

Club Activities

PORTLAND women's organizations are cooperating enthusiastically with the Oregon Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis in its Christmas sale of Red Cross seals. One club has been assigned to manage each day's sale, and many more clubs than there are days have already offered their aid. City sales both in the booths and by mail are proving most successful. The state sale is developing in very encouraging fashion. Many of the club members and individuals are managing sales. At Roseburg the Boy Scouts are engineering the sale with their customary vigor, and have already ordered a second supply. Milton also has re-ordered. For next Sunday evening the churches of Albany have arranged a union service, at which Theodore Beckwith, bacteriologist of the Oregon Agricultural College will give an illustrated lecture on Oregon's tuberculosis problem. Among the state women's clubs succeeding in cooperation in the work are the Albany Shakespeare club, Burns Ladies' Library club, Bandon W. C. T. U., Creswell Woman's Civic Improvement club, Estacada Woman's Club, Gladstone W. C. T. U., Forest Grove Woman's club, Grants Pass Woman's Auxiliary of the Commercial club, La Grange Woman's club, Junction City Woman's Improvement club, Klamath Falls Woman's Literary club, La Grande Neighborhood club, Madras Woman's club, Madras Campfire Girls, Milton Woman's Improvement club, Marshfield Progress club, Medford Woman's club, Ontario Woman's club, Oregon City Woman's club, Prineville Shulamite club, Rogue River Improvement club, Shedd's W. C. T. U., Seaside Woman's club, Silverton Social Science club and Willard Woman's club, Tillamook W. C. T. U., Country club, Sherwood Woman's Civic Improvement club and the "Waco" Bay View study club. The national association has divided towns and states of the country according to size and will offer pennants to those districts selling the most stamps in proportion to their size. A special honor certificate will be awarded to any community selling five or more seals per inhabitant. It is hoped in this way to stimulate the sale of $1,000,000, which will mean $1,000,000 for the fight against tuberculosis in the United States.

To Have Constitutional Amendment—The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union is holding its annual convention in Indianapolis arranged for the observance of December 10 as a National Constitutional Amendment day in the United States and town in our country. In accordance with this plan Central W. C. T. U. invites all those interested in this great movement to attend a mass meeting which is to be held in the Central library hall Sunday, December 10, at 2:30 p. m., with the following speakers: Dr. William T. Foster, A. C. Newell and J. P. Newell.

Winter Meetings—At the regular meeting of the MacDowell club of Baker today, "Ballads and Folk Songs of All Nations" will be the program given. Mrs. J. L. Soule and Mrs. O. M. Dodson have arranged an excellent program to which the public is invited. Paper, "Ballads and Folk Songs of All Nations," Mrs. J. L. Soule; (a) "We'd Better Bide a Wee," (b) "My Ain Country," Mrs. O. M. Dodson; (c) "Loch Lomond," a Scotch folk song, Mrs. C. T. Godwin; (d) "Rustic Dance," N. von Wilim; (e) "Knight Rupert," German.

Vernon Association Meets—Notwithstanding the stormy afternoon, there was a large attendance at the meeting of the Vernon Parent-Teacher association yesterday afternoon at the Vernon branch library. The women gathered at 1:30 and brought their Christmas sewing, and during the social hour tea was served. At the business meeting the committees gave reports, showing much valuable work accomplished. The playground question was discussed, as this district greatly desires to own its own playground, the report being a rented one. The reports from the state convention of the Congress of Mothers held at The Dalles were given. Miss Newell, secretary, gave a helpful talk on "Pure Literature, Books as Companions for Children and Books as Christmas Gifts." The association expressed a lively interest in the high cost of living, and many volunteered to attend the mass meeting at Central library Saturday night. The study club, members will meet Friday at the community house to sew for needy children.

Albina Homestead to Meet—The Albina Homestead Parent-Teacher association will meet in the same hall, Friday at 8:15. An interesting program will be given by the pupils of Miss Young's room. A short talk will be given by Mrs. McIntyre on "Good Books for $1 and Less." Committee reports will be heard. Members are urged to come and bring a friend.

