations were sent out to the University of Oregon, University of Washington, University of California, Oregon Aggies and Washington State. All were willing to come to Pasadena for the big game.

The graduate manager of athletics at Oregon, A. R. Tiffany, wrote to the Tournament of Roses committee and stated that Oregon would be very glad to play the University of Pennsylvania team. He further asserted that a special train would bring the Oregon team and a large number of rooters to Pasadena for the big contest.

The teams will arrive at Pasadena on December 27. Both teams will be guests of the Tournament of Roses committee.

Golden West Boxing Program Complete

The matching of Tex Knight and Carl Martin and Ed Olson and Shell McCool completes the card of the boxing smoker of the Golden West Athletic club to be staged Friday night in the Rose City Athletic gym.

Willa Ritchie, former lightweight champion of the world, who will meet Sid Mitchell in a four round bout at Seattle tomorrow night, worked out yesterday afternoon at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club with Jockey Bennett and Stanley Jones, his chief sparring partner.

Joe Swain may box Al Bommers, who is en route to Portland from North Dakota, in the main event of the Rose City smoker to be staged December 1. Billy Mascott may meet Joe Gorman on the same card.

Baum Throws Chill Into Chicago Cubs

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—California may not prove such a nice place to train the Cubs. President Weeghman, conversing with President Baum of the Pacific Coast league, has been politely informed that the Pacificers very probably won't allow Coast teams to play pre-season exhibitions with major league nines.

Major leagues will hold their annual meetings December 12, a thousand miles apart. The American league will convene at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, and the National league at the Waldorf in New York.

Thompson to Meet Condee. San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—George Thompson, the San Diego heavyweight fighter, will meet Johnny Condee of San Francisco at the Juana Sunday, December 3, under the auspices of Billy McMahon. They will travel 20 rounds. Condee will make the place of Frankie Ferron, whose hand was broken last week in San Francisco.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Jake Stahl, of the San Diego Rowing club, will fight Eddie Miller of San Francisco next Friday night at Britton's A. C. The men are lightweights.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Proposals to tax the Cubs and White Sox baseball clubs were made yesterday by Alderman Eugene H. Block.

The city needs the money. The tax might take the form of a percentage on gross receipts or a flat annual license fee, Block said.

"We've got to find some more revenue for Chicago," Block said. "One amusement which should be forced to pay a share of the cost of local government in return for the privileges it enjoys is professional baseball. We have two big professional clubs and neither pays anything to the city unless the passes handed out at the city hall are considered that way. But I am willing to pay when I go to a game. The two clubs take $500,000 a year from our citizens and some of that should go to the city."

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Revival of Derby days in Illinois is the hope of racing men attending a conference here yesterday. The conference called by the Businessmen's Association of Illinois, is said to have considered a bill which would revive horse racing in Illinois. The plan provides for a racing commission of three to be appointed by the governor.

License fees are provided for to pay the salaries, $5000 each, and the surplus is to go to the care of "orphans and foundlings of the state."

Betting would be legalized under the pari mutuel system and all bets would be posted. The bill, with some changes, will be submitted to the legislature.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Ritchie Mitchell, local lightweight, will take on any one of the following three: Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh, Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Welterweight Champion Jack Britton, he announced today. Mitchell said he would prefer to meet Kilbane first. Mitchell said his hand, which was injured recently, is rounding into shape.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Joe Thomas is in the hospital today suffering from concussion of the brain because Joe Rivers planted his famous right eye on the tip on his jaw in the third round of their scheduled 20-round bout here last night. Rivers was arrested pending developments. The blow landed Thomas on the mat with his feet in the air.

BRINGING UP FATHER

BAN JOHNSON IS IN FAVOR OF 3RD MAJOR LEAGUE

Opponent of Federal League Gives Baseball Shock; Preposterous.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Unexpected approval of the third major league idea came from Ban Johnson of the American league.

"I will not oppose a third major league," Johnson said. "I rather favor the idea."

This attitude of the man who fought the Federal league most bitterly was a big surprise to baseball fans. Talk recently of a third major league circuit launched by prominent men in present circuit are Baltimore, Buffalo, Newark, Toronto, Toledo, Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Louisville. The plan is to

ON THE ALLEYS

The following games were rolled last night on the Oregon Alleys:

Table with columns for player names and scores. Includes names like Meach, Pierce, McIntyre, Cohn, etc.

