Salem, Or., Feb. 15 .- The great fight of the session in the senate over highway legislation is raging today over house bill 502, introduced in the house as a substitute for the Schimpff and Laurgaard road bills. -

House bill 502, being a new highway code, was a special order for 10:30 o'clock this morning and on motion of Senator Eddy the senate went into committee of the whole to consider the bill section by section.
The first sharp contests occurred over the question of salary for the three members of the highway commission, to be appointed by the governor from the three congressional districts, and whether the state engineer should be an ex-officio member of the commission and highway engineer.

It early developed that those who been standing with the grange and other organizations that had favored the Schimpff bill were far from satisfied with the provisions of the

The morning session was almost entirely taken up with consideration of the smut problem. Considerable divergence in point of view was evident between millers and growers, and exporters said that smutted wheat frequently can be exported as No. 1 grade, even though local millers will not accept it without dockage.

Dr. Brand summed up the govern-ment's attitude when he said that for-eign buyers have been 'bunked' long' enough with smutty wheat that has been cleaned and sold as straight grade and that the honest policy will be to designate whether the wheat was affected with smut when it came from the field, then determine the price by its present quality. To meet the convenience of the Multnomah hotel, the afternoon session was transferred from the hostelry to the green room of the Chamber of Commerce. Members of the grain standards board will leave tonight for Seattle, where a hearing is to be held watch was plainly audible seven or Seattle, where a hearing is to be held watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this forcatarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective. Berlin, Feb. 15.—(I. N. S.)— Via wireless)—The following arewell message was sent to the German government by James W. Gerard, the former American ampassador, on the eve of his departure, says the Overseas News agency today: "The regulations of the German government surpass anywhich might have been hoped for by the embassy and the American colony. German chivalry and hospitality have brilliantly stood the test in these trying days."

Berne, via Paris, Feb. 15 .- (U. P.) sermany's censorship cut an important "joker" out of the text of the treaty which German officials demanded that American Ambassador under threat to hold American newspaper correspondents as hostages.

The same strict German censorship hich has concealed real developments in the empire and left untold active anti-American propaganda therein, did not permit an intimation of this "joker" to slip out of the country.

It was reading this stipulation that Ambassador Gerard, as has been re-lated in previous United Press dis-patches from Berne, told Count Mountgelas, for transmission to Foreign Secretary Zimmerman, that he would not even consider the matter-and that he would "remain in Berlin until kingdom come" if Germany carried out her threat to hold Americans as hostages Excision of this provision from the ext of the treaty is another example of the strictness of the German censorship which for months has refused to pass real developments to America.
