

PERSONAL APPEAL TO BE MADE FOR AIDING WINTER RELIEF WORK

Public Welfare Bureau Announces Change in Plan of Financing Charities.

CIRCULAR IDEA DROPPED

New Scheme Designed to Obtain Budget With Less Expense and Annoyance to the General Public.

Public Welfare bureau, successor to Associated Charities, has changed its plan of financing winter relief work.

Under the old circularization plan some 30,000 names were elaborately filed; this number has been reduced to 5,000.

The change in plan is discussed in the seventh and last of the Public Welfare bureau's "Talks to the People" which reads as follows:

The Public Welfare bureau, 444 Courthouse, formerly associated Charities, 511 Commercial block, proposes to change its method of financing in order to raise its budget with less expense and with less annoyance to the public.

Information concerning the organization and progress of this committee's work, together with all other news concerning the bureau, will appear in the news columns of the papers from time to time.

In concluding this, the last of our series of letters, we wish to briefly restate our purposes:

To be genuinely helpful to the unfortunate of Portland. To be thoroughly efficient in administering the trust placed upon us by our contributors and friends.

Bureau is Non-Political. The Public Welfare Bureau is a non-political, non-sectarian, voluntary association of Portland citizens and friends, organized for the purpose of cooperating for your Portland and mine.

Boy Imprisoned in A Refrigerator Car

All night in a pitch dark and icy cold refrigerator car, with possibly the more horrible experience of remaining there while the car was being transported to some distant fruit shipping center, was the fate that Arthur Daulton, 12, of 361 East Broadway, narrowly avoided last night.

PIONEER CONTRACTOR OF PORTLAND IS DEAD AT AGE OF 67 YEARS

G. Zanello Had Constructed Many of Important Buildings and Stone Churches.

G. Zanello.

One of Portland's pioneer contractors, G. Zanello, died at his home, 373 Larch street, yesterday after a long illness.

The stone piers of the first Morrison bridge, works that defied shot after shot of dynamite in the contractor's efforts to tear them out for the new bridge, the first Portland water works on Palatine Hill, the first conduit to Bull Run, the court-house at Eugene, and a majority of the stone churches of the city, were just a few of the edifices which bore the name "G. Zanello & Sons" on the cornerstones.

Mr. Zanello was 67 years of age. He was of Italian birth, coming to America in 1872. His widow, Mrs. Eugenia Zanello, and four children, Ruth, Emmalita, Fred and John, the latter two of whom are carrying on his business, survive him.

The Portland Elks lodge, of which he was a member, are attending to the funeral arrangements.

Suspected Youth Is Taken Into Custody

When Ira Beard, 4138 Seventeenth avenue, S. E., saw a youth emerging from a window of an adjoining residence with a lunch basket on his arm he seized the boy and found that the basket contained bread and butter piping. The boy, who is but 16 years old, was taken in charge by Detectives Coleman and Snow and turned over to the juvenile court.

Sketch Near Fps Wood Is Left Alone When Knoll is Found to Be Machine Gun Nest; Defenders Are Out Off.

London, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Successful advance on a front of 3500 yards was announced in an official statement today.

"On Saturday morning," the report asserted, "our guns started a barrage fire against the trenches opposite the Canadian positions. Our troops leaped from the parapet. The German guns began a counter barrage fire, which was comparatively weak. Our forces had fewer casualties than could be expected."

"We advanced on a front of 3500 yards to a depth of from 200 to 1000 yards. Our whole objective was quickly consolidated and held except for a short stretch near Fps wood, where a knoll proved a machine gun nest. Our troops fell back and established themselves behind the crest. There the Germans occupied a trench. Our artillery cut them off.

"We exceeded our objective by five hundred yards, capturing a section of the Grandcourt trench, but we withdrew because it was in too dangerous a position.

"Our losses throughout were comparatively light. We took 37 officers and 457 other unrounded prisoners and 150 wounded men."

Raiding of enemy trenches at Grandcourt, Rocincourt and Ypres was reported by General Sir Douglas Haig, British commander-in-chief today.

His statement said the British lines had been heavily shelled by the Germans southwestward of Grandcourt. British forces captured a German night patrol.

Beaverton Home Wages Campaign

The St. Mary's Home for Boys at Beaverton has requested the people of Portland to prove that it is one of the three most popular charitable organizations in Oregon. Next Tuesday the merchants of the Greater Portland association are going to give votes to the Good Samaritan hospital last night, cents being equivalent to one vote.

The votes will then be cast by the customer for his or her favorite charitable organization, of which a score or more are competing for the prize of $500, to be awarded the three highest.

There are 140 boys between 6 and 16 in the home.