PREVIOUS SCORES OF YALE-HARVARD GAME

Table listing previous scores between Yale and Harvard from 1883 to 1915.

ROSENBLATT

Table listing scores for Rosenblatt.

BERGMANN SHOE CO.

Table listing scores for Bergmann Shoe Co.

COVEY MOTOR CAR CO.

Table listing scores for Covey Motor Car Co.

NORTHWEST AUTO CO.

Table listing scores for Northwest Auto Co.

MANLEY AUTO CO.

Table listing scores for Manley Auto Co.

H. L. KEATY AUTO CO.

Table listing scores for H. L. Keaty Auto Co.

C. L. BOSS

Table listing scores for C. L. Boss.

O. A. C. BUILDS BLEACHERS FOR SATURDAY MIX

Aggies Practice Hard for Annual Battle With State University.

Cross country run is on the schedule as an opener to the gridiron battle in the afternoon.

New York, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—George M. Church of Tenafly, N. J., and Harold Throckmorton of Elizabeth, N. J., will leave New York Thursday on a 15,000 mile trip to take part in Oriental tennis tournaments.

They will sail from Vancouver, B. C., Thanksgiving day and will return to this country about March 15. They are the first prominent players of the Washington game last year to take part in Oriental tennis tournaments.

Noted Turfman Dies At His Stock Ranch

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Francis J. Pons, well known turfman and breeder of thoroughbreds, died yesterday at his Madison Station stock farm near Nashville.

Mr. Pons had just returned from the Canadian west where he had been identified with the breeding of race horses and had promoted several meets. In later years he had devoted most of his time to breeding and his yearlings were much sought after.

Mitchell Wants to Box Three. Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Ritchie Mitchell, local lightweight, will take on any one of the following three: Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh, Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Welterweight Champion Jack Britton, he announced today.

Mitchell said he would prefer to meet Kilbane first. Mitchell said his hand, which was injured recently, is rounding into shape.

California Clears $20,000 in Game With Washington

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Saturday's football game with Washington was the most profitable gridiron contest California has ever played.

The total receipts were $24,700, which is $2000 more than the receipts of the Washington game last year. The net profit to Bears was $20,000, having been exceeded only by the last Stanford-California game which netted $21,205. Washington's guarantee was $2000.

California May Put Ban on Auto Racing

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

Chicago Solon Wants To Tax Cubs and Sox

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Proposals to tax the Cubs and White Sox baseball clubs were made yesterday by Alderman Eugene H. Block.

The city needs the money. The tax might take the form of a percentage on gross receipts or a flat annual license fee, Block said.

"We've got to find some more revenue for Chicago," Block said. "One amusement which should be forced to pay a share of the cost of local government in return for the privileges it enjoys is professional baseball. We have two big professional clubs and neither pays anything to the city unless the passes handed out at the city hall are considered that way. But I am willing to pay when I go to a game. The two clubs take $500,000 a year from our citizens and some of that should go to the city."

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Revival of Derby days in Illinois is the hope of racing men attending a conference here yesterday. The conference called by the Businessmen's Association of Illinois, is said to have considered a bill which would revive horse racing in Illinois.

The plan provides for a racing commission of three to be appointed by the governor. License fees are provided for to pay the salaries, $5000 each, and the surplus is to go to the care of "orphans and foundlings of the state."

Betting would be legalized under the pari mutuel system and all bets would be posted. The bill, with some changes, will be submitted to the legislature.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Ritchie Mitchell, local lightweight, will take on any one of the following three: Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh, Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Welterweight Champion Jack Britton, he announced today.

Mitchell said he would prefer to meet Kilbane first. Mitchell said his hand, which was injured recently, is rounding into shape.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

MULTNOMAH HAS NEW INCENTIVE TO BEAT OREGON

Game With Olympic Club Depends on Showing Upon Thanksgiving Day.

Upon the showing of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club football team in the Turkey Day contest against the University of Oregon depends whether or not the "Winged M" team will clash with the Olympic club team of San Francisco here December 9.

