A visualization of Paul Armstrong's drama, "The Escape," a strong appeal for more care before marriage and less repentance afterward, opened at the Globe theatre today. The film is Griffith production, and a number of noted screen actors are conspicuous in the cast, Among them are Bianche Sweet, Ralph Lewis, Mac Marsh, Robert Harron and Fay Tincher. The film is not a morality play, and it deals with no white slave topics. It opens with a depiction of the care used in breeding of domestic human beings and the disastrous rewill run for an entire week.

WHAT LABOR IS DOING

Practical Lecture Course Given Before Engineers by Professors.

Will Lecture on Electricity .- Pro fessor R. H. Dearborn will lecture on Saturday night before the Engineers, local 87, at Selling-Hirsch hall, Tenth and Washington streets, on the subject "Electricity." This is part of the extension course of the Oregon Agricultural college, and admission is free. The course is along practical lines connected with engineer problems. One lecture a month is delivered before the engineers and other constructive and mechanical crafts can obtain similar lectures along practical lines without any cost by corresponding with the O. A. C.

Times Reported Better.—The build-ing trades have found that with the emand in shipbuilding lines, drawing of many mechanics to eastern factories and of foreigners to Europe industrial conditions are much better now than a year ago. Reports of delegates at the Central Labor council indicate that there will be a number of building contracts let in the cear future in Portland that will make demand for the idle men now on the olls of a number of unions.

Municipal Matters Shelved. - The legislative committee of the Central Labor council has a number of proposed municipal matters before it for consideration but is not disposed to act pending state matters, considered of more immediate importance,

Card and Label Social.-The Card and Label league will give a social and supper next Thursday night at the half over the Citizens bank on East Alder street. Interesting talks will be made and a program given.
