

SHIPPING BILL AMENDMENTS ARE AGREED ON

Merchant Marine Committee Will Report to House on Thursday; President Given Additional Power.

REGULATIONS GOVERN TRANSFER OF VESSELS

Provision Made That Craft 50 Per Cent Perfect May Be Purchased.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Representative McArthur believes the shipping bill reported to the house today from the Merchant Marine committee to apply to foreign ownership will go into effect only in case of war or a national emergency proclaimed by the president.

MAN KILLS LANDLADY IN ROW OVER MONEY THEN TAKES OWN LIFE

John Diaz, Angered to Fury Over Loss of Purse, Takes Life of Mrs. Angelina Boist

Mrs. Angelina Boist, also known by her maiden name of Costa Serrano, an Italian, and joint proprietress of the Erickson rooming house, 24 1/2 North Third street, was shot and killed shortly after noon today by John Diaz, a Mexican, who immediately killed himself.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Dr. Frederick B. Gay, head of the department of pathology of the University of California, will announce in a bulletin within a few days successful experiments in the cure of tuberculosis in animals and the prospect for similar results in the treatment of human beings with a newly discovered anti-toxin.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Congress Will Be Addressed by President

Executive Plans to Ask for Power to Protect the Rights of Americans.

THOROUGH INQUIRY IS PLAN OF COMMISSION

Experts Would Direct Investi- gation and Turn Evidence Over for Prosecution.

Washington, Feb. 21.—(U. P.)—Declaring the food situation constitutes "one of the gravest problems of the hour," the federal trade commission announced today it will not wait for the $400,000 appropriation from congress to probe charges of extortionate food prices.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Dr. Frederick B. Gay, head of the department of pathology of the University of California, will announce in a bulletin within a few days successful experiments in the cure of tuberculosis in animals and the prospect for similar results in the treatment of human beings with a newly discovered anti-toxin.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

PRESIDENT TO FIGHT FOR FOOD INQUIRY FUNDS

Executive Will Give Personal Attention Toward Swinging Congress Into Line Behind His Suggestion.

THOROUGH INQUIRY IS PLAN OF COMMISSION

Experts Would Direct Investi- gation and Turn Evidence Over for Prosecution.

Washington, Feb. 21.—(U. P.)—Declaring the food situation constitutes "one of the gravest problems of the hour," the federal trade commission announced today it will not wait for the $400,000 appropriation from congress to probe charges of extortionate food prices.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Dr. Frederick B. Gay, head of the department of pathology of the University of California, will announce in a bulletin within a few days successful experiments in the cure of tuberculosis in animals and the prospect for similar results in the treatment of human beings with a newly discovered anti-toxin.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT

Legislature on Last Night Finds Some Money Left; It's Shelled Out to Rela- tives and Others.

Pleasant Greetings Pay Girl Gateman Leaves Her $10,000 Saw Her Daily on Ferry Boat

Miss Ella T. Pearson, pretty stenographer who has been left fortune by old ferryman because she always greeted him pleasantly. This photograph was taken some years ago.

EXISTING CONTRACTS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED, CHAMBERLAIN STATES

Washington, Feb. 21.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Senator Chamberlain is not satisfied that the house bill meets the situation. He thinks the senate committee will frame provisions to protect ship contractors. The committee has finished the bill except for one or two other sections. Alternative plans are being worked out for taking care of ships now under construction, so that if foreign owners renounce contracts under restraints imposed, existing contracts will, nevertheless, be fully protected.

GRANT LAND TAXATION ACTION BY SOLONS OF OREGON UNWISE, VIEW

Chamberlain Says It Tends to Prejudice Those in Con- gress Who Are Friends.

Beavers Arrive in Honolulu Today

Honolulu, Feb. 21.—(By Wireless.)—The Portland baseball club arrived this morning in good shape after a pleasant trip. The first game will be played tomorrow with colored soldiers.

Anti-Toxin for Tuberculosis Is Believed Found

Dr. M. Takeoka, of University of California Medical School Staff Makes Startling Discovery.

STEENOGRAPHERS AND CLERKS GET IN ON LAST CUT