REAL MANAGER OF LES DARCY IS AT LAST IN OPEN

Jack Kearns Announces He Can Prove Claim but Keeps Evidence Hidden

New York, Feb. 24,-(U. P.)-Jack Kearns, globe-trotting boxing promoter # and manager of several well known boxers, broke his long silence today and declared he is the one and only manager of Les Darcy. It is the first time Kearns has had anything to say since shortly before Darcy landed in managerial claims in Chicago.

Anglers Hooked in Trying Other Than Their Own Game

Just as one of the officers of a local sportsmen's club has drawn a pair to match his three deuces and was reaching out for the pot, the front doorbell jingled softly. The maid's voice was heard saying "Good evening," and a heavy baritone was heard to inquire: "Where are the boys?"

Thinking that some other Portland anglers were coming to help this appropriate celebration of the legislature's closing the Willamette river to fishing, the party around the dining room table merely Entered then three stalwarts.

"You boys are all under arthey explained, throwing back their coat lapels and disclosing the gleaming stars of authority, "Now for your authority, names, all."

With a great qualm, the looked to see if they could hide the chips, but that was impossible. So they started to give their names. One tried to tell the plainclothesmen his name was something like Smith or Jones, but a rau-cous laugh greeted his feeble

"Now you boys be ready to show up at police court when you're sent for. The charge is playing poker without a government license. You'd better get home now, because we're going to stay till this game breaks up."

TRAPSHOOTERS WILL HONOR PRESIDENT OF PORTLAND GUN CLUB

Special Tournament Scheduled to Be Staged on Everding Traps March 11.

LEWIS SYSTEM ADOPTED

Pifteen Prizes Donated for the Winners of the Various Classes; Zachrisson Defends Bristol Cup Today.

Oregon trapshooters will honor John G. Clemson, president of the Portland Gun club, and one of the staunchest supporters of the trap game in the northwest, two weeks from today. Arrangements have been completed for the staging of a special merchandise tourney on that day, and it is expected that over 50 shooters will be present at the Everding Park traps.

Various members of the club have ionated 15 prizes, which will be awarded members in good standing only. Visitors and shooting salesmen are in-vited to participate in the tourney. The shoot will be staged under the Lewis class system, and will consist of two 25 bird events. Under this system, the low average shooter has an equal chance with the high score men. All ties will be shot miss and out, and contestants failing to appear to shoot off ties will lose by default.

The winners in each class will draw for their prizes, which are as follows: 1-American Shooter one year.

2-Sporting Life one year. -Sportsmens' Review one year. -Gun case, -Flash light Two boxes Winchester trap loads

Two boxes Remington trap loads. -Sportsmen's Review one year. 9-Sporting Life one year. 10-American Shooter one year. 11-Two hunting clasp knives.

12-Two boxes Selby trap loads. 13-Two boxes western trap loads. 14-Two boxes Peters trap loads. 15-Du Pont Powder company cup.

The shoot will begin promptly at 9:30 a, m., and no entry will be accepted after 10:30 o'clock. Frank M. Troeh, the Vancouver Wash., trap expert and holder of the national singles championship, captured the first prize of the Western Cartridge company merchandise contest during the 1916 season with 45 points to his credit. Dr. C. L. Templeton, a brother of Frank Templeton, former secretary of the Portland Gun club, has been elect-
