

GREAT FUTURE SEEN FOR INTERSECTIONAL FOOTBALL CONTESTS Oregon and Penn Will Settle, in Long Way, Superiority of East or West.

EUGENE MEN NOT AFRAID Oregonians Will Outweigh Pennsylvania Four Founds to Man, It Is Said, for Pasadena Game.

San Francisco, Dec. 21.—(P. N. S.)—When Hugo Bezdek's powerful Oregonians step onto the greenward at Pasadena on New Year's Day to meet Old Bob Fowlwell's Pennsylvania speedsters there's going to be more at stake than the mere winning of a football game.

Eastern experts are strongly of the opinion that Penn is going to win. The stars of this university, which though it ordinarily is believed to be a state institution, in reality is under private control with a student body numbering over 9000, are expected to run wide rings around the Oregon defense.

Howard Berry's punting and drop kicking, Hobey Light's snake-running, and Big Ben Derr's line-plunging are expected to cut down anything the northern eleven had to oppose them.

There is little to choose between the two teams in the matter of weight. Oregon, in actual figures, outweighs Penn about four pounds to the man, the average weight of the northerners being 184 pounds, while that of the eastern aggregation runs close to 180.

But, as Eddie Mahan has pointed out, a four pound advantage means nothing in the life of a line man of average football learning, since a bit of skillful leverage can down the biggest Goliath in the game.

In aggressiveness, power, and all-around tenacity the Bezdek boys will be hard to beat. Their straight line plunges and mass formations which are away above the average, have consistently won for them during the past season.

But which ever way the battle goes it's going to be a regular one and some sweet and succulent gridironing is due to be dished up before it's over.

BRINGING UP FATHER

SIX GOOD BOUTS WILL BE STAGED BY GOLDEN WEST

Young Jackson Johnson to Tackle Lowe Simms in Semi-Windup.

Joe Gorman and Lee Johnson, the crack featherweight boxers of Oakland, Cal., will face each other in a return bout in the main event of the Golden West Athletic league smoker to be staged tomorrow night in the Eleventh street playhouse.

These mitt wielders engaged in a contest several weeks ago, and after six rounds of fast boxing, the affair was declared a draw.

Young Jack Johnson, the colored middleweight, who whaled the tar out of Al Sommers a fortnight ago, will attempt a repeater when he faces Lowe Simms.

Joe Benjamin has been substituted for Frankie Sullivan in the contest with Ted Meredith, recognized as the champion of the Pacific fleet of the United States navy.

The other bouts of the card are: Valley Trambitas vs. Eddie Palmer, 158 pounds; Billy Nelson vs. Hugh Delaney of Tacoma, and Jockey Bennett vs. Danny Edwards.

The first bout will be started promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

Joe Bonds Stops Jack Root. Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Joe Bonds, heavyweight, knocked out Jack Root in the second round here last night.

Yankee Smith refuses to take on Bonds for a scheduled second battle.

No matter who wins or loses the game will do much to cement the already pleasant relations of the two colleges and may mean the establishment of permanent relations between the east and west.

Besides Jess, Packey McParland, Battling Nelson, Charlie Cutler, Joe Welling, Johnny Coulon and Manager Rowland of the White Sox will also appear.

All proceeds will go to Christmas cheer for the poor.

Leipzig Heads Coin Raising Committee

St. Benedict, Or., Dec. 21.—On account of the inability to draw the crowds which other athletic teams draw in the cities, the Mt. Angel Athletic association has fallen back on finances.

At a special meeting held in the evening the committee arranged several methods in which to raise the money. The ways and means are unique as well as practical.

Jack Cook to Secure Stock at Salt Lake

Salt Lake, Utah, Dec. 21.—(P. N. S.)—John P. Cook, secretary of the Oakland baseball club, is to dispose of his interests and will become business manager and one of the principal stockholders of the Salt Lake club.

This announcement was made here yesterday, following the resignation of William J. O'Connor as business manager and assistant secretary of the Bees, to take the management of an amusement park.

President Frank Murphy would neither confirm nor deny the story, but other directors vouched for it, and Cook himself said last night that the story was practically true.

What Chance Has Darcy? Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Jack Kearns left Kansas City last night for Chicago, where he will meet Jack Curley and Tom Jones.

The three will then go to New York to meet Les Darcy. The Australian will arrive in New York Christmas day, according to Kearns.

Burkett to Coach H. C. Worcester, Mass., Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Jess Burkett, former big league baseball star, will coach the Holy Cross college nine next year.

FOUR DAYS MORE AND DARCY WILL BE ON THE JOB

So Says Tex Rickard, Who Vows He Has Heard From Les.

New York, Dec. 21.—(U. P. S.)—Lester Darcy, Australia's champion, will be in New York within four or five days, according to Tex Rickard, the famous promoter of boxing contests, who is planning to show Darcy here.

Rickard said that he has positive information regarding Darcy's whereabouts. "I have located Darcy and I know just where he is," Rickard said.

More interest in the Australian, particularly since Rickard has mentioned him as the logical opponent for Georges Carpentier, than there ever was before.

While Rickard has not disclosed his plans in detail it is believed he will select Darcy in preference to Jess Willard as an opponent for the Frenchman, as a match between the cowboy champion and Carpentier has the earmarks of a misdeal in the fight cards.

Rickard was interested today in the showing Billy Miske made against Jack Dillon in Brooklyn and there is a chance that Miske may get a match with Darcy if Carpentier is not available.

Anglers' Club to Hold Meeting on Dec. 27

The regular December meeting of the Multnomah Anglers' club, which was originally scheduled for Friday, December 22, has been postponed to Wednesday, December 27, and at this time W. L. Finley will again show his famous pictures of Oregon wild life.

These pictures made such a hit at the annual dinner of the Oregon Sportsmen's league that a great many people who were unable to attend this dinner have been clamoring for a chance to see the films.

The coming of Darcy will set fire circles of the country afire. There is more interest in the Australian, particularly since Rickard has mentioned him as the logical opponent for Georges Carpentier, than there ever was before.

Mitchell's Friends Want Go at Welsh

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Supporters of Hittelle Mitchell here are urging him to go after a big championship match with Freddie Welsh, lightweight title holder, to be staged at Havana, Cuba, next spring.

Renny Leonard has been talked of as the likely choice for the 40-round go but Mitchell's wonderful work against Joe Welling recently leads his admirers to believe he would put up a better fight than Leonard who was outfought by Welsh a few months ago.

Cubs' Special to Toot Whistle February 20

Chicago, Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—The Cubs' special to the training camp at Pasadena, Cal., will leave February 20. It was practically certain today.

President Weeghman has drafted Tip O'Neil, traveling secretary of the White Sox, into service to help arrange the details of the training trip.

Present plans for the Cubs are for eight days' work at Pasadena for the entire squad. Then a division will be made and two teams sent out to take on the minors.

Langford to Meet Tate. Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Sam Langford, the Boston tar baby, will fight Battling Tate, New York negro, here January 15. It was announced today.
