More Than 20,000 Persons Expected to Attend New Year's Game in Pasadena,

TEAMS ARE IN CONDITION

Al Crane of Seattle Will Play Left End for Beavers, in Place of Clem Urqnhart.

Los Angeles, Jan. 1.—(P. N. S.)— At 2:15 o'clock this afternoon, the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Oregon football teams will meet in their big scheduled East vs. West football combat at Tournament park, Pasadena.

More than 20,000 persons are expected to witness the game. The advance seat sale has been heavy and every one of the 23,000 seats should be filled long before the teams take the field.

Urquhart Will Not Play. Al Crane, the Tacoma boy, will play left end. Clem Urquhart will not start the game and will not appear in the contest at any time. His injured foot is still in bad shape and he cannot play.

Both teams are in good physical condition, Final practice work here during the last four days has put the two teams in perfect shape. Coach Folwell stated yesterday that his team looked better than it has any time during the past season.
