grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. George L. Baker, directed by Montrose M. Ringler. The door prize, a fine box of candy, was drawn by Mrs. Wellington. So enjoyable was the affair that it has been decided to give a series of dances.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McKinley entertained Monday evening with a small and informal dinner party at the Hotel Portland in compliment to Mr. McKinley's cousin, John McKinley of West Salem, Mich., whom he had not seen in 27 years, and Mrs. McKinley. Additional covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George Veits and Mr. and Mrs. George McClintock, all of whom were former residents of Michigan.

Charming in every detail was the dinner party presided over by Miss Floretta Velguth on Sunday night, honoring several members of Psi Omega fraternity, Chi chapter. Quantities of foliage were arranged about the rooms and the dining room presented a graceful array of spring flowers in keeping with the green and gold color scheme. The table was prettily appointed and adorned with a low crystal bowl filled with daffodils and fernery. Pretty buttercup baskets and a hand-painted reproduction of the fraternity pin, marked places for Wayne Gourley, Donald Spratley, Thomas Skalley, James Neidigh, Wallace Sundborg, Mr. Nabrushek, G. Brown, Dr. Linford Hesson, George Velguth and the charming hostess.

On March 17, Portland Social club, O. E. S., will give a St. Patrick's dance and card party at the Masonic temple, Eleventh and Yamhill streets. The club's dances are always looked forward to by all O. E. S. and their friends, and this dance promises to be one of the best during the year. Dr. E. B. Wheat is chairman of the committee of arrangement. The committee is busy arranging some interesting features for the evening.

At an informal at-home given Sunday evening by Mrs. George M. Weister, in Irvington, E. J. Jaeger gave an entertaining talk on his travels in Japan, illustrated with a number of lantern slides made by pictures which he took and had finished and tinted in Japan. There were about 35 present. The serving of tea preceded the talk.

A surprise party was given in honor of Robert Smith, who has returned with Battery A, of Oregon National Guards, by Miss Morine Protzman, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stiller, 1363 East Madison. A feature of the evening was progressive five hundred, prizes being awarded Mrs. E. McConnell and John Farrier. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. McConnell, Helen Dickman, Alta Scador, Fernie Croxly, Anna Ballah, Florence Johnson, Dora Gardner, Jeanette Mehus, Myrtle Dement, Laura Heinrich, Evelyn Sutherland, Martha Brush, Edna Ellidge, Rose Callaghan, Mary Westergard, Nellie Stevy, Horace Armlisan, William Bradshan, Le Roy Russell, Jack Peister, Harry Young, Keith Caldwell, Messrs. Kincaid and Hammer, John Farrier, Lonnie Duntley, William Ross.

In honor of his 55th birthday, Ernest Wells entertained 30 members of the Portland alumni chapter of Kappa Sigma fraternity and their ladies at a ball at the Multnomah hotel last Monday evening. Mr. Wells was graduated at the University of California with the class of 1905, and is a member of Beta Xi chapter of Kappa Sigma. A feature of the delightful evening was the luncheon served in the tea garden of the Multnomah, where the host presided.

In addition to the members of the Portland alumni chapter of the fraternity, several active members of Gamma Alpha chapter at the University of Oregon and Gamma Sigma chapter at the Oregon Agricultural college were guests of Mr. Wells. Several social affairs are planned by the alumni chapter for the spring and summer months.

The annual dinner and family reunion of the Duback family was held at Mrs. L. A. Bailey's residence, 403 Park street, Monday in honor of their mother, Mrs. Dorothea Duback's, seventy-eighth birthday. The table decorations were potted hyacinths, the gifts from friends. Mrs. Duback is a pioneer of 1855, and each year looks forward with pleasure to these gatherings. She is the mother of 12 children, all living near Vancouver, Wash., and Portland except the oldest son, Frank. Many birthday greetings reached her from friends. Mrs. Bailey was assisted by her sisters. Those seated around the table were Mrs. Duback, Mr. and Mrs. Fred V. Duback, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Duback, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. J. D. Duback, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Duback, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Duback, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duback, Captain and Mrs. L. A. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Steele, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, Mrs. May D. Rybee, and grandchildren Julius B. Bailey, Harold Brown, Lester Duback and Miss Ella Bird, an old friend of the family.

The directors of the club of men interested in a municipal golf course held their regular weekly luncheon at the Hotel Portland, Tuesday, when the members gave encouraging talks on the outlook for a municipal course.

Felicitations were extended Mrs. Ada Isom on the occasion of the anniversary of her birthday in a delightfully arranged surprise party by E. R. Cherryman in the lower ballroom of Christensen's hall, Tuesday evening. Dancing and "500" were the chief diversions of the evening. Between dances Dan Quimby pleased with a reading of the "Soul of the Violin," Miss Charlotte Sherlock rendered two violin selections and Miss Fay Eliza Riddick sang a group of charming songs. At 11 o'clock supper was announced. The tables were most attractively decorated with scarlet carnations and early spring blossoms. Rev. T. M. Minard responded to the toast, "The Spirit of Birthdays." Those present were: E. R. Cherryman, Mrs. Ada Isom, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sherlock, Mr. and Mrs. George Harder, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gage, Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Minard, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schwarbeck, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whiteaker, Mrs. D. J. Quimby, Mrs. A. E. Sandercock, Mrs. Clara Shaw, Mrs. John J. "Wonderlift" Works Wonders!

Do you see how it is done?

Put on your Wonderlift Corset in usual way (front steels must reach to lowest point of abdomen). Pull Bandlet lacers (on each side) slowly and evenly straight down, until the Bandlet (inside) gently lifts up the sagging flesh into normal position. Tie laces.

This will give you:

Healthful support; comfortable reduction (you will lose inches and pounds); smooth, unbroken, youthful, fashionable lines; your best possible figure.

MODELS SKETCHED—No. 555, for the tall full figure; No. 554, for a fuller figure of medium height; and No. 553, for the very stout, stocky figure. All in sizes up to 36. $5

Other Wonderlift models for other figures, from lean and bony (different form of Bandlet) to the extremely large and heavy—$5 to $10. One model de luxe—$12.