This decision was reached at the meeting of the directors of the club last night. Against the Whitman college team, the rejuvenated club eleven made a wonderful showing. The players have been working hard for the contest with the Willamette university next Saturday afternoon, 19 of them reporting for practice Sunday morning and 17 turning out for gym practice last night.

Bill Knibb, captain of the famous Dartmouth team of 1903, which defeated both Yale and Harvard that season, will assist Coach "Spec" Hupbert for the balance of the season. Knibbs was coach of the University of California team before it switched to rugby.

Despite the fact that Johnny Parsons has been barred from participating in college games for the balance of this season, the Multnomah club will not protest his playing in the Thanksgiving Day battle.

Stahl Will Fight Miller. San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Jake Stahl, of the San Diego Rowing club, will fight Eddie Miller of San Francisco next Friday night at Britton's A. C. The men are lightweights.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Joe Thomas is in the hospital today suffering from concussion of the brain because Joe Rivers planted his famous right eye on the tip on his jaw in the third round of their scheduled 20-round bout here last night. Rivers was arrested pending developments. The blow landed Thomas on the mat with his feet in the air.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Proposals to tax the Cubs and White Sox baseball clubs were made yesterday by Alderman Eugene H. Block.

The city needs the money. The tax might take the form of a percentage on gross receipts or a flat annual license fee, Block said.

"We've got to find some more revenue for Chicago," Block said. "One amusement which should be forced to pay a share of the cost of local government in return for the privileges it enjoys is professional baseball. We have two big professional clubs and neither pays anything to the city unless the passes handed out at the city hall are considered that way. But I am willing to pay when I go to a game. The two clubs take $500,000 a year from our citizens and some of that should go to the city."

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Revival of Derby days in Illinois is the hope of racing men attending a conference here yesterday. The conference called by the Businessmen's Association of Illinois, is said to have considered a bill which would revive horse racing in Illinois.

The plan provides for a racing commission of three to be appointed by the governor. License fees are provided for to pay the salaries, $5000 each, and the surplus is to go to the care of "orphans and foundlings of the state."

Betting would be legalized under the pari mutuel system and all bets would be posted. The bill, with some changes, will be submitted to the legislature.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Ritchie Mitchell, local lightweight, will take on any one of the following three: Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh, Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Welterweight Champion Jack Britton, he announced today.

Mitchell said he would prefer to meet Kilbane first. Mitchell said his hand, which was injured recently, is rounding into shape.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Joe Thomas is in the hospital today suffering from concussion of the brain because Joe Rivers planted his famous right eye on the tip on his jaw in the third round of their scheduled 20-round bout here last night. Rivers was arrested pending developments. The blow landed Thomas on the mat with his feet in the air.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Proposals to tax the Cubs and White Sox baseball clubs were made yesterday by Alderman Eugene H. Block.

The city needs the money. The tax might take the form of a percentage on gross receipts or a flat annual license fee, Block said.

"We've got to find some more revenue for Chicago," Block said. "One amusement which should be forced to pay a share of the cost of local government in return for the privileges it enjoys is professional baseball. We have two big professional clubs and neither pays anything to the city unless the passes handed out at the city hall are considered that way. But I am willing to pay when I go to a game. The two clubs take $500,000 a year from our citizens and some of that should go to the city."

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Revival of Derby days in Illinois is the hope of racing men attending a conference here yesterday. The conference called by the Businessmen's Association of Illinois, is said to have considered a bill which would revive horse racing in Illinois.

The plan provides for a racing commission of three to be appointed by the governor. License fees are provided for to pay the salaries, $5000 each, and the surplus is to go to the care of "orphans and foundlings of the state."

Betting would be legalized under the pari mutuel system and all bets would be posted. The bill, with some changes, will be submitted to the legislature.

California Clears $20,000 in Game With Washington

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Saturday's football game with Washington was the most profitable gridiron contest California has ever played.

The total receipts were $24,700, which is $2000 more than the receipts of the Washington game last year. The net profit to Bears was $20,000, having been exceeded only by the last Stanford-California game which netted $21,205. Washington's guarantee was $2000.

California May Put Ban on Auto Racing

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

Chicago Solon Wants To Tax Cubs and Sox

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Proposals to tax the Cubs and White Sox baseball clubs were made yesterday by Alderman Eugene H. Block.

