

Honor System Won Hard Fought Battle "Square Deal" Overcomes Temptation

Lansing, Kan., Jan. 19.—(U. P.)—"Tex" Schipper, only one of 17 Kansas prisoners given Christmas paroles who did not report back on time, told his story today. The story appeared in the prison newspaper, of which he was editor before his parole.

"I ran across some of the wild bunch," Tex wrote, "down in Texas. They laughed when I said that I was coming back to face 10 years. They called me a fool for even thinking of coming back and, like the fool they thought I was, I wavered.

Canadians to Supply San Francisco Coal

San Francisco, Jan. 19.—(U. P.)—A Canadian company may solve the coal shortage question in San Francisco for the future. The Canadian Collieries, Limited, has bought three big steamers, in which coal will be shipped to San Francisco from the Dunsmuir coal mines.

Many Endangered By Iron Explosion

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 19.—(I. N. S.)—Fifty men narrowly escaped death when tons of molten iron exploded in the plant of the Mississippi Iron company here this morning.

Preparations for Moving H-3 Start

Eureka, Cal., Jan. 19.—(U. P.)—Preparations for hauling the stranded submarine H-3 across the peninsula into Humboldt Bay, were started today.

Maranville to Sign Or Get Out of Sport

Boston, Mass., Jan. 19.—(I. N. S.)—"Walter Maranville will sign a contract for 1917 at the terms offered him or else get out of baseball," declared President Percy D. Haughton upon his return from New York.

BASEBALL NOTES

Roy Chapman, who in 1915 was regarded as the best shortstop in the major leagues, will be used in the outfield during 1917, says a dispatch from the east.

Golden West Bouts To Be Begun on Time

There will be no waits and delays in staging the six bout boxing card of the Golden West Athletic league next Tuesday night in the Rose City Athletic club. The first preliminary will be started promptly at 8:30 o'clock, and the other bouts will be ready to jump into the ring in their turns.

All-Stars to Play Benefit Tomorrow

Twenty-two of Portland's best soccer players will be seen in action tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 in a benefit game for the British Red Cross fund.

"Dutch" Reuther Is Cub Holdout. Chicago, Ill., Jan. 19.—"Dutch" Reuther, the Spokane twirler, drafted by the Chicago Nationals, has joined the ranks of the holdouts. Reuther finished the 1916 season with the Portland Coast league team.

Peanut Butcher to Play Ball. Los Angeles, Jan. 19.—(U. P.)—It's some jump from vendor of peanuts to player in baseball. The "peanut butter" player, Floyd Alley today decided he can do it. He has asked for a tryout with the Vernon pitching staff and this was granted by Tom Darmody, the Vernon owner. Alley has just won 10 straight games while pitching bush ball.

Three Browns Coming Back. Chicago, Jan. 19.—(U. P.)—Reports were current in baseball circles here today that Catcher Grover Hartley, infielder Ernie Johnson and First Baseman Babe Horton of the St. Louis Browns, are slated for release to the minors. Several offers for the three players are said to have been by class AA league clubs.

Wilbur Good to K. C. Chicago, Jan. 19.—(I. N. S.)—Wilbur Good, former Cub and last season with the Phillies, will continue his baseball career in the minor league. At least he will go there next season. He was sold to Kansas City of the American association.

Stovall Wants Johnson Again. Los Angeles, Jan. 19.—(U. P.)—Ernie Johnson, shortstop, who jumps to the Federals from Los Angeles, is wanted for the Vernon infield. Manager Stovall has written Fielding Jones of the Browns for figures on the former Angel. Two years ago Stovall and Darmody, who are now working together to get Johnson, were at swords' points over him. Stovall finally inducing Johnson to jump to the Federal league.

Navin After Joe Bush. Detroit, Mich., Jan. 19.—(U. P.)—Prexy Navin of the Tigers, is after Joe Bush premier of Connie Mack's pitching corps. It is learned. The Detroit owner got into action following publication of a report from Philadelphia that Bush would be dropped by Mack for objecting to a salary cut. Navin made overtures to Mack for Bush, but the Athletic would not listen.

Zinn Beck to Brewers. St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 19.—(I. N. S.)—Infielder Zinn Beck, of the St. Louis Cardinals, has been sold outright to the Milwaukee club of the American association, it was announced by Mrs.

Helen Britton, owner of the Cards. Details are withheld. Manager Shay of the Milwaukee club left for Cleveland where he expects to buy several players from the Indians.
