FLOUR MARKET IS REALLY WEAK AT THE LOWER PRICES

IURKEY MARKET IS STILL THE MYSTERY OF WHOLESALE TRADE

sulk of Supplies Expected Sunday and Monday-No Set Price as Yet Named-Some Limited Trading at 28 to 29c Pound.

The furkey market remains a mystery along he wholesale way, with general sales around 50025c a pound for selected fancy birds, although some are still asking 30c, but are not ecciving it.

The fact of the matter is that the bulk of though some are still asking 30c, but are not receiving it.

The fact of the matter is that the bulk of the turkey supplies for Thanksgiving will not arrive until Sunday or Monday and the market then will not formally open in excess until then. Receipts of turkeys to date this week have been quite fair; in farmsomewhat better than expected so far as the volume of early arrivals is concerned. Some very good quality stock has come forward, but the bulk of the offerings have been either of poor quality or least fair.

al trade with inquiries for supplies and heavy satside shipments are likely tomorrow and Monday. In most instances sales to the out-ide were made with prices open—that is, the mies were made on the basis of whatever ELERY FIRMER IN SOUTH Market for celery is firmer and about 30c a crate higher in California. The local market is as yet unchanged but is very firm. An advance is generally expected here.

COTATO TRADE IS STEADY Trace in the potato market is steady so far as prices are concerned, although the local job-ing movement remains much restricted. Small volume of buying continues in the country at $1.45@1.50 for best.

ONIONS ARE NOT OFFERED Recause of their fnability to make delivthe car shortage, W. I. Swank, general representative of the Confederated Onion Growers' association, reports that no onions are being offered at the moment.

An Excited Trade and Limited Supply Bring High Marks

By Charles W. Storm. New York, Nov. 25 .- (1. N. S.)-There was OUALITY DRAWBACK

New York, Nov. 25.—(1. N. S.)—There was exciting trading in many atocks at the opening of the stock exchange today and a number of new high records were established. A large crowd of brokers was gathered in Utah copper, nearly all of whom had buying orders and as there was no supply in sight, the stock rose to 127 at the start, against 122% at the close yesterday. Later the trading became more orderly and the price reacted to 124%.

Movement to Market Is Very Heavy

But Most Receipts Are of Poor Quality and Demand Is Sluggish —East Is Holding Unchanged.

The copper shares shared in the upward movement, with Miami advancing 1½ points to 48, Anaconda 1½ points to 101%. Kennecott 113 points to 30% and American Smelling a point to 120%.

The local apple market situation continues very dull and much depressed with very poor quality dominating. Receipts are extremely leavy and there is a general absence of first class quality offerings.

Enstern markets continue to reflect a steady tone, with prices practically unchanged. Government report of eastern markets:
