Patronesses for the Scottish Rite Ball

February 3. As usual, the members of the Alumnae association will give their offerings to the scholarship fund at the university at this time, and Mrs. Frederick G. Egbert will give a talk on the scholarship work at the university. Besides the members, all friends of the university are invited to the tea. No formal invitations will be issued.

Plans for the fifth annual formal ball of the Portland Rowing club were practically completed at a recent meeting of the board of directors. The affair will be given Friday evening, February 23, at the clubhouse foot of Ives street. The members of the committee were sparing neither work nor effort to make the ball as successful as on former occasions. The patronesses will be Mrs. H. G. Chickering, Mrs. H. E. Judge, Mrs. W. G. Patton, Mrs. E. A. Pfander, Mrs. J. F. Belsch and Mrs. R. W. Wilbur. The committee in charge is composed of Laurence Edwards, chairman; E. Humphrey, E. C. Sammons, G. Letz and F. R. Newell.

Mrs. George F. Fuller and her daughter, Miss Frances Fuller, left Thursday afternoon for San Francisco from where they will sail January 25 on the steamer Great Northern for Honolulu. They plan to make an indefinite stay in the islands.

The Multnomah club formal Thursday evening was an especially delightful affair. The beautiful club house lends itself so well to entertaining and a large number of club members and women and their friends were in attendance. The committee that arranged the party included: A. H. Allen, Harry Fischer and E. C. Sammons.

A delightful affair of the week was the informal tea given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. J. Ward Childs and Mrs. E. S. Roberts. Mrs. Childs, a bride of the New Year, the affair was given in the blue room of Hotel Portland and the guests, numbering 25, were members of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Oregon Grangers' association. The hostesses and the honor guests received, and those assisting about the room were Mrs. Charles D. Schreier, Mrs. Rose M. Finnigan and Mrs. M. J. Slatky. The pleasure of the Harlow-Grady was heightened by the singing of Miss Bee Meeker of Chicago, with Miss Eleanor Anderson at the piano. The room was made more attractive by the decorated pink azaleas and baskets of cyclamen, carnations and pussy-willows. During the afternoon dainty refreshments were served.

One of the events of the week was the informal tea given by Miss Flo Herman, in honor of Miss Flawncine Killenworth, bride-elect. Miss Herman was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Schiller Hermann, Mrs. Joseph Jacobson and Mrs. Mark Colby. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Edward Kropp, Mrs. Frederick H. Zeller and William E. Prudhomme. The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McDougall, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Albers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Kavelage, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Maher, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Swenney, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Zerach, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Phelan, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas J. Drew, and Mr. and Mrs. William M. Brennan. The reception committee was: Frank J. Lonergan, chairman; James F. Clark, Michael E. Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey B. Smith are encased in their new home, just completed at 511 Buena Vista drive, Portland Heights. A delightful evening was spent at dancing and games.

Mrs. Carl G. Liebe will leave Thursday for Los Angeles to spend a month with relatives and friends. She will make a brief visit in San Francisco on route south. Last Wednesday evening a number of friends of Mrs. Liebe dropped in at her home in Irvington as a surprise, the occasion being her birthday. A delightful evening was spent at dancing and games.

Members of the Monday Musical club are looking forward to the annual social event for the club members and their friends. A card party has been planned this year to take the place of the usual tea. The affair will be given January 25 at the residence of Mrs. M. Baker, 1110 East Thirtieth street north. The social committee which will have charge of the arrangements is as follows: Mrs. J. Coulsen Hare, Mrs. John F. Toft and Mrs. G. J. Frankel. Members may take guests. A fee of 25 cents will be charged for admission.

Mrs. William Eldon Furnish (Ruth Fraley) will be the honoree at a large tea January 24, for which her mother-in-law, Mrs. William Jeffers Furnish, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Stewart J. Moore, will be joint hostesses. The affair will be held at the Portland Heights residence of Mrs. William J. Furnish.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Vaughan and their niece, Miss LaVelle Florence, left Sunday for Southern California, where they will pass a month or six weeks motor-ing.

On February 2, Friday evening, Portland Social club, O. E. S., will give a Valentine party, cards and dancing at W. O. W. hall, 334 Russell street. All O. E. S. and friends invited.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening are: Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mendham, Miss Nellie McKinley, Mrs. Jennie Knepfer, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Wheat, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ring, Mr. and Mrs. Julius A. Dilg, Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Davis, Leslie Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Rose.

Committee on dancing: Orrel Rose, Mrs. H. L. Trostrod, Margaret Wheelbeck, Mrs. Ray Ethel Obrist, Dr. Melvin Lake and Dr. E. B. Wheat. Committee on cards: Mrs. E. C. Wegman and A. Hobson.

The Harlow-Grady hall was the scene of a merry gathering Thursday evening when some 20 score belles and beaux participated in a fancy dress party. Costumes of many striking types were much in evidence, St. Perkins familiarly hobnobbing with Chief Rain-in-the-Face, while Little Red Riding Hood fearlessly tripped the light fantastic with Don Quixote. The ballroom was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the multi-colored costumes made the scene one of riotous splendor. Dainty refreshments were served in the course of the evening.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Routledge, Misses Caroline Hewitt, Dorothy Lynds, Margaret Gilmore, Ruth Routledge, Alma Gruesel, Eva, Ray Ethel Obrist, Lepora Wilson, Mary Ross, Mildred Krause, Jesslyn Pottage, Mabel Thompson, Genevieve Russell, Georgia Brown, Hazel Beckett, Bertha Stoney, Helen Bate-man, and the Messrs. T. B. Collins, Alfred J. Shawcross, J. Reuther, J. W. Malley, Earl Cash, L. W. Hobbs, C. H. Routledge, Walter T. McGuirk, Guy Perkins, William Ferguson, Radford R. Shawcross, John L. Bozorth, John Hellig, A. H. Johnston, Harold Lyons, O. H. M. Langerak and Harold H. Grady.

