began Conn forced through for a onn was the star of the first period, making several sensational runs. (nee he dodged through the entire U. S. C. team for nearly 46 yards. Mallette aided U. S. C. by his brillant running. Although injured, he refused to quit the game, Touchdown Not Allowed.

Referee Keinholts was hooted by the rowd in the first period when he enalized Oregon twice for holding. Shortly after the Corvallis team's ouchdown, Malette of the Trojans attempted to kick goal from the visit-ors' 40-yard line. The ball struck the post and caromed off. Conn neglected o recover the ball, and Marks of the Trojans fell on it.

The crowd considered this a touchdown, but Referee Keinholtz decided it was a touchback and the ball was given to the Aggies on their 20-yard

Toward the close of the second period Tuffy Conn by a forward pass, Conn to Hubbard, sent Oregon within striking distance of the U. S. C. goal line but two more tries at forward passes failed and Conn made a dropkick from the 19-yard line that sailed high and clean between the J. S. C. posts, Oregon was penalized in this period for playing rough football, and the northern boys seemed to be playing was avoided only by the interference of officials. Mallett was knocked out in this quarter The trouble culminated in the rejection of Right Tackle McNeil of O. A. slugging a diminutive U. S. C. linesuan. Oregon was also penalized one alf the distance to its goal line and the half ended as the visiting team kicked back into U. S. C. territory. An aggie cheer leader was attacked by a pectator. The police separated the
