PORTLAND MAN MADE IN NEW YEAR'S CROWD

Revenge for Identification Believed Cause of Assault; Spokane Man May Die.

San Francisco, Jan. 1 .- (P. N. S.). Struck down by an assailant in a crowd of street revelers near the close of the New Year's celebration, J. R. Buckley of Spokane, a traveling salesman for the J. A. Folger company, lies at the point of death at the central emergency hospital, suffering from a basal fracture of the skull.

His companion, Edward Lafferty of Portland, is suffering from contusions of the face inflicted by the same asthe American club, 108 North Ninth sailant.

Suspected of the attack and captured by the police after a chase, Harry Maguire is held in jail on two charges of battery, with bail fixed at $1000.

Information was received by the po lice to the effect that Buckley and Lafferty had identified a man responsible for a drug-store holdup, and that the early morning assault was for revenge. A telegram to Mrs. Raymond Edward Lafferty of 531 East Tenth street, from her husband, received at 11:40 this morning, said that he himself was not injured at all and that the report concerning him was a mistake. Buckley, however, was seriously hurt and Lafferty will be detained
