

LATE REALTY DEAL IN UMATILLA COUNTY IS $200,000 TRANSFER

W. J. Furnish of Portland Sells 3600 Acre Farm to Syndicate; Road in View.

Pendleton, Or., Jan. 11.—One of the largest realty deals turned in Umatilla county during recent years was brought to consummation Wednesday with the filing of a deed conveying the 3600 acre farm of W. J. Furnish of Portland to a syndicate of well known Pendleton capitalists, headed by Colonel J. H. Raley, pioneer attorney. The consideration involved is given as $200,000. The land is located about 14 miles north of Pendleton, and the syndicate proposes to cooperate with other farmers of that locality in securing a railroad from German Hill to Cold Springs Landing on the Columbia, in order to reduce the heavy expense of marketing crops, caused by the present long haul. The land is at present under lease to a number of farmers, but it is the intention of the syndicate to cut up the land into smaller tracts and sell them. Furnish has owned the land, which is 20 and 40 bushel wheat land, for many years, and still retains a farm of equal size farther north in this county.

GEORGE LARKIN WILL BE NEWBERG MAYOR

George Larkin.

Newberg, Or., Jan. 11.—George Larkin, who was elected mayor of Newberg at the election Monday, has been a resident of Newberg since 1888, coming here with his father's family from Mankato, Mich. He is a member of the Larkin-Prater Hardware company and a brother of John Larkin, postmaster of this city.

The opponent of the mayor-elect was Jesse Edwards, who is just closing his second term as mayor. The latter is held as a representative of the Friends church, and the contest was, in some measure, between the "Gentiles" and the membership of that church. There was no exhibition of bitterness in the short campaign waged since the nominating caucus, however, a determination was manifest to "line up" the voters generally, with the result that for the largest vote was polled than at any previous city election ever held in Newberg.

WOMAN IN INSANE FIT TAKES LIVES OF FIVE DAUGHTERS AND SELF

Note Left by Greeley, Colo., Mother Says Her Husband Drove Her Mad.

Greeley, Colo., Jan. 11.—(U. P.)—Insanity, brought on by jealousy of her husband, is believed by the authorities here today to have driven Mrs. Everett Crozier, 48, wife of a wealthy farmer near here, to kill her five daughters yesterday and then commit suicide.

The mother left a note in which she explained that she had shot the children for fear that they would "grow up to a life of shame." She declared that her husband had been attentive to other women, that she had been driven mad by jealousy and had decided to kill herself and take the children with her.

When Crozier returned to his home last night he found in the girls' bedroom the bodies of his five daughters, all shot through the right temple. In an irrigation ditch, half a mile away, the body of Mrs. Crozier was found, shot through the temple and a .38 calibre revolver still clasped in her right hand.

People living near the Croziers declare Mrs. Crozier had been despondent for months. An inquest will be held Friday.

Pastor Postpones His Response to Call Rev. Calvin B. Waller, pastor of the First Baptist church, Asheville, N. C., to whom an invitation was extended to take over the pastorate of the White Temple of Portland, sent a letter which was received by F. E. Hilton today, and which deferred his response to the invitation until the latter part of the week. In case Rev. Dr. Waller responds favorably to the invitation, which the board of the White Temple believes he will do, he will preach his first sermon on the first Sunday in March in Portland. The pulpit of the First Baptist church of Portland has been without permanent occupant since the resignation of Dr. W. E. Hinson, which was effective since February 1 of last year. During the ensuing interim various prominent ministers, both of the city and out of town, have preached the Sunday sermons.

ALLIES' ULTIMATUM IS ACCEPTED BY GREECE, DISPATCHES INDICATE

Action Follows Crown Council's Decision Yesterday to Acquiesce in Matter.

London, Jan. 11.—(U. P.)—Greece has accepted the demands of the allies' ultimatum, according to dispatches received today from Athens. The acceptance of the entente's demands follows a crown council decision yesterday that Greece should acquiesce, and closes, it is believed, long period of negotiations between the allies and King Constantine. As soon as the Greek government indicates its actual acquiescence by beginning withdrawal of troops from northern Greece, it is assumed the allied blockade will be withdrawn. Stoppage of all supplies en route to Greece during the past few weeks has resulted in depletion of food in the kingdom and issuance of bread cards. The allied demands were all framed with the aim of protecting the allied armies and their operations out of Saloniki and safeguarding them against any possible menace. To this end the allies insisted upon the withdrawal of all Grecian troops from the northern part of the monarchy, together with the disarmament demanded in the several earlier notes. Apology for the insults to the French and British flags by Greek reservists in the rioting incident upon Admiral du Fournet's landing of forces in December was also required. The Live Wire basketball team defeated the St. Helens quintet Saturday night at the C. B. C. hall by a score of 31 to 11. The playing of Duffy, Dooling and McEntee featured the game.

Nujol For Constipation Illustration of a cavewoman with a spear and a pack on her back. Text: Nujol For Constipation

IF YOU LIVED as THE CAVE MAN LIVED —lived the active open-air life of the savage, and ate the savage's food, you would have the savage's freedom from health worries. Civilization, particularly for city people, means office work, not enough exercise, too concentrated food—and consequently more or less frequent trouble with constipation. Nujol relieves constipation effectively and without disturbing the intestinal nerve centers. Laxative and aperient remedies tend to destroy the delicate nerve-muscle co-ordination of the lower bowel—hence are dangerously habit-forming. Nujol is not a laxative. It acts in effect as an internal lubricant, preventing the contents of the intestines from becoming hard and in this way encouraging and facilitating normal movement. Nujol is bottled at the refinery, and is sold only in glass bottles bearing the name Nujol, and the imprint of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey). Beware of substitutes—be sure you get the genuine. Write today for booklet, "The National Treatment for Constipation." STANDARD OIL COMPANY Bayonne (New Jersey) New Jersey