The city needs the money. The tax might take the form of a percentage on gross receipts or a flat annual license fee, Block said.

"We've got to find some more revenue for Chicago," Block said. "One amusement which should be forced to pay a share of the cost of local government in return for the privileges it enjoys is professional baseball. We have two big professional clubs and neither pays anything to the city unless the passes handed out at the city hall are considered that way. But I am willing to pay when I go to a game. The two clubs take $500,000 a year from our citizens and some of that should go to the city."

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Revival of Derby days in Illinois is the hope of racing men attending a conference here yesterday. The conference called by the Businessmen's Association of Illinois, is said to have considered a bill which would revive horse racing in Illinois.

The plan provides for a racing commission of three to be appointed by the governor. License fees are provided for to pay the salaries, $5000 each, and the surplus is to go to the care of "orphans and foundlings of the state."

Betting would be legalized under the pari mutuel system and all bets would be posted. The bill, with some changes, will be submitted to the legislature.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Ritchie Mitchell, local lightweight, will take on any one of the following three: Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh, Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Welterweight Champion Jack Britton, he announced today.

Mitchell said he would prefer to meet Kilbane first. Mitchell said his hand, which was injured recently, is rounding into shape.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Joe Thomas is in the hospital today suffering from concussion of the brain because Joe Rivers planted his famous right eye on the tip on his jaw in the third round of their scheduled 20-round bout here last night. Rivers was arrested pending developments. The blow landed Thomas on the mat with his feet in the air.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Proposals to tax the Cubs and White Sox baseball clubs were made yesterday by Alderman Eugene H. Block.

The city needs the money. The tax might take the form of a percentage on gross receipts or a flat annual license fee, Block said.

"We've got to find some more revenue for Chicago," Block said. "One amusement which should be forced to pay a share of the cost of local government in return for the privileges it enjoys is professional baseball. We have two big professional clubs and neither pays anything to the city unless the passes handed out at the city hall are considered that way. But I am willing to pay when I go to a game. The two clubs take $500,000 a year from our citizens and some of that should go to the city."

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Revival of Derby days in Illinois is the hope of racing men attending a conference here yesterday. The conference called by the Businessmen's Association of Illinois, is said to have considered a bill which would revive horse racing in Illinois.

The plan provides for a racing commission of three to be appointed by the governor. License fees are provided for to pay the salaries, $5000 each, and the surplus is to go to the care of "orphans and foundlings of the state."

Betting would be legalized under the pari mutuel system and all bets would be posted. The bill, with some changes, will be submitted to the legislature.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Ritchie Mitchell, local lightweight, will take on any one of the following three: Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh, Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Welterweight Champion Jack Britton, he announced today.

Mitchell said he would prefer to meet Kilbane first. Mitchell said his hand, which was injured recently, is rounding into shape.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

MULTNOMAH HAS NEW INCENTIVE TO BEAT OREGON

Game With Olympic Club Depends on Showing Upon Thanksgiving Day.

Upon the showing of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club football team in the Turkey Day contest against the University of Oregon depends whether or not the "Winged M" team will clash with the Olympic club team of San Francisco here December 9.

This decision was reached at the meeting of the directors of the club last night. Against the Whitman college team, the rejuvenated club eleven made a wonderful showing. The players have been working hard for the contest with the Willamette university next Saturday afternoon, 19 of them reporting for practice Sunday morning and 17 turning out for gym practice last night.

Bill Knibb, captain of the famous Dartmouth team of 1903, which defeated both Yale and Harvard that season, will assist Coach "Spec" Hupbert for the balance of the season. Knibbs was coach of the University of California team before it switched to rugby.

Despite the fact that Johnny Parsons has been barred from participating in college games for the balance of this season, the Multnomah club will not protest his playing in the Thanksgiving Day battle.

Stahl Will Fight Miller. San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Jake Stahl, of the San Diego Rowing club, will fight Eddie Miller of San Francisco next Friday night at Britton's A. C. The men are lightweights.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Joe Thomas is in the hospital today suffering from concussion of the brain because Joe Rivers planted his famous right eye on the tip on his jaw in the third round of their scheduled 20-round bout here last night. Rivers was arrested pending developments. The blow landed Thomas on the mat with his feet in the air.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Proposals to tax the Cubs and White Sox baseball clubs were made yesterday by Alderman Eugene H. Block.

