TWOHY BROTHERS PLAN IMPROVEMENTS TO AID MANUFACTURE OF CARS

Two Buildings and General Additions Will Cost $25,000; Many Orders Cause.

TARDY SHIPMENTS DELAY

Assembling of 200 Box Cars Cannot Start Until July 1, Due to Inability to Get Parts.

To facilitate the manufacturing of 200 wooden box cars, for which the contract was secured some time ago, the Twohy Bros. company has filed an application at the municipal building bureau for permission to erect a planing shop, and are planning other buildings that will come to a total cost of $25,000. The buildings will be erected at the company's yards near Holladay avenue, between East Fifty-fifth and East Sixtieth streets.

Plans for one of the buildings contemplated are now on file at the offices of the building bureau and provide for a frame structure 100 by 200 feet in dimensions, to be used for an addition to the planing mill. Another, the plans for which have as yet not been completed, will be used as a paint and general workshop. This unit will be 100 by 200 feet in dimensions. The buildings will total about $10,000 in cost.

Rearrangement of the yards and the erection of a series of smaller shops will cost about $15,000.

The improvements are necessitated by the increase in business, and especially at this time to take care of the car contracts that the company has already secured and orders expected in the future.

The erection and assembling of the 200 cars ordered by the Union Pacific will take about 30 days after work has once started. On account of the delayed shipments of parts which the railroad company furnishes, actual work cannot start until about July 1.

Refuses Chance to Treble Money.

Roseburg, Or., Jan. 17.—E. L. Miller of West Roseburg on Tuesday refused an offer of $10,000 for a 40-acre tract near Winfield, Kan., for which he traded Roseburg property nearly a year ago. Mr. Miller traded for the property without seeing it, and the offer received is nearly three times the value of the property here he gave in exchange. The property is in the oil belt and a representative of an oil company there has been in Roseburg for several days negotiating for the property, finally offering $10,000, which Mr. Miller refused. Mr. Miller will go to Kansas in the spring to see the land.

To Avoid Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment for itching scalp when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means—no hair.

Get, at any drug store, a bottle of zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is a pure, reliable, antiseptic liquid, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use for scalp irritation is zemo, for it is safe and inexpensive.

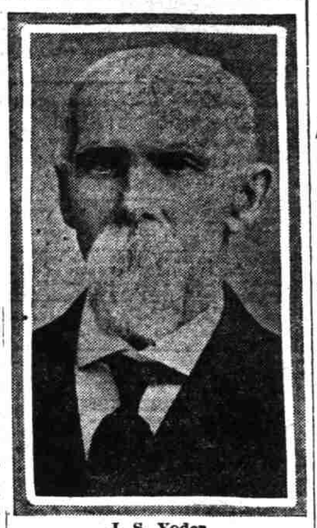
FIVE SONS SERVED AS HIS PALLBEARERS



J. S. Yoder.

J. S. Yoder was widely known in Clackamas county and his funeral in the Congregational church near his home last Thursday was attended by many friends and neighbors who piled the floral offerings high about his casket. Rev. F. C. Butler delivered the memorial sermon. The pallbearers were five of his sons and one grandson. Mr. Yoder was born in Pennsylvania in 1844 and came to Oregon in 1889, settling in Clackamas county. The little town of Yoder was named for him. For over 30 years he had been an active and earnest working member of the church, and his neighborly kindnesses and uprightness of character made him an honored and beloved friend and neighbor to many. Six sons, two daughters, 17 grandchildren, three brothers and one sister survive him.

Closer Industrial Alliance Effected

Reorganization Grants Pass Banking Company Brings Utah-Idaho Sugar Concern Into Direct Relations.

Grants Pass, Jan. 17.—The election of Alexander Nibley as vice president and a director, of Frank C. Bramwell as cashier and a director and of R. B. Miller as a director of the Grants Pass Banking company, announced Tuesday night, evinced the closer alliance in the future of the Utah-Idaho Sugar company interests and Twohy Brothers' interests with industrial development in southern Oregon.

Nibley, who is a son of Bishop W. C. Nibley of Salt Lake City, is manager of the Grants Pass sugar factory. Bramwell, who comes here from La Grande, is of a family long connected with the Utah sugar interests, and Miller, formerly traffic manager of the O-W. R. & N. railroad, is now vice president of the Twohy Brothers' California & Oregon Coast railway, which is being built from Grants Pass to the Pacific coast.

Claus Schmidt was reelected president of the bank and George P. Jester will continue as assistant cashier. Other directors are O. S. Blanchard, Herbert Smith, Claus Schmidt and George P. Jester.

COUNTY COURT NEWS

Complaints having been made to the county commissioners concerning the letting out of 50 men from the road force in district two under Foreman Moy, heretofore employed southwest of the city and on Portland Heights, Roadmaster Yeon explains that the season does not permit a larger force than the 10 men now left. Of these men he says: "The men working at present have worked in this district for years and are good A No. 1 workmen, and further, I am informed by Mr. Moy that they are all property owners, and probably citizens. It is but natural that some of the men will feel that they have been treated unjustly."

