

MUFF BRONSON WINS COAST TITLE IN BOUT WITH EDDIE PINKMAN

Portland Lightweight Came Near Knocking Seattle's Pride Out in Fourth Round.

LARGE CROWD SEES CARD

Jimmy Duffy Shows Much Class in Beating Davidson—Cliff Knocks Out Borden in Two Short Rounds.

Just when Eddie Pinkman, Seattle's aristocratic boxer, was "kidding" Muff Bronson about leading, the local lightweight cut loose with a terrific straight right to the jaw that sent the Puget sound boy half way across the ring and up against the ropes.

This bout was the main event of the smoker in the Rose City Athletic club last night, which was witnessed by one of the largest crowds of the season.

Bronson is Careful. Pinkman and Bronson were very cautious during the first two rounds, neither boxer opening up; but in the third they exchanged a few stiff punches.

Shortly after the opening of the fourth round Pinkman started to force the milling, when Bronson saw an opening and hit his mark. Pinkman went against the ropes with such a great force that he bounded back into the middle of the ring before Bronson could set himself.

Referee Eddie O'Connell did not hesitate in awarding Bronson the decision. It was the only course he could have taken.

Beyers a Bloomer. Al Beyers' first appearance before the club was more or less a bloomer. Billy Nelson, who boxed Frank Hinkel Thursday night, winning over the former Multnomah boy by a mile, Beyers did not show any of his former hitting ability and his judgment of distance was very bad due to the fact that he has not boxed since 1915.

"Shadow" Duffy was awarded the decision over Charley Davidson of Seattle who substituted for George Ross of Vancouver. Ross injured his hand in training and did not come to Portland, Duffy did not get any credit for his great boxing because the fans were in sympathy with Davidson, who is about as tall as Abbie Gordon, but every bit as heavy as Duffy.

Walter Pipp, home-run king of the American league, is a more finished ball player than a year ago, and he will land the first basing job without any opposition. Fritz Mausel is being groomed for a shot at second base, and he is expected to outshine Joe Gedeon, the flivver of a year ago, to such an extent that Joe will drift back to A.A. classification.

As outfielders there will be Lee Magee, Hughie High, Tim Hendryx and Frank Gilhooley. Hendryx, by the way, gave promise last year of making some of the others step some to retain their places.

Should Have Good Staff. The pitching staff is a thing to dream about. With a year's experience together tucked away and with the confidence of a young baseball club behind them, this staff should blaze the way this year with little trouble.

Corvallis, Feb. 24.—By a score of 25 to 22, decisions counting four points and falls five points, O. A. C. defeated the University of Washington in a wrestling tournament here last night. Detailed results were as follows:

115 pounds—Bouton, U. of W., won two decisions over Strong, O. A. C. 125 pounds—Boyer, O. A. C., won decision and fall from Sartorius, U. of W., getting the fall in three minutes and 20 seconds.

155 pounds—Bollman, U. of W., won decision and fall from Watson, O. A. C., getting the fall just inside the limit of six minutes.

185 pounds—Allworth, O. A. C., got decision over McAdams, U. of W., in first bout. McAdams won second bout by a fall in five minutes, 25 seconds. Allworth won a decision in the third and deciding bout.

BRINGING UP FATHER

BILL DONOVAN'S YANKS SHOULD FIGURE IN RACE

First N. Y. Squad Will Depart for Training Camp Next Saturday.

By H. C. Hamilton. New York, Feb. 24.—(U. P.)—With all the cracks puffed and the broken legs as good as ever, the Yankees will get away to another flying start in their hunt for a pennant.

The Yanks deteriorated from a potential possibility last season to a hospital squad that had a hard time staying in the first division. This year everything will be all patched and ready when training starts.

Donovan has just as fine a looking squad as any of the big league teams as those who opened the season a year ago. If anything, the layout for 1917 surpasses that of the preceding annum.

Walter Pipp, home-run king of the American league, is a more finished ball player than a year ago, and he will land the first basing job without any opposition.