The city needs the money. The tax might take the form of a percentage on gross receipts or a flat annual license fee, Block said.

"We've got to find some more revenue for Chicago," Block said. "One amusement which should be forced to pay a share of the cost of local government in return for the privileges it enjoys is professional baseball. We have two big professional clubs and neither pays anything to the city unless the passes handed out at the city hall are considered that way. But I am willing to pay when I go to a game. The two clubs take $500,000 a year from our citizens and some of that should go to the city."

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Revival of Derby days in Illinois is the hope of racing men attending a conference here yesterday. The conference called by the Businessmen's Association of Illinois, is said to have considered a bill which would revive horse racing in Illinois.

The plan provides for a racing commission of three to be appointed by the governor. License fees are provided for to pay the salaries, $5000 each, and the surplus is to go to the care of "orphans and foundlings of the state."

Betting would be legalized under the pari mutuel system and all bets would be posted. The bill, with some changes, will be submitted to the legislature.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Ritchie Mitchell, local lightweight, will take on any one of the following three: Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh, Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Welterweight Champion Jack Britton, he announced today.

Mitchell said he would prefer to meet Kilbane first. Mitchell said his hand, which was injured recently, is rounding into shape.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Joe Thomas is in the hospital today suffering from concussion of the brain because Joe Rivers planted his famous right eye on the tip on his jaw in the third round of their scheduled 20-round bout here last night. Rivers was arrested pending developments. The blow landed Thomas on the mat with his feet in the air.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Proposals to tax the Cubs and White Sox baseball clubs were made yesterday by Alderman Eugene H. Block.

The city needs the money. The tax might take the form of a percentage on gross receipts or a flat annual license fee, Block said.

"We've got to find some more revenue for Chicago," Block said. "One amusement which should be forced to pay a share of the cost of local government in return for the privileges it enjoys is professional baseball. We have two big professional clubs and neither pays anything to the city unless the passes handed out at the city hall are considered that way. But I am willing to pay when I go to a game. The two clubs take $500,000 a year from our citizens and some of that should go to the city."

Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Revival of Derby days in Illinois is the hope of racing men attending a conference here yesterday. The conference called by the Businessmen's Association of Illinois, is said to have considered a bill which would revive horse racing in Illinois.

The plan provides for a racing commission of three to be appointed by the governor. License fees are provided for to pay the salaries, $5000 each, and the surplus is to go to the care of "orphans and foundlings of the state."

Betting would be legalized under the pari mutuel system and all bets would be posted. The bill, with some changes, will be submitted to the legislature.

MULTNOMAH HAS NEW INCENTIVE TO BEAT OREGON

Game With Olympic Club Depends on Showing Upon Thanksgiving Day.

Upon the showing of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club football team in the Turkey Day contest against the University of Oregon depends whether or not the "Winged M" team will clash with the Olympic club team of San Francisco here December 9.

This decision was reached at the meeting of the directors of the club last night. Against the Whitman college team, the rejuvenated club eleven made a wonderful showing. The players have been working hard for the contest with the Willamette university next Saturday afternoon, 19 of them reporting for practice Sunday morning and 17 turning out for gym practice last night.

Bill Knibb, captain of the famous Dartmouth team of 1903, which defeated both Yale and Harvard that season, will assist Coach "Spec" Hupbert for the balance of the season. Knibbs was coach of the University of California team before it switched to rugby.

Despite the fact that Johnny Parsons has been barred from participating in college games for the balance of this season, the Multnomah club will not protest his playing in the Thanksgiving Day battle.

Stahl Will Fight Miller. San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Jake Stahl, of the San Diego Rowing club, will fight Eddie Miller of San Francisco next Friday night at Britton's A. C. The men are lightweights.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—(P. N. S.)—That a bill may be introduced at the next session of the legislature prohibiting automobile racing in the state is the subject of a conference of Los Angeles officials who left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a conference of automobile men and police chiefs.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Joe Thomas is in the hospital today suffering from concussion of the