Woman's Political Study League—The Woman's Political Study League class in sociology met at 1 o'clock Tuesday in the Gill book room, preceding the regular club session at 2:30. The informal talk on sociology and what it really means was given by Professor Ogburn in a most interesting way, and then he set forth a plan for a course of study under the following heads: "The Breakdown of the Family," "Crimes," "Feeble-mindedness," "Causes of Poverty," "Health and Insurance," "Eugenics," "Initiative and Referendum," "Feminism: The Modern Woman," "Capital and Labor," "The Closed Shop," "The Church of the Community," "Old Age Pensions," "Taxation," "Night-Hour Law," and "Socialism." The class decided to give immediate attention to the following bills which are to come before the legislature: The 4-hour day for women to repeal the law giving the right of only property-owners to vote at school elections. Professor Ogburn impressed upon the class the necessity of hard work and a regular attendance at the numbers given by the sweet singer, Mrs. J. E. Ettinger. The combination of the music and the reading was a beautifully impressive one, and brought tears to the eyes of all present. The entertainment will be repeated Saturday afternoon at the Mann home.

Tea at Parents Educational Bureau—The monthly tea given by the Oregon Congress of Mothers and Parents-Teacher associations will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Parents Educational Bureau rooms, 551 courthouse. This tea is open to all officers and members of the Parents-Teacher associations of the county. The women who are here with their husbands attending the North Pacific fair association, will be honor guests.

Experts to Inquire Into Car Shortage

San Francisco, Dec. 6.—(P. N. S.)—The state railroad commission this afternoon directed its experts to inquire into the shortage of fuel cars with a view to taking possible steps to avert a threatened coal famine in San Francisco and other cities of northern California. This action was taken after the commission was informed of Governor Johnson's announcement that an appeal for redress from the California Fuel Dealers' Protective association had been referred to the commission.

California Steers Win Championships

Chicago, Dec. 6.—(I. N. S.)—"California Favorite," entered by the University of California, was named champion and steer at the International Livestock show here yesterday. "University of California Jock" was awarded second honors. The judge was Don Carlos Duggan of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Resignation Reasons Cited—Bernie, Dec. 6.—(I. N. S.)—Maximilian Hardin, the famous German journalist, declared in Die Zukunft that Foreign Minister von Jagow resigned recently because he was opposed to a submarine policy which would offend the United States and to the deportation of Belgians and French from territory occupied by the Kaiser's armies.

Jury in Bopp Case Is Secured Quickly

Eleven Men Who Will Try German Consul General Arp American-Born, One, Native of England.

San Francisco, Dec. 6.—(U. P.)—Completion of the jury which will try Consul General Frans Bopp and attaches of his consulate charged with conspiracy to violate American neutrality was marked by unexpected speed. All of the 12 men who will try the case are native Americans except one. He is J. B. Cambren of San Jose, who came from England when he was six years old. He says he is strictly neutral. He has a German wife. Both sides expect the trial to last at least a month.

Belgians Ordered to Demolish Buildings

Paris, Dec. 6.—(I. N. S.)—Germany has ordered the Belgians to demolish all buildings injured in the war which cannot be used for the purposes for which they were originally built, according to a Havre dispatch received here today.

George N. Seammon Of Westport Is Dead

Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 6.—George N. Seammon, former postmaster of Westport, died at that place Saturday night. He was born in Maine in 1848 and settled on Grays Harbor 45 years ago. He was one of the incorporators of Westport. He is survived by his widow, who was the first school teacher in Chehalis county.

Prominent Woman Passes Out—Pendleton, Or., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Sam Walker, prominent resident of McKay Creek, died in this city after an illness of several weeks' duration. She is survived by her husband, three children, two brothers, Zoeth Hooser of Stanfield and Ethan Hooser of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Black of this city.

Municipal Paving Plant Is Proposed

City Control of Materials to Lessen Cost of Street Improvements in Proposition for Voters to Decide in June.

Corvallis, Or., Dec. 6.—The proposition of establishing a municipal paving plant for Corvallis no doubt will be put up to the voters at the city election in June, at which time two or more propositions may be presented. The paving plant can be purchased for about $60,000, but it is urged by some members of the city council that in order to get the lessened cost of material, gravel, crushed rock, etc., the city must equip to produce its own material and that crushers, screeners, rollers and wagons are necessary to get low prices.

The city has its own gravel beds. A plant with all the necessary equipment for complete paving, it is estimated, will cost about $20,000.

