ARTCRAFT'S MANAGER HERE

Marguerite Snow, noted motion picture star, and George M. Cohan, nationally famous comedian.

Artcraft Corporation's Pacific Coast head, Arthur Searles Kane, who has been spending several weeks in the Pacific northwest.

There are many influences all exerting a many sided pressure at the same time.

"This company is organized on a substantial business like basis and it has come to stay and to provide motion picture public with the exception in pictures.

"There is one thing that Artcraft manages by means of which it is one suited to the star who performs in them.

"The Strahorn Subscription." Pendleton, Or., Jan. 31.—To the Editor of the Journal—The article by Charles P. Church on the so-called "Strahorn subscription" and find myself wondering why a man should be put in a position to manage an industry in which there are conditions that he, in my opinion, has neglected to investigate.

READERS DISCUSS ISSUES Opinions Expressed on a Variety of Subjects Now Receiving Attention in the News Columns.
