Some of the outside buyers who came here Some of the outside buyers who came here to speculate in stock and purchased liberal lots, are now said to be rejecting the potatoes because of the slump in the trade. This, however, is shown in the case of only certain dealers, for most of the outsiders are playing the game on the square.

Along Front street the market for potatoes continues extremely quiet.

ONIONS ARE VERY SLOW

While the general trade is still selling cabbage at 514c a pound, some of the reenivers of California stock are quoting as high as 7c a pound. Very litle real good quality local cabbage remains.

VEAL MARKET NOW STEADY Market for country killed cuives is generally quoted steady by wholesalers; the re-cent weakness having subsided. While no changes are shown in prices, the demand is somewhat better for the higher quality.

WOOL HIGHER ALONG COAST Special advices received by The Journal from its Boston correspondent indicate that as high as 45c a pound is being-offered and paid in Nevada for contracts on wool. Eastern markets firm but quiet with a lack of

California Breaks Local Egg Market; May Be Scheme

Some Believe That Storage Interests Planned the Break to Get Stock Lower.

With heavy supplies of California eggs still coming forward to the local trade and increasing volume of local arrivals, the market along the wholesale way is very much depressed. Cleanups were reported by some of the wholesalers at 23c a dozen for case count. While there was a nominal amount of business reported with retailers as high as 24c a dezen for current arrivals, the lulk of the siles were made at the lower price, practically establishing the market there.

and who practically run the buyers off their places at the point of a shotgun when they desired to purchase, are now quite willing to accept the market for supplies.

In fact, they are paying the dealers friendly visits these days in an effort to get them to purchase their supplies. Farmers that refused $1.75 and even $1.85 per cental at country points a week ago are today willing to sell at $3, although a few are asking $3.25. The extreme top price that is being offered by buyers is $3 per cental and there are few willing to take hold at any price at the moment.

No clean-up of supplies was shown at any price. Demand was not great eneough to about the cfferings. It is said to be the plan of some of the big operators to bring the California low-price for soorage.

While it is thue that the importers will lose money on their Petalumas, still the losses are said to be merely nominal, when by this means the price for local stock can be reduced for storing purposes.

REPORT SHOWS NEED OF MONEY TO FIGHT PACIFIC LIVESTOCK CO.

MUCH EVIDENCE OF FRAUD

Attorney General Brown Names Various Irregularities in Securing of Harney County Lands.

> Why Attorney General George M. Brown battled for an appropriation sufficient to enable his office to continue the suits begun against the Pacific Livestock company for the alleged fraudulent acquisition of 26,835 acres of land in Harney and Grant counties, is made plain in the report which he filed with the state land board. Why, in the face of this report, and the showing it made, State Treasurer T. B. Kay lobbied so insistently against the appropriation being given cannot so plainly be seen. Prior to the recent legislative session Attorney General Brown prepared and submitted a report to the state his office in connection with the Pacific Livestock company case, in which he showed the development and progress of the case from the date of its filing April 19, 1914, to the present.

Irregularities Are Shown. The report shows that the suit was filed by the attorney general upon the written request of Governor West April 19, 1914, to recover 26,835 acres of land estimated to be worth in excess of $450,000, upon the allegation that the lands had been secured from the state by fraudulent means.
There are involved in the case 6240 acres of school lands of the estimated value of $93,600 and upwards; 10,823 acres of school indemnity lands of the estimated value of $162,345 and up-these lands were secured from the state, according to the report filed All the copper shares were in brisg demand, and the land board. It is believed that funds sufficient to enable the attorney general to prosecute the suit will probably be furnished by citizens of the state, who contend that the district will never be developed until the immense holdings of the Pacific Livestock company are broken up and the small settler is permitted to enter the valley, giving it population and development, and who see the solution of the problem in the revestment of such of the lands a capacity of 200 yards a day.