Youth Slays Bride, Takes His Own Life

Chicago, Dec. 6.—(I. N. S.)—George Lavalle, 19, shot and killed his girl bride of only five weeks, Lucille Rogers Lavalle, this afternoon and then killed himself. The shooting occurred in the home of a friend, which the couple had occupied since they were married. Lavalle left a note saying he planned the tragedy after the first glimpse of romance died away and he found himself penniless.

Eugene Farmer Gets First Prize for Corn

Eugene, Or., Dec. 6.—C. J. Sluiter, the city farmer on Clear Lake seven miles northwest of Eugene, was awarded first prize in his section for the best exhibit of corn at the big exhibition held by the Exchange National bank of Spokane November 20-25, according to information received from there today.

A. A. Clark of this city won third prize in the same section, which comprises the counties of Oregon, west of the Cascade mountains.

MY EXTRAVAGANT NEIGHBOR—How terribly extravagant is my next-door neighbor; she gives so many parties!

Thus you may hear one woman say; but if you should interview the neighbor, you would most likely hear that she thinks her critic is extravagant, too, for spending too much on clothes. She herself prefers entertaining to buying all the latest fashions. She is a hospitable soul and adores to have her friends about her continually. She cheerfully wears last year's frocks and laughingly remarks that she can not see herself and cares more for how other people dress than how she looks. Her reasoning was without a flaw, though often a little hard on her friends. She reasons that it does not matter how she dresses in her home town where everybody knows her, and with equal cogency she argues that it does not matter how she looks in a strange city, where nobody knows her.

The truth is that she does not care much about clothes, and so thinks them extravagant. That is usually our measure of the economy of things. One man prefers a fine house, and another an automobile. Those who can't afford both will sacrifice one to the other, perhaps not cheerfully, but they will follow their likes in the question.

Most women will save on little things and take seasons of stringent economy, and then will suddenly forget all the little sacrifices that have been made and insist that the amount saved on one rash purchase. A woman will cheerfully walk a mile to save a nickel car fare and will later pay any huge sum a milliner may ask for a hat of fancy.

It is only the truly economical who save everywhere. Only thus can any real profit result. It is of no avail to pinch here and spend somewhere else. But the dimension falls on deaf ears if it is told to anyone naturally extravagant, for to such a one it is incomprehensible.

SUCCOTASH SOUFFLE

One rounding cup chopped cooked string beans and corn. (Corn cooked or raw.) 1 small green pepper, 2-3 cup milk, 4 level tablespoonful flour, 1/4 teaspoonful baking powder, salt, pepper. Bake 25 minutes. Will serve 5 people.

ICE CREAM SANDWICHES

One cup butter, 2 cups sugar, 4 1/2 cups flour, sifted 4 times 5 whole eggs, yolks and whites beaten separately, 1 1/2 cups milk (scant), 3 full teaspoonful baking powder, sifted with 1/2 cup of flour, 2 teaspoonful vanilla, 1 quart brick ice cream. Cream butter and sugar, add yolks of eggs, a little milk, then a little flour, continue until all of milk and flour have been added, then fold in whites of eggs, then add baking powder with flour; last vanilla, pour into a sheet pan well oiled and lined with paper. Bake in quick oven. When cold cut into oblongs 1 inch by 3/4, and split the cake and put slices of brick ice cream between. Frost with whipped cream and decorate with strawberries, sliced peaches are pretty. If baked in tin 15x18 inches, this amount will serve 27 persons. Get ice cream in quart molds and cut each mold into nine slices.

IT'S THE STYLE

Velvet is very much in fashion. Waist lines are both high and low. Even handbags are trimmed with fur. Brown is a shade for shoes this fall. Bead bags have come into fashion again. There are still many belts tied carelessly in the front. Dress trimmings are having a great vogue this season. The waistline of the fashionable coats is merely a seam. Serge dresses are trimmed with silk or wool embroidery.

FALL HOUSEKEEPING These are the "house cooing" days as I like to call them. They are the days when you begin to make things snug for winter. You put away all the summery-looking furniture coverings and light rugs, and bring forth the warmer-looking floor coverings; allow the upholstery of the big arm chair to disclose itself and look to it that the drowsy lights and the table lamps are in readiness for the longer evenings. You bring in a few plants from the garden and prepare to live more in the house than you have done for many months. And, after all, however much you may enjoy the glorious summer—such a long, delightful summer as we have here, too—home is just a little more home in winter when we gather around the reading lamp and toast our toes before the open fire during the stormy hours.
