SAMUEL C. LANCASTER DOING GREAT WORK IN THE EAST FOR OREGON

Z. Swett Says Views Shown Are Eagerly Scanned and Sought After.

PAPERS' NOTICES FLATTER

Mr. Swett Reports Business Conditions East Good and Prices High. Scare Affects Wall Street.

Splendid publicity work for Portland and the Columbia river highway is being accomplished in the east by Samuel C. Lancaster, engineer of the highway, according to Z. Swett, manuger of the Portland Emporium, who has just returned from an eastern trip during which he met Mr. Lancaster at New York and Chicago. Mr. Lancaster's lecture on the highway and the scenic attractions of Oregon, with the accompanying screen views, is in much demand throughout the east, and the eastern pappers give flattering notices wherever he has appeared. Mr. Lancaster lately appeared before the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, speaking on "The Scenic Beauty of Oregon." He also gave his lecture before the National Geographic society of Washington, D. C., and the grain for M. H. Houser.

The Woman's Journal, a paper having a national circulation, secently devoted a full page to Portland and its scenic environments, using cuts of a birdseye view of Portland, a diagram of the heart of the city, the divide in the Cascade range and Shepperd's Dell.

Mr. Lancaster informed Mr. Swett that he is scheduled to lecture in wouth Kansas City February 23, 24 and 28, On March 9 he will appear before the Geographic Society of Chicago, and later before the American Scenic and Historic Preservation society of New Pears Effect of War Scare.

"Mr. Lancaster, however." Mr. Swett said today, "fears somewhat the effect of the war scare. He is afraid tha should conditions become more seri ous the tourists will be inclined to stay at home. He is hopeful, how ever, and believes that many peopl will be attracted to Oregon.

Mr. Swett found business condition very good in the east, but corroborat ed the stories of the skyward prices Everything is high in the east," Mr. Swett continued, "but I think the limit is reached in the hotels and restaurants. There the prices are exorbitant. The same with the theatres-I had to pay $5 for a $2 seat to hear Caruso, and usual $6 seats were selling for Wallcet Only Excited. "The war scare has caused but little excitement among the general public. About the only excitement exists in Beaver. Wall street among the speculators. Business men generally hope that war may be averted; nobody wants it, but should it come everyone will be solidly behind the president.

"The most serious condition and San Diego."

"The most serious condition confronting the east is the congestion of export freight and the blockade of the railroads. I believe the advance in prices of foodstuffs is due to the fac that the railroads have been giving preference of shipments to munition and have not been carrying foodstuff to the big centers.'