Mrs. W. R. Gue was a charming hostess of last week when she entertained with a bridge luncheon at her home, 742 Everett street. It was a violet luncheon with lovely clusters of the flowers gracing the center of the table and scattered about the board. Mauve toned chrysanthemums decked the drawing room. Honors at cards fell to Mrs. Charles Lewis and the consolation prize to Mrs. M. B. James. Those who circled the board were: Mrs. William Obersteuffer, Mrs. J. Thompson, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. Samuel Boyer, Mrs. M. B. James, Mrs. Lee Teutsch, Mrs. W. E. Stewart, Mrs. Robert M. Townsend.

The members of the committee for the entertainment and dance to be given by the Portland Esthetic Dancing association have arranged an affair to be given at the Masonic Temple Wednesday evening, January 31. An interesting and artistic program is being planned.

An enjoyable time is being anticipated by club members and friends at the informal dancing party to be given by the Blackstone club next Tuesday evening at Marlark hall. Interesting features have been arranged for the occasion by the committee in charge. The committee is: T. B. Collins, Alfred J. Shawcross, Frank R. Manning, Earl W. Hammond, Carl J. Hurley, John L. Bozorth, James W. Crawford, Walter T. McGuirk, Fred W. Hummel, and the Misses Margaret E. Gilmore, Evangeline F. McIntosh, Alma M. Gruening, Jesslyn C. Pottage, Ruth A. Routledge, Margaret M. O'Shea, Doris Clark, Lydia M. Villeneuve and Nita D. Picken. The following are the patrons and patronesses for the evening: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Plowden Stott. Dancing will commence sharply at 8:45 o'clock.

Mrs. James Wilson of Salem was the guest of Mrs. Robert Townsend for several days last week. Mrs. Townsend left the latter part of the week for a short sojourn in Seattle.

Friday evening at the Assembly hall of the Multnomah hotel the Daughters of the Confederacy Charity ball was given with much success. The event was termed a charity ball, and proceeds will be used for the Oregon Chapter's relief work among Confederate veterans. The hall was thronged with guests, for the most part former southern people who are making their homes in Portland. The many beautiful gowns worn and the good music furnished in making the affair a memorable one. The grand march was led off at 9 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Montrose M. Rindler leading, the latter in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Rindler gave exhibition dancing, which was a feature of the evening. The patronesses were: Mrs. T. C. Morton, Mrs. H. H. Duff, Mrs. E. R. Moses, Mrs. A. M. Lee, Mrs. F. J. Joplin, Mrs. J. C. Nissen, Mrs. E.

Mitchell and Mrs. J. C. P. Westergard. The committee on arrangements includes: Mrs. V. M. C. Silva, Mrs. L. E. Bailey, Mrs. E. T. Hellund and Mrs. U. L. Hanson.

One of the most charming affairs of the season was the bridge tea last Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. Lemmon, wife of Captain K. K. Lemmon, and Mrs. Hyde, wife of Lieut. E. B. Hyde, at the home of Mrs. Lemmon at Fort Stevens. The tea was given in honor of Miss Margaret Taylor of Astoria, bride-elect of Captain William P. Carrier of Vancouver barracks.

The guests played bridge, the prizes being won by Mrs. Horace Thing of McGowan and Mrs. Wetleson of Fort Stevens, after which luncheon was served.

The decorations were carried out in army colors, the score cards being decorated with tiny American flags. The tea table was centered with two "wreath" dolls dressed as bride and groom, standing upon a mirror under a wedding bell of red crepe paper, from which hung a shower of red hearts suspended on red ribbons.

Around the mirror was a miniature garden of red carnations and white flowers. The place cards were paper soldiers.

Those present were: Mrs. A. C. Wimberly, Mrs. F. A. Buel, Mrs. I. H. Mott, Mrs. Frank J. Taylor, Mrs. William Whittaker, Mrs. Margaret, Mrs. Wetleson, Mrs. Henry McGowan, Mrs. Horace Thing, Mrs. A. V. Allen, Mrs. Miss Helen Taylor, Miss Winnifred VanDusen, the honor guest, and the hostesses.

The Alameda club held the first meeting of the year Tuesday, Mrs. A. J. Browning being hostess at her home, 825 East Thirty-second street north. The regular bi-weekly meetings were first called to order and reports from committees heard, the remainder of the afternoon being spent in a social way.

Mrs. Dudley Clarke will entertain the club at its next meeting on Tuesday, January 23, at her home, 721 East Twenty-seventh street north.

Miss Elsa Swanson, entertained at a delightful party January 13, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Swanson, 935 Francis avenue, in honor of Miss Mathilda Westman of St. Paul, Minn. The evening was spent in playing various kinds of games and contests. Misses Inez Peterson, Edith Swanson and Helen Axelsson rendered several piano solos, and Jacob Wallin favored the guests with vocal selections.
