—The unique distinction of reading his own obituary has just been enjoyed by Prince Kanai Nagasawa of Fountain Grove, and he knows now just what his countrymen in Japan think of

The prince was recently attacked by appendicitis and an operation was performed. A report reached Japan that he had died ,and Tokio newspapers printed half page eulogies of him, accompanied by his picture. He was highly praised in these accounts of his The prince, who is recovering, has received copies of the papers,
