MORE CAUTION BEING SHOWN IN TRADE AT AMERICAN CENTERS

Bradstreets Reports That German Peace Overtures Has Had Little Effect in Industries but Has Affected Current Values.

New York, Dec. 16 .- (I. N. S.) - Bradstreet's

Germany's peace proposal thus far has not exerted any particular effect upon either trade or industry, though it has superinduced sharp breaks in stock market, as well as in cereal and flour prices and brought greater caution among financial interests. Incidentally, a more conservative undertone seems to be developing in other directions as regards future trade, and naturally there is considerable discussion as to readjustments if negotiations looking to peace actually come to pass, although at the moment it is doubtful that a feasible basis for a speedy settlement win readily be found. Nevertheless, the high slittudes to which commodily prices have rised detate prudence in the light of possible developments. ## MARKETING OF YAKIMA VALLEY WINTER APPLE CROP BADLY HAMPERED

Southern Pacific Refuses to the hands of the buyers, In some instances the local shippers have had Accept Shipments of Per- to use the Northern Pacific and accept the regulations of option No. 1, Ishables at Its Own Risk.

North Yakima, Wash., Dec. 16 .- The perishable products under option No. 2 of the tariff. The only outlet left for shippers over this line is under option No. 1, where the shipper shall assume all risks as to overheating and freezing.

The embargo is in effect for all shipments east of Spokane, but allows shippers to use Canadian lines through the Spokane gateway. The O-W. R. & N. is accepting fruit under the old regulations and there is a rush to that line to get apples sold in the east for the holiday trade into assuming all risks.

Local representatives of the company say that the embargo is only temporary and due entirely to the coud wave that has come in the mountain divisions. There is enough fruit en marketing of Yakima valley's winter route to take all available space in apple crop is seriously impaired by company round houses and the comthe embargo laid Friday by the North-ern Pacific. That road refuses to tion and refuses to accept it from the accept shipments of apples or other shippers.
