Jackson County Members Make Permanent Organization and Elect Officers.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

Plan is to Establish Uniformity of Valuations Covering Products.

Medford, Or., Jan. 20.—Members of the eight farmers' loan associations of Jackson county met at the public library hall Wednesday evening and perfected a permanent organization which has for its prime object the uniformity of valuations of farm lands in their districts under the classifications of alfalfa, fruit, grain and stock.

Scantlin Is President.

The loan committees elected for president Thomas E. Scantlin, and for secretary C. A. Myers.

As a further step toward completing the study of their duties the presidents and secretaries of the eight associations held a conference in which views were exchanged and the law more fully explained.

Dr. De Busk Pleased.

Medford, Or., Jan. 20.—Dr. E. W. De Busk, of the University of Oregon, who has been making a survey of the public schools of this city, complimented the school management highly on conditions he finds here.

Dr. De Busk stated that the noteworthy average here is due largely to the maintenance of the "opportunity room" and the excellent constructive work done therein.

LEGISLATORS SEED A.C.; SHOW KEEP INTEREST IN REGULAR ROUTINE

President Kerr Welcomes the Members and Townspeople Generally Are Their Hosts.

Corvallis, Or., Jan. 20.—When 59 members of the state legislature arrived at the campus this morning on their visit to the state agricultural college, probably 5900 people were on hand to greet them.

After a review of the cadet company, which elicited many favorable comments from the legislators, the delegates marched to convocation hall for the deferred convocation exercises of the week.

Welcomed by President. President Kerr briefly welcomed the legislators and other visitors and then introduced the Rev. E. W. Youngson, of Portland, who spoke on "American Spirit."

Music was furnished by the cadet band, Madrigal club and Mandolin club. Impromptu college songs and cheers were heard as the legislators left.

Regular Work Done. In all the class rooms and offices the regular Monday schedule was carried out.
