

RULES COMMITTEE TO REOPEN COMPLETELY NOTE LEAK INQUIRY

Thomas W. Lawson to Be Called and Body Given Authority to Force Answers.

Washington, Jan. 13.—(U. P.)—Complete reopening of the house note leak inquiry was decided on today at a meeting of the rules committee. The committee announced it would subpoena, in addition to Thomas W. Lawson, the New York brokerage firm of Lockwood & Co., Donald McDonald, who is alleged to have given information to Lawson; James Reilly, managing editor of the Wall Street Journal; F. W. McKinnon, Chicago broker, and perhaps half a dozen or a dozen other witnesses.

Power to require Thomas W. Lawson and other witnesses to answer all questions was given to the rules committee by the house. The committee decision was reached by the committee to reopen the leak investigation and make it broader than ever.

Representative Democrat, announcing he would not contest the resolution, said the Wood resolutions were a "keen and bitter reflection and an effort to discredit the administration that the Republicans could not defeat."

The resolutions, both introduced by Henry and passed without opposition, gave the committee power to call all witnesses to give either real or hearsay evidence pertaining to the leak.

Henry, explaining the resolution, said he wanted to give the committee all the power the house can give them, particularly to deal with Thomas W. Lawson.

"We have summoned Mr. Lawson to appear," said Henry, "and we hope he will be here Monday, when we will resume the investigation. If he fails or refuses to answer, the committee will subpoena him and have him arrested and let the house decide its authority and exhaust its power to make Mr. Lawson answer."

Felix Diaz Holds All of Vera Cruz

Galveston, Texas, Jan. 13.—(U. P.)—Practically the entire state of Vera Cruz is controlled by Felicistas and Felix Diaz is seeking at the termination he wants from this country. It being first sent to Belize and South American ports for trans-shipment. This was reported today by passengers arriving on the steamer Herald from Vera Cruz.

The passengers further stated that information had been received in Vera Cruz that Diaz had intended to begin a month to begin a campaign for the destruction of all railroads in the region, with Higinio Aguilar at Punta Alegre and General Felias near Tuxpan assisting the Felicistas.

Many persons were killed, it was reported, when Felicistas attacked a Mexican National train at Paso del Macho January 5.

Terrible Burns End Life of Aged Woman

Mrs. E. J. Jones, wife of the janitor of the Buckman school, who was fatally burned in her home at 16 East Twelfth street north yesterday afternoon, died as a result of her injuries at the Good Samaritan hospital late last night. She was burned from head to foot, and no hope of her recovery was held from the first. The body was taken to the morgue.

Mrs. Jones, who was 62 years old, lay down early in the afternoon, after drawing a couch close to a stove in which a red-hot fire was kindled. While she was asleep the couch and her clothing caught fire. Neighbors saw smoke pouring from the house, and discovered her plight. She would have been burned to death, or she was unconscious when rescued.

Motorcycle Patrolman Ervin was passing the house in pursuit of a speeder, and stopped and had the woman sent to the hospital. The body was removed to the public morgue. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

WIFE TAUGHT HIM VALUE OF YOUTH, SAYS CROKER

Philadelphia, Jan. 13.—(U. P.)—Freedom for evidence and testimony that will send Harry K. Thaw, erratic Pittsburgh millionaire, now recovering from self-inflicted wounds in this city, back to Matteawan or prison, is the swap the district attorney's office in New York will offer Oliver A. Brower, it was learned on good authority here today.

Brower is now in Moyamensing, awaiting extradition papers from New York where he is charged with having conspired with Thaw to kidnap 19-year-old Frederick Gump Jr. When Assistant District Attorney Black of New York declared the state now has sufficient evidence to convict Thaw, it is known that they would go a long distance to secure the testimony of one of Thaw's accomplices or "business men."

Brower was the bearer of the "dear master" letters written by Gump to Thaw in one of those Gump is supposed to have dictated to the whippers Thaw administered. Despite intimations of both the prosecution and the defense that Thaw will go peacefully back to New York for a stage another bitter fight, a large battalion of lawyers will figure in the defense have arrived in town. This, it is felt, is an indication that Thaw will fight every step of the road to Matteawan or prison.

Thaw's condition showed a slight improvement today, it was announced at Brower's hospital. By a doctor he is practically certain now that he did not swallow poison tablets before he slashed his throat and wrists. Dr. Elwood H. Hays, who has been attending to him, believes Thaw will be able to leave the hospital by February 1.

Six Hens in Contest Lay Egg Every Day

Storrs, Conn., Jan. 13.—The total output in the ninth week of the laying contest at Storrs amounted to 1731 eggs.

Z. P. Robinson's pen of White Leghorns from Calverton, N. Y., stood well above any other pen in the contest. It yielded 45 eggs.

According to Mr. Lamson the new hen in laying qualities and the size of its eggs will resemble the annual poultry show at Madison Square Garden.

Permanenate of Potash Substitute. Many poultrymen have been using permanganate of potash to prevent the spread of colds and other contagious diseases.

Medford Show Closes Today. The premium list of the annual exhibition of the Oregon State Poultry association which closes its show at Medford today is just at hand.

Banquet to Mrs. Whitaker. Mrs. Helen Dow Whitaker, who is in charge of the poultry department at the State Fair in Washington at Pullman, and also of the All-Northwest Egg Laying contest, was honored at a banquet tendered her by the employees of the poultry plant last week.

Mrs. Richard Croker, who has given her husband, the former leader of Tammany Hall, new ideas regarding government.

Mrs. Croker, who was an Indian princess, gave her husband descriptions of Indian councils and won him to advocacy of government by young men. Croker says that the wife taught him the real value of youth in public affairs.

Oregon Short Line Accepting Freight

Freight now is being accepted as usual by the O-W. R. & N. for the Oregon Short Line, the embargo on shipments from competitive points having been lifted from December 26 to January 7 no freight whatever was accepted for delivery off the originating line because of the enormous congestion of traffic brought about by the car shortage.

U. S. SEEKING IDEAL FOWL New Hen Will Have Large Laying Capacity—Meaty.

New York, Jan. 13.—An ideal American fowl is the object of experiments being conducted by the United States government at its farm at Belleville, Md. Harry M. Lamson, head husbandman of the government farm, has been working for the last five years on the new American product.

According to Mr. Lamson the new hen in laying qualities and the size of its eggs will resemble the annual poultry show at Madison Square Garden.