John Denison, foreman of the county farm, asks that in lieu of an increase in salary he be allowed to supply his family with provisions and fuel from the county stores.

In accordance with a recommendation of J. B. Yeon, county roadmaster, the county commissioners have issued an order turning over to him all requests or orders for gravel from the county pits, hereafter all free gravel will be done away with, and 25 cents a load will be charged, except to school districts for special purposes.

In order to enable repairs to be made to the Burlington ferry slips service will be suspended Wednesday, January 17.

Miss Berdie Waidt, who has been employed as telephone girl at the courthouse for the past six years, has been reinstated by the commissioners upon appeal to that body after summary removal.

The scagliola columns of the courthouse are cracked, and the contractor was docked $1000 for allowing such manifestations. Architects Whidden & Lewis have been asked by the county commissioners to arbitrate the protest of the contractors and fix the amount.

HOTEL MEN OF OREGON FAVOR FIGHT AGAINST "SHASTA ARBITRARY"

Association Will Ask Portland to Put Up $2000 of Proposed Fund.

MUST NOT DISCRIMINATE

Extra Fare to Northwest Ordered Removed, but Railroad Asks for a Postponement and Rehearing.

Members of the Oregon State Hotel Men's association yesterday indorsed a proposition launched by Puget sound cities for the raising of a fund to uphold, through the courts if necessary, the victory the northwest won from the railroads in the so-called Shasta arbitrary case. It will ask Portland to provide $2000 of this fund.

The Interstate Commerce commission ordered the railroads, represented principally by the Southern Pacific, to remove the discrimination that existed against the northwest by the continuance of the extra fare for that part of round trip transcontinental tours between Portland and San Francisco. It was ordered that the railroads participating in these round trips remove the discrimination by exacting no greater fare when tickets are made out via Portland or Seattle than when the routing is via New Orleans or El Paso.

The Southern Pacific lately asked the commission to postpone the effective date of the removal of this discrimination and the commission allowed a postponement until April 2. It was to have become effective February 15. Subsequently a petition was filed for rehearing and a motion to eliminate the requirement as to El Paso if the rehearing were denied.

Anxious to Raise Fund.

All of which is vigorously opposed by the interests that fought against the $17.50 arbitrary. C. A. Reynolds, formerly chairman of the Washington Public Service commission, argued the case before the Interstate Commerce commission on behalf of the northwest. The interests backing the movement are desirous of having him continue in the fight and a project was started to raise $5000 to carry on this work.

The Seattle people, according to T. D. Rockwell, secretary of the Washington State Hotel association, have pledged $2000 and have raised $1200 of that. Portland is to be asked to raise a like sum, with $1000 from Spokane.

The Oregon hotel men yesterday appointed Eric V. Hauser of the Multnomah, E. E. Larimore of the Oregon, A. T. Lundborg of the Benson, Phil Metschan Jr. of the Imperial and Dr. C. W. Cornelius of the Cornelius as a committee to raise Portland's share of the fund.

To do effective work in time, Mr. Reynolds would have to start for Washington next week, said Mr. Rockwell, to argue against a postponement of the effective date of the rates, to prevent, if possible, the granting of a rehearing and to obviate the emasculation of the decision by eliminating the provision regarding El Paso.

Mr. Rockwell, who presented the case before the Oregon hotel men, said the order should not be tampered with at all, because the benefits of the decision should apply to this year's tourist business.

The committee will call upon all interests in Portland affected by tourist-travel—the merchants, the banks, the taxicab companies, the street railway company, hotels and others, for their share of the funds.

The $17.50 arbitrary was exacted by the Southern Pacific on all tourist tickets routed over the Shasta line. But evidence presented before the commission showed that for much longer distances, no corresponding extra fare was charged when tourists were routed one way by way of El Paso or New Orleans.

The public service commission of Washington initiated the fight and all the railroads of that country were made defendants. The Oregon public service commission intervened on behalf of the Washington commission and other intervenors were: Pendleton Commercial association, Washington State Hotel association, Seattle Commercial club, Tacoma Commercial club and Chamber of Commerce, Seattle Chamber of Commerce, Spokane Chamber of Commerce, Everett Commercial club, Seattle Municipal league, East Side Business Men's club of Portland.

The Portland Chamber of Commerce was not an intervenor in the proceedings, leaving the action to the East Side Business Men's club.

Agricultural Agent of Lane to Remain

N. S. Robb Says He Will Come Back When County Court Restores Part of Lowered Salary.

Eugene, Or., Jan. 16.—The retention of N. S. Robb, Lane county agricultural agent, who recently resigned because the county court cut $500 from the budget for this office, was practically assured Tuesday when the court at request of the Chamber of Commerce and leading farmers consented to restore $250 of the sum taken away.

Efforts will be made by the agricultural committee of Pomona grange and the agriculture bureau of the Chamber of Commerce to raise the remaining $250.